

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

under which such company was or shall have been organized; and, provided, further, that nothing herein shall affect any suit or proceeding, at the time of filing such amended certificate, pending by or against said corporation; or impairing any rights of action accrued by or against its stockholders, corporators or directors; and, provided, further, that the total authorized capital stock of any such corporation shall not be increased or decreased in the amended certificate herein provided for.

Proviso.

Repealer.

2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately, and that all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act be and the same are hereby repealed.

Approved January 26, 1892.

LEON ABBETT,

Governor.

JAMES J. BERGEN,

Speaker of the House of Assembly.

ROBERT ADRAIN,

President of the the Senate.

CHAPTER II.

A Further Supplement to an act entitled "An act concerning corporations" [Revision], approved April 7, 1875.

Corporations may make certain changes in one certificate.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That any corporation of this state, incorporated under any general law of this state, may, in one certificate, change the name of said corporation, increase or decrease the amount of the capital stock of said corporation, increase or decrease the number of shares of the capital stock of said corporation, and increase or decrease the par value of each of said shares of the capital stock of said corporation, thus making any or all of said changes in said one certificate.

2. And be it enacted, That, in order to avail themselves of the powers conferred by section one of this act, it shall be necessary to obtain the assent, in writing, of the stockholders representing two-thirds in value of the existing capital stock of said corporation, and the assent of the board of directors, given at a general meeting, or a special meeting called for that purpose, and expressed by a majority vote of all the directors of said board.

Assent of stockholders and directors.

3. And be it enacted, That a certificate, reciting these assents, executed by such officers of the company as shall be determined by a resolution of said board of directors, and under the seal of the said company, with an affidavit of the secretary of said company that the seal of the company thereto attached is the seal of said company, and that the officers executing said certificate are the officers of said corporation, as expressed therein, shall be recorded in the office of the clerk of the county where the principal office of said company is located, and thereafter filed in the office of the secretary of state, which recording shall be done within thirty days after the execution of said certificate.

Certificate of assents to be recorded and filed.

4. And be it enacted, That upon the filing of said certificate in the office of the secretary of state, the name of the corporation shall be changed as therein stated, the amount of the capital stock, the number of shares of the capital stock and the par value of each of said shares of stock, shall thereafter be as stated therein, and a certified copy of said certificate by the secretary of state shall be taken and accepted as evidence of such changes in any court of this state.

Changes made upon filing certificate in office of secretary of state.

5. And be it enacted, That on filing said certificate with the secretary of state, the corporation filing the same shall pay to the secretary of state twenty dollars for each change made as aforesaid in said one certificate, the same as if a separate certificate had been filed for each of said changes set forth in said certificate.

Fees for filing..

6. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved January 26, 1892.

CHAPTER III.

An Act respecting police departments in cities of the second class, and regulating the tenure and terms of office of certain officers employed in said departments.

Chiefs and captains of police in cities of the second class to hold office during good behavior.

Causes for removal.

Charges and manner of trial.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That in all cities of the second class in this state, whether the police departments therein are under the control of the city council, board of aldermen, police commissioners or otherwise, the chief and captain of police employed or appointed by municipal authority in such cities shall severally hold their respective offices and continue in their respective employment as such municipal officers and employees during good behavior, efficiency and residence in such city; and no such chief or captain shall be removed from office or employment in the police department of any such city for political reasons or for any other cause than incapacity, misconduct, non-residence or disobedience of just rules and regulations established, or which may be established by the proper municipal authority.

2. And be it enacted, That no chief or captain of police in any such city shall be removed from office except for just cause as provided in the first section of this act, and then only after written charge or charges of the cause or causes of complaint shall have been preferred against any such officer, signed by the person or persons making such charge or charges and filed with the municipal officer, officers or board having charge of the department of police, and after the said charge or charges have been publicly examined into by the appropriate municipal board, or the police committee thereof, if the same be duly referred to said committee, upon such reasonable notice to the person charged, and in such manner of examination as the rules and regulations governing the same may prescribe, it being the intent of this act to give every person against whom charges for any cause may be preferred under this act a fair trial upon said charges, and every reasonable opportunity to make his defense, if any he has or chooses to make, and the municipal board or committee having power to try such charges shall have power to issue writs of subpoena to compel the attendance of witnesses and production of books and papers, which writs shall be served in the same manner as subpoenas issued out of the court for the trial of small causes, and every person who neglects or refuses to obey the command of any such writ shall be liable to a penalty of twenty-five dollars, to be sued for in the corporate name of the city in any court of competent jurisdiction, and the penalty when collected shall be paid into the poor fund of such city.

3. And be it enacted, That all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act, be and the Repealer. same are hereby repealed.

Approved January 26, 1892.

CHAPTER V.

An Act to repeal the act entitled "A further supplement to an act entitled 'An act respecting the compensation of the chancellor and the justices of the supreme court,' approved March fourteenth, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine," which said further supplement was approved April 17th, 1891.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That the said act entitled "A further supplement to an act entitled 'An act respecting the compensation of the chancellor and the justices of the supreme court,' approved March fourteenth, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine," which said further supplement was approved April 17th, 1891, be and the same is hereby repealed.

Approved February 3, 1892.

CHAPTER VI.

An Act concerning licenses to keep inns and taverns and to sell ale, strong beer, lager beer, porter, wine, and other malt liquors in the boroughs of this state.

License to sell malt liquors in boroughs shall exist in the inferior court of common pleas.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, that hereafter in addition to the power or authority to grant licenses to keep inns and taverns or to sell ale, strong beer, lager beer, porter, wine and other malt liquors, that is or may be vested in the governing body of the boroughs of this state, or any of them, the power to grant such licenses within and for such boroughs, shall also be vested in the inferior courts of common pleas of the county within which such borough or boroughs is or are situate, such power to be exercised by said courts in accordance with the act of the legislature of this state entitled "An act concerning inns and taverns," approved April seventeenth, 1846, and the act entitled "An act to regulate the sale of ale, strong beer, New Jersey," approved April fourth, A. D. 1872, and seventy-two, and the several supplements to said acts respectively.

Fees to be paid to clerks of said courts.

2. And be it enacted, That from and after the passage of this act all license fees paid for licenses granted within said boroughs by said courts (except court and clerk fees) shall be received by the clerks of said courts to and for the use of the borough within which the license granted is to be exercised and enjoyed, and all such fees received by any such clerk shall within thirty days after the receipt thereof be by such clerk transmitted to the proper borough to the person or body having the legal custody of the funds thereof, to be by the governing body of such borough used, employed and disbursed for the uses and purposes of such borough. And transmitted to the borough.

3. And be it enacted, That the act entitled "An act concerning licenses in boroughs of the second class," approved March ninth, 1891, be and the same is hereby repealed, provided, that any license now existing, granted by any of said courts, in any of the boroughs of this state, under and by virtue of said act approved March ninth, 1891, shall continue in force and be operative, for the period the same was granted notwithstanding the repeal of said last mentioned act. Repeals act of March 9, 1891.

4. And be it enacted, That all other acts, and parts of acts, inconsistent herewith, be and the same are hereby repealed and that this act shall take effect immediately. Repealer.

tendent all the keys of their respective houses, which shall be safely kept in his office until the next meeting of the legislature; and when the courts held in the state house are not in session the keys of the respective court rooms shall be deposited with the said superintendent for safe keeping; that it shall be the duty of said superintendent to have the general supervision and care of the state house and said grounds, to preserve them from injury and to provide for their being kept in proper order; he shall also take care that the occupied parts of the state house be kept warm, ventilated, swept and cleaned, and he shall employ so many necessary assistants for that purpose, at such prices and upon such terms as the governor, attorney-general and state treasurer, or a majority of them, shall approve; and he shall render monthly accounts to the state treasurer and the state treasurer shall certify the same, and they shall thereupon be paid by the state treasurer on the warrant of the comptroller.

3. And be it enacted, That hereafter the said superintendent shall have the distribution of the laws, law reports, equity reports, the minutes, journal and proceedings of each house of the legislature, and all other documents published under the authority or patronage of the state, and he shall transmit such copies to such person or persons as is now provided for by law; and he shall have the same supervision and control over such documents as the superintendent of the state house and adjacent public grounds now has.

4. And be it enacted, That the said superintendent shall receive an annual salary of two thousand dollars, to be paid by the treasurer upon the warrant of the comptroller, out of the treasury of this state, in monthly installments, to be computed from the day of the appointment of said superintendent.

5. And be it enacted, That the said superintendent, before entering upon the execution of the duties of his said office, shall take and subscribe the following oath, to wit: I, A. B., being appointed superintendent of the state house and the adjacent public grounds, do solemnly promise and swear that I will justly and honestly keep the books, papers and writings to me committed, and to be committed by virtue of my said office, and that I will faithfully and honestly perform all the duties of the said office according to the best of my ability and understanding, so help me God.

6. And be it enacted, That this oath required by the preceding section of this act shall be administered by a judge or justice of any court of record of this state. Oath, by whom administered.

7. And be it enacted, That the said superintendent, before entering upon the performance of the duties of his said office, shall enter into a bond to the state of New Jersey, with at least two sufficient sureties, being freeholders of this state, in the sum of five thousand dollars, conditioned for the faithful and honest performance of the duties of said office, the said bond to be approved by a judge or justice of any court of record of this state, and when so executed and approved, together with the oath or affirmation of office duly taken and subscribed, shall be recorded in the office of the secretary of state, and filed in the same, to be by the secretary of state safely kept among the public papers of his office. To give bonds. Bond to be approved and filed.

8. And be it enacted, That the act entitled "An act in relation to the state house and adjacent public grounds," approved April eighteenth, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, and all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act, be and the same are hereby repealed. Repealer

9. And be it enacted, That this act shall be a public act and shall take effect immediately.

Approved February 8, 1892.

2. And be it enacted, That the said superintendent shall have power, with the approval of the president of the state board of education, to designate as many suitable persons as may be necessary, to act as enumerators for the several school districts of the state in taking the school census aforesaid; and he shall have the power, with the approval of the said state board of education, to establish such rules and regulations as may be necessary and proper, governing the taking of the said census and the said enumerators; and he shall provide and furnish the enumerators blank books, forms and such other stationery as may be necessary; the said enumerators shall perform their work within the time and in accordance with the rules and regulations of the said superintendent, and shall be entitled to receive for their services the sum of five cents for each and every child's name taken in accordance with this act, which said compensation shall be paid to the said enumerators in the same manner as is now provided by law, upon the certificate of the superintendent of the census.

3. And be it enacted, That all other modes of taking or paying for the school census are hereby abolished, and all general, public, special or other acts of any kind whatsoever, or any part thereof, inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby abrogated and repealed, and this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved February 17, 1892.

CHAPTER XV.

An Act concerning the constitution of the common council, board of aldermen or other governing body of all cities of the second class in this state.

Provides for two common councilmen or aldermen in each ward in cities of the second class.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That in all cities of the second class in this state in which there now are by law three members of the common council, board of aldermen or other governing body, in and for each of the wards of such cities, hereafter the common council, board of alderman or other governing body of all such cities shall consist of two members in and for each of the wards of such cities, and each of the wards of such cities shall, at the annual city elections of such cities, as hereinafter provided in this act, elect one person as a member of the common council, board of aldermen or other governing body of such cities, who shall hold such office for the term of two years; provided, however, that the members of the present common council, board of aldermen or other governing body of all such cities shall be and continue as members thereof for the term for which they were severally elected. Proviso.

2. And be it enacted, That in every city of the second class in this state where there now are by law three members of the common council, board of aldermen or other governing body in and for each of the wards of any such city, elected for the term of three years each, upon the expiration of the term of office of every member of the common council, board of aldermen or other governing body in every such city which occurs next after the passage of this act, the office as well as the term of office of every such retiring member shall cease, determine and end, and then and from thenceforth the common council, board of aldermen or other governing body of every such city of the second class in this state shall consist of two members from each of the wards of such cities. Office of retiring members shall cease at expiration of their terms.

3. And be it enacted, That in all cities of the second class in this state where the office, as well as the term of office, of certain members of the common council, board of aldermen or other governing body of such cities shall cease, determine and end during the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, according to the provisions of the last preceding section of this act, there shall not be any election held in any of the wards of such cities for members of the common council, board of aldermen or other governing body of such cities until the city elections in such cities which shall occur in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, at which last mentioned, and all succeeding annual city elections When term of office expires in 1892 no election to be held.

in such cities, there shall be elected in each of the wards of such cities, one person as a member of the common council, board of aldermen or other governing body of such cities, who shall hold such office for the term of two years.

Repealer.

4. And be it enacted, That all acts and parts of acts, general, special, public or local, inconsistent with the provisions of this act be and the same are hereby repealed.

5. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved February 18, 1892.

CHAPTER XVII.

An Act relative to the effect of jury trials in proceedings touching the probate of wills.

Reasons for setting aside verdict of a jury touching probate of a will.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That the verdict of a jury in any proceeding touching the probate of a will, heretofore or hereafter rendered, shall be conclusive and final upon any issue of fact found by such jury, subject to be set aside only for such reasons as would justify the setting aside of verdicts in ordinary proceedings at common law.

Repealer.

2. And be it enacted, That all acts or parts of acts, inconsistent with this act be and the same are hereby repealed, and that this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved February 24, 1892.

CHAPTER XVIII.

A Supplement to the act entitled "An act to establish an excise department in cities of this state," passed April eighth, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That it shall and may be lawful for the common council or other governing body of any town or city of this state, except cities of the first class, incorporated under any special or other act of the legislature thereof, by ordinance passed by the affirmative vote of a majority of all members composing such common council or other governing body, to provide for the establishment within and for such town or city of a board of excise commissioners, which ordinance shall provide that from and after the passage thereof there shall be established within and for such town or city a board of excise commissioners, appointed pursuant to provisions of this supplemental act.

Boards of excise commissioners may be established by ordinance in cities and towns, except cities of the first class.

5. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved February 25, 1892.

CHAPTER XXIV.

An Act to appoint a commissioner of mines, and defining the powers and duties of such commissioner.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That the governor shall immediately after the passage of this bill appoint, with the advice and consent of the senate, some suitable person who shall be a resident and citizen of this state, as a commissioner of mines, who shall receive such compensation as shall be recommended by the inspector of factories and workshops, and approved by the governor and comptroller, not to exceed one thousand dollars per annum, whose term of office shall be for three years.

Provides for the appointment of an inspector of mines, by the governor, for a three-year term, at a salary not to exceed $1,000.

Power and authority.

To report annually.

To ascertain if necessary safeguards are erected and maintained.

To notify owners in case of neglect so to do.

Liability for such neglect.

Examination upon complaint.

May close mines.

Forfeit by owners for refusing to comply with notice.

2. And be it enacted, That the said commissioner of mines shall have full power and authority to visit and inspect, at all reasonable hours and as often as practicable, all mines in this state, and to report to the governor of this state, on or before the first day of November in each year, the result of such inspection, together with such recommendations as said commissioner shall deem proper and necessary.

3. And be it enacted, That the said commissioner of mines shall, by personal examination or otherwise, ascertain if proper and necessary safeguards are erected and maintained by the owner or owners, lessee or lessees, of each and every mine, for the protection of the lives of the men employed therein; and in case it shall appear to the said commissioner of mines that any such owner or lessee has neglected to make proper provision for the safety of the employees working in any such mine, he shall serve or cause to be served upon any such owner or lessee a notice in writing, stating briefly such neglect, and such owner or lessee shall immediately remedy the same, or in case of death or accident from such neglect be criminally liable therefor.

4. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of said commissioner of mines to whom a complaint in writing shall be made by any employee in any mine in this state that any such mine is dangerous to the lives of those employed therein, without delay to view and examine the mine complained of; and if he shall find such complaint to be just, he shall give notice in writing of the danger to the owner or lessee thereof, and in such notice may, in his discretion, order such mine closed until he shall issue his order that such danger has been removed.

5. And be it enacted, That any owner or lessee receiving such notice as is mentioned in the last preceding section and refusing to comply therewith, shall forfeit the sum of one thousand dollars, to be recovered in an action upon contract by the said commissioner of mines, in his individual name, in any court of competent jurisdiction; the said fine, when recovered, less the costs and expenses thereof, to be paid to the overseer of the poor of the township in which such mine is located for the use of the poor of said township.

6. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved February 25, 1892.

CHAPTER XXV.

An Act to authorize any county, city, town or other municipality to convert coupon bonds into registered bonds, and re-convert the same at pleasure.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That whenever under any existing authority of law, or any act that shall hereafter be passed, any county, city, town or municipality in this state shall have power to issue coupon bonds, the board, officer or authority of any county, city, town or municipality shall have power to convert any coupon bonds issued, or hereafter issued, into registered bonds, by cutting off and cancelling the coupons attached thereto, and shall write or print on the back of said bond or bonds a certificate of registration, signed by the proper executive officer of the county, city, town or other municipality, which certificate shall state that the within bond is hereby converted into a registered bond, with the interest payable thereon semi-annually, and from and thereafter the contract made by the bond shall be converted into one, making the principal of the bond payable at the time stated in the body of the bond, and the interest thereon payable semi-annually to the person in whose name the registry of said bond shall be made, or his assignee or legal representative; that by assignment of the person in whose name the said registry shall be made, the proper officers of said county, city, town or other municipality are authorized to register the same from time to time, in the names of the party authorized to have such registry by the consent of the holder of said bond and said municipality.

Bonds may be re-converted.

2. And be it enacted, That said bonds thus registered may, with the consent of the said county, city, town or other municipality and that of the holder of said bonds, be re-converted into coupon bonds at the expense of the holders of said bonds and again re-converted into registered bonds from time to time as the said municipal authority and the holders of said bonds may determine.

Repealer.

3. And be it enacted, That all acts and parts of acts, general, public, special or otherwise, inconsistent with the provisions of this act, be and the same are hereby repealed.

4. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved February 25, 1892.

CHAPTER XXVI.

A Supplement to an act entitled "An act to incorporate the chosen freeholders in the respective counties of the state," approved April sixteenth, one thousand eight hundred and forty-six.

Commissioners of sinking fund may invest moneys collected by them in municipal, state or U. S. bonds.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That it shall be lawful for the commissioners of the sinking fund, or any similar body or committee appointed by the board of chosen freeholders of any county of this state, or a majority of such commissioners, body or committee, at their discretion, to invest the moneys collected by them, in all cases where such investment is authorized by law, in the bonds, stocks or securities of the United States of America or in the bonds of the State of New Jersey or in the bonds of the municipalities, or any of them, situate in or lying within the limits of said county, for the use of said county, and keep the same invested as now required by law; provided, Proviso. that such municipality has never made default in the payment of principal or interest of any bonds issued by it; and provided, further, that the total amount of the indebtedness of such municipality does not exceed ten per centum of its ratables liable to taxation as shown by the assessor's books for the time being. Proviso.

2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved February 25, 1892.

CHAPTER XXVII.

An Act to enable boards having the control of the water supply in the cities of this state to construct reservoirs for the storage of water.

WHEREAS, in some of the cities of this state it has been or may be found that the storage reservoirs used to retain water for immediate use in case of accident to the works through which the supply is maintained, are not sufficient in capacity to provide against such contingency; therefore, Preamble.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That it shall and may be lawful for the board or body having control of the water supply in the cities of this state to construct and provide a reservoir or reservoirs for the storage of water sufficient in capacity to retain and hold for immediate use, in case of accident to the works, by which the ordinary daily supply is maintained, a quantity of water equal to the average daily consumption therein, for at least ten days, and such board shall have authority for this purpose to make necessary contracts, to purchase or condemn lands, Boards having control of water supply in cities authorized to construct reservoirs in case of accident, and purchase or condemn lands for that purpose.

either within or without the limits of such city as may be deemed most advisable, and to build, construct and complete such reservoir or reservoirs and to connect the same with the mains or pipes through which the water supply of the said city is distributed.

Common council or other governing body to pay the cost.

2. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the common council or other governing body or board having control of the finances of any such city, on requisition therefor made by the board or body having the control of the water supply therein, to furnish from time to time the money necessary to provide such reservoir or reservoirs, and all the cost connected with the purchase of the land, and the construction and completion thereof; all property purchased by any such board or body shall be purchased in the name and for the use of such city, and title shall be taken in the name of such city therefor.

Property to be purchased in the name of the city.

May issue temporary bonds to pay for the same.

3. And be it enacted, That to enable such city to obtain the money requisite for the purpose aforesaid, such city may issue its temporary loan bonds or certificates bearing interest at a rate not greater than five per centum per annum, and may renew the same from time to time until the works so authorized to be constructed shall be completed.

When reservoirs are constructed permanent bonds to be issued.

4. And be it enacted, That when such reservoir or reservoirs so constructed as aforesaid shall have been fully completed, it shall be the duty of the board or body having charge of the construction of the same, and the control of the water supply in such city, to make and file with the clerk of such city a statement of the entire cost and expense of construction, including the cost of the lands acquired, and all other expenses, and the said city shall thereupon issue permanent bonds, negotiable in form, to run for a period not less than twenty nor more than thirty years, sufficient in amount to pay the entire expense connected with the construction of the said reservoir or reservoirs, and to take up and redeem the temporary loan bonds or certificates from time to time issued for the purpose of raising the money necessary to carry on such work; such bonds shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding five per centum per annum, and shall be of such form as such common council or other governing body or board having control of the finances may determine; the interest thereon shall be payable semi-annually, and they shall not be disposed of at less than par; the proceeds thereof shall be used exclusively for the purposes hereinbefore set forth.

5. And be it enacted, That for the purpose of providing a fund to pay the interest on the said bonds while outstanding, and the principal when due, there shall be set apart from the net revenue received from water rents and water rates in the said city not otherwise pledged, such sum as shall be sufficient to pay the interest as it falls due and the principal of the said bonds at maturity; provided, however, that if it shall be found that the receipts thus pledged are insufficient to furnish a fund from which to pay the annual interest on the said bonds, and to provide a sinking fund of not less than two per centum of the principal of the said bonds per annum, then it shall be the duty of the common council or other governing body or board having control of the finances of such city to raise a sum sufficient for this purpose in the annual tax levy of such city, and to apply the sum raised for interest to the payment of the annual interest on the said bonds, and to pay over the sum raised as a sinking fund to the sinking fund commissioners of such city, for the redemption of the said bonds when due.

Interest to be paid from water rents.

Proviso.

6. And be it enacted, That in case it shall be found necessary to condemn lands for sites for such reservoir or reservoirs, proceedings for such condemnation, and the method of procedure in such condemnation proceedings, shall be the same provided for in the act entitled "An act to empower cities to acquire lands for public use by condemnation," approved March seventeenth, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one.

Procedure in condemnation proceedings.

7. And be it enacted, That all work and materials required in the building and constructing of such reservoir or reservoirs shall be obtained by contract, and public notice shall be given by the board having control of such work, by proper public advertisement, so that ample time may be given for the reception of sealed proposals for the doing of the work and furnishing the materials; contracts shall in all cases be awarded to the bidder who, in the judgment of the board, offers the terms most advantageous to the city, and such board may reserve the right to reject all bids. The bidder or bidders to whom such contract shall be awarded shall give bond with ample security for the faithful performance of the contract; all such bonds shall be executed to such city in its corporate name, and after being duly recorded in the office of the county clerk of the county in which such city is situated, shall be deposited for safe keeping with the comptroller or like financial officer of such city, and in case any such bond shall be lost or destroyed, then the record or a certified copy thereof may be used in evidence and shall have like effect as the original bond; provided, that such board shall not make any contract or perform any work in any city under the authority of this act when the approval or concurrence of the board or body having control of the finances therein is now required until such approval or concurrence has first been obtained.

Advertisements for proposals.

Contracts.

8. And be it enacted, That this act shall be deemed a public act and shall take effect immediately, and that all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act be and the same are hereby repealed.

Approved February 25, 1892.

CHAPTER XXIX.

An Act to authorize and empower county public road boards to extend, grade, improve and macadamize or pave, according to the telford process, public roads and avenues, and maintain and keep the same in repair.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That whenever any county public road board in any county of this state has or shall have laid out, constructed, reconstructed, appropriated, improved, macadamized or paved according to the telford process, or maintained for the purpose of free carriage roads, the whole or any part of any public road or avenue in any county in this state by virtue of authority granted by any law for that purpose, it shall be lawful, and any such county public road board is hereby authorized and empowered to take, appropriate, maintain and keep in repair, the whole or any part of any public road or avenue within such county that has been macadamized by the authorities of any township, the macadamized part of which connects with any public road or avenue under the control of any county public road board; and any such county public road board is also hereby further authorized and empowered to appropriate, grade, improve and macadamize or pave, according to the telford process, any existing public road or avenue not under its control connecting with any such public road or avenue, or any part of the same, that has been macadamized or paved as aforesaid by any township in the county, beginning at or near the terminal point where any such public road or avenue has been macadamized as aforesaid by any such county public road board, or by any township within the county, for the purpose of making a continuous free carriage road within the county making any such extension or improving and macadamizing any such public road or avenue, with the object of connecting the same with any public road or avenue in any other county of this state adjoining the county or counties wherein such extension is or shall be made, and it is hereby made the duty of any such county public road board to maintain and keep in repair, at the expense of the county, the whole and every part of any such public road or avenue so taken, appropriated, graded, improved and macadamized or paved as aforesaid; provided, however, that no such public road or avenue shall be extended, taken, appropriated, graded, improved macadamized or paved as aforesaid, until a certified copy of the resolution of the county public road board authorizing and recommending the same shall be submitted to and approved by the board of chosen freeholders of the county wherein any such county public road board may or shall exist.

Such road to be kept in repair at the expense of the county.

Proviso.

2. And be it enacted, That the costs of any improvement or improvements in the extending, grading, im-

Approved March 7, 1892.

CHAPTER XXXII.

A Supplement to an act entitled "A further supplement to an act entitled 'An act concerning roads,'" (Revision), approved March twenty-seventh, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, which said further supplement was approved March twelfth, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, moneys which have been voted, assessed and collected in certain townships of this state for the making and repairing of the public roads therein for the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, under and by virtue of the provisions of certain special acts operative in said townships, have been paid over to and expended, either in whole or in part, for such purposes by the commissioners elected under said special acts; and in some of said townships said commissioners have, in expectation of receiving said money so voted, assessed and collected, expended their own moneys for such purposes and rendered personal service; and whereas, questions have been raised as to the legality of such payments, expenditures and services because of the provisions of the act to which this is a supplement; and whereas, in certain townships of this state there has been a failure or neglect to comply with the provisions of the fifth section of the act to which this is a supplement;

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That in all of said townships of this state in which moneys have been voted, assessed and collected, for the making and repairing of the public roads therein for the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one under and by virtue of the provisions of certain special acts operative in said townships and such moneys have been paid over or expended in whole or in part for such purposes by the commissioners elected under said special act, or said commissioners in expectation of receiving said money so voted, assessed and collected, have expended their own moneys for such purposes and rendered personal services, such payments, expenditures and services are hereby confirmed and made as legal, valid and effectual as if the same had been made and rendered in accordance with the provisions of the act to which this is a supplement; and it shall be lawful for the township committees of said townships, upon the presentation of any bill or bills incurred by said commissioners for such expenditures or services made or rendered by them in expectation of receiving such money so voted, assessed and collected, to pay the said bill or bills out of said moneys.

Expenditures for making and repairing public roads and for services made legal.

Township committees to pay the bills incurred

2. And be it enacted, That in any township in this state where there has been a failure or neglect to comply with the provisions of the fifth section of the act to which this is a supplement for the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, it shall be lawful at the meetings held in said townships for the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, to vote moneys for the making and repairing of the public roads therein without making the estimate and publication required by the provisions of said fifth section; provided, that the amount so voted shall not exceed the rate now fixed by the act to which this is a supplement, or any supplement that may be made thereto.

When committees have failed or neglected to make estimate of amount to be expended it shall be lawful for townships to vote moneys for making and repairing roads.

Proviso.

3. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 7, 1892.

the State of New Jersey, That hereafter in all cities of the third class in this state (whether such licenses are now granted by a board of excise or by commissioners of excise or by the governing board of such city or its city councils), that after a license has once been granted in any such city to keep an inn and tavern, or a license to sell ale, beer and wine, or a license to keep a victualinghouse, with privilege of retailing spirituous liquors, within such city, to any person or persons at any place in such license designated according to the terms of the charter of such city or cities as they now exist, it shall not be requisite in order to give such board of excise, or commissioners of excise, or city council, or other governing body jurisdiction to grant renewals of such license that a new application recommended by freeholders shall be first signed and presented to such board; but that the filing with the board or body authorized to grant and renew licenses in any such city of a petition for a renewal, signed by the applicant, accompanied by a new bond of the same tenor as accompanied the first application, shall confer full power upon such board to renew such licenses for the term of one year; provided, always, that the Proviso.
 freeholders who may have recommended the former application shall not be eligible as signers for any new application for the term of one year from the granting of such renewal; and, provided further, that this act shall in Proviso.

CHAPTER XLVIII.

An Act providing for the placing of electrical conductors under ground in cities of this state, and for the creation of a state board of commissioners of electrical subways.

Authorizes the governor, with the consent of the senate, to appoint three persons for terms of five years, to constitute a state board of commissioners of electrical subways, such commissioners to receive a salary of $1500 each year.

They may appoint a secretary at a salary of $1500 per year.

An electrical expert at such sum as the governor may approve.

Board shall examine the manner of construction of telegraphic, telephonic and electric light wires and cables in all cities.

They may remove or order all such wires under ground, and their decision shall be final.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That the governor of this state shall appoint, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, a state board of commissioners of electrical subways, which shall consist of three persons, who shall hold office for five years, and until the appointment of a successor; such board shall organize on the first Monday in May, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, by the election of a president and the appointment of a secretary, each commissioner shall receive an annual salary of fifteen hundred dollars; the secretary shall receive such salary as the commissioners shall determine, not exceeding fifteen hundred dollars per annum, and shall hold his office at the pleasure of the board; such board may appoint an electrical expert, who shall receive such compensation as shall be approved by the governor of the state; they may also appoint such other agents as shall be necessary to carry out the provisions of this act, at such compensation as shall be approved by the governor.

2. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of such board to examine the manner in which telegraphic, telephonic and electric light wires and cables, and all other wire and cables used for the transmission of electricity are constructed and used in the cities of this state; wherever, in the judgment of such commissioners, which shall be final, the public welfare will be advanced by the removal of any such wires or of the poles commonly known as telegraph poles, or other poles used for the support of electric wires from the surface of any street, avenue or other public highway in any city of this state, it shall be the duty of such commissioners to order such poles and wires removed from the surface of such streets or highways and to further order that such wires shall be placed under the streets or highways of such city; the removal of such poles or wires shall be made within such time as shall be fixed by said commissioners, who shall serve a notice of their determination and order upon the owner of such poles or wires or upon an agent of such owner, at least thirty days before the expiration of the time within which it may be determined that such poles or wires shall be removed; if such an owner or agent cannot be found within this state, said notice shall be served in such a manner as a justice of the supreme court, upon application being made to him for that purpose, shall prescribe; if the owner of such poles or wires shall fail to remove them within the time specified in such notice, said commissioners shall move, without delay, all said poles and wires from said streets and highways; whenever such commissioners shall determine as aforesaid that such poles or wires should be removed from the surface of any street, avenue or other highway in any city, it shall be the duty of such commissioners to cause such electrical conductors or wires as shall be thereafter used in such city to be placed under ground whenever in their judgment it is practicable so to do.

4. And be it enacted, That for the purposes of this act the said board shall have control of all the streets, avenues or other highways of the cities of this state, and may authorize the construction of electrical subways and underground conduits beneath the surface of any such streets, avenues or highways; all powers of the local authorities having general charge of the streets or avenues in any such city are hereby made subordinate to the powers granted to the board created by this act; it shall be the duty of said board to require any company disturbing the surface of any street or avenue to replace such surface in a manner to be specified in the plan of construction hereinbefore mentioned; if any company shall fail to repair the surface of any street or avenue in accordance with such plans, it shall be the duty of such board to order a discontinuance of work on such subways or conduits until such specifications are complied with.

5. And be it enacted, That no telegraph, telephone, electric light or other electric wire or cable shall hereafter be constructed along, across or above the surface of any street or avenue in any city of this state until the board created by this act shall, by the votes of a majority of its members, authorize such wires to be carried along, across or above the surface of such streets or avenues; provided, that this section shall not be constructed to apply to the repair of wires now in use, or to wires owned by any of this state, or used for fire or police purposes therein.

6. And be it enacted, That all conduits or subways, provided for in this act, shall be so constructed that they may be used by the city in which they are located for the electric wires or conductors operated by its police, fire or other departments without expense to such city, except the expense of the placing of wires or conductors in such subways or conduits.

7. And be it enacted, That such board is authorized and empowered to devise and make ready for use such plans as will meet the requirements of this act, in any city in which it shall be determined that the electrical conductors shall be placed underground; after the adoption of such plans it shall be lawful for the said board to enter into a contract with any person or corporation for the construction of subways or conduits in any city in accordance with such plans; such contract or contracts shall not involve the expenditure of any money by the state for the construction of any subway or conduit, but shall provide for the payment of the cost of such construction from the rentals to be received for the use of such subways or conduits, and shall be in such form as shall be approved by the governor or attorney general of the state; when any subway or conduit shall be constructed by contract as provided in this section, the terms upon which such subway or conduit shall be used by any company shall be fixed by a resolution adopted by said board and approved by the governor of the state.

Make contracts for construction.

Contracts not to involve the expenditure of money by the state.

Board to fix terms upon which conduits or subways shall be used.

8. And be it enacted, That in addition to such rental as shall be imposed upon companies for the use of the conduits and subways constructed by said board, there shall be annually assessed upon the telegraph, telephone, cable and electric light companies doing business in this state, an amount equal to the salaries and expenses of said board; such amount shall be assessed by the said board and collected from said companies by the state comptroller in the manner that state taxes are now collected from other corporations; such amount shall be apportioned against said company, ratably, with reference to the number of miles of wire used by each company within this state; it shall be the duty of such companies to furnish the board from time to time all data by them desired, to enable them to apportion the relative shares of such salaries and expenses; whenever any company shall neglect or refuse to furnish the information asked for by said board, it shall be the duty of the board to determine, from the best information they may obtain, the number of miles of wire operated by such company within this state.

Salaries and expenses of board to be assessed upon companies.

By the board and collected by the state comptroller.

Apportionment of amount assessed.

Companies to furnish data.

If companies refuse, board to determine miles of wire operated.

9. And be it enacted, That if any section of this act shall for any reason be held to be unconstitutional or invalid, such holding shall not affect the other provisions of this act, or any of them.

Unconstitutional section not to affect other provisions of this act.

10. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 10, 1892.

CHAPTER XLIX.

An Act to provide for the establishment of a commission of public instruction in cities of the second class in this state, whose population now exceeds or may hereafter exceed fifty thousand.

Establishes a commission of public instruction in second class cities whose population exceeds 50,000.

Commission to consist of eight persons, and not more than one half of the number shall be of one political party.

To be appointed by the mayor for two years' term. Classification of term of first board.

CHAPTER LXI.

A Supplement to an act entitled "An act to authorize the board of chosen freeholders of any of the several counties of this state to lay out, open, construct, improve and maintain a public road therein," approved April seventh, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight.

Boards of freeholders shall provide rules whereby sewer and gas connections shall be made in a public road.

Proviso.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That whenever a public road shall have been laid out or opened in any county in this state under the provisions of the act to which this is a supplement, and said public road shall in the course and location thereof, in whole or in part, extend into, along or through any city, town, township or other like or similar municipality or part thereof in such county, which municipality may have or shall hereafter acquire authority or power to construct sewers therein, the chief or other engineer or officer having charge in the opening laying out or construction of said public road shall, when it may be practicable, report to the board of chosen freeholders of said county, a plan whereby any premises or buildings fronting upon such new public road may be provided by such municipality with sewer connection or connections beneath the surface of any part of said public road with the sewerage system of such municipality; provided, that the said engineer or officer aforesaid, in preparing and perfecting said plan, shall adhere therein as near as may be to any plan of or for sewerage or sewer connections which may have been or may hereafter be adopted by such municipality, in the territory in which the said public road may be located; upon such plan being reported as aforesaid, to said board of chosen freeholders of the said county, it shall be lawful for such board to consider the same, and either approve or disapprove thereof, or such board may change or order such changes to be made in the plans as may seem to the board to be proper and necessary, which changes shall be submitted to said engineer or officer for incorporation in the said plans; upon such plans or any of them being finally adopted by said board, the same shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the board of chosen freeholders of the said county, and a copy of said plan, duly attested by said clerk, shall be filed in the office of the body having control of the construction of sewers in such municipality; and all sewers and sewer connections intended for houses or house drainage or sewerage connection, which it may be necessary to build beneath the surface of said public road, shall be constructed in conformity with said plan and not otherwise.

2. And be it enacted, That whenever any owner or owners of any premises or property fronting on said public road shall deem it necessary and require that such sewer or sewer connection or branch sewer beneath the surface of said public road shall be constructed or made, in order that such premises may obtain and have house drainage or sewerage as aforesaid, such owner or owners shall, in writing, petition the proper municipal body for the construction of said sewer or sewer connection, which shall be done in the same manner, or as near thereto as practicable, as any property owner having property fronting on any other street in such municipality may lawfully petition for and obtain the construction of a sewer or sewers therein, and all the proceedings and steps as to petition, contract for the making or construction of such last mentioned sewer or sewer connection, and other things necessary, as well as the assessment for or cost of and collection of the same, shall be done and provided for in the same way, or as near thereto as may be, to that provided, by law, in and for said municipality, for the petition and other things requisite to be done or followed relative to and necessary for the making, construction and defraying of the expense of the sewers or sewer system or connections last referred to; and the body having control by law of the making or construction of sewers in such municipality shall notify the board of chosen freeholders of the said county in writing ten days previous to the time designated for the breaking or the opening of the surface of said new public road for the construction of such sewer or sewer connections, and said sewer or sewer connection shall be constructed to the satisfaction of the said board of chosen freeholders, and in accordance with the said plans for said sewers in or connected with said public road, and the work in and about the construction or making of such sewer or sewer connections shall not be deemed finally accepted by such municipality until the said engineer or officer in charge of the public road as aforesaid shall have examined the same and reported to said board that the work is satisfactorily executed, and said report shall have been approved by such board of freeholders and notice thereof shall be filed in the office of the clerk of such municipality or the governing body of such municipality; the word sewer as mentioned in this act shall be taken to include all necessary receiving basins, connections and man holes such as are usually made appurtenant to a properly constructed sewer and sewer outlet.

The word "sewer" construed.

Work to be approved by engineer

3. And be it enacted, That whenever any municipality into which, or through which all or any part of public road is laid out and opened under the provisions of an act to which this is a supplement, having or which may hereafter have a public water supply or system by means of pipes laid in the streets and public places of said municipality, and it shall be necessary for the accommodation or use of the residents on lands fronting on said public road to extend such pipes or pipe system beneath the surface of the said public road, it shall be first indispensably necessary for the body or persons in any such municipality charged by law with the control of the water supply therefor, to notify the board of chosen freeholders in writing of its intention to extend such water pipe system beneath the surface of said public road ten days before breaking ground therefor, and all work made necessary in such extension shall be performed in accordance with regulations to be prescribed by and to the satisfaction of the board of chosen freeholders, and such work shall not be accepted or regarded in anywise completed for use and shall not be used as a part of such system until examined by the engineer or officer in charge of said road as aforesaid, and he shall certify to the board of chosen freeholders of the satisfactory completion of the said work and the same shall be approved by said board.

4. And be it enacted, That whenever any person or corporation having or which may hereafter obtain any franchise to supply illuminating gas to the inhabitants of any municipality into which or through which all or any part of a public road is laid out or opened, under the provisions of an act to which this is a supplement, shall desire to extend the pipe or gas system thereof beneath the surface of the said public road for the purpose of furnishing gas to any premises fronting on said public road, said person or corporation shall, before breaking or opening the surface of said road, in order to make such extension, deposit with the clerk of the board of chosen freeholders of said county such good and sufficient bond as such board shall demand, in such sum or amount as it shall name, to be approved as to form by the counsel of said board, conditioned for and made to insure and guarantee that the surface of said public road shall, in such time as said board may allow therefor, be restored in good condition and to the satisfaction of said board of chosen freeholders, and the said pipes shall be laid in such places and to such depth and subject to such other regulations as the board of chosen freeholders shall determine.

collector or treasurer of said county for or in such sum as the said board of chosen freeholders shall by resolution designate or order, to insure or guarantee that the surface of the said public road will be restored to and kept in good condition as aforesaid, and if said surface is not restored to such good condition, after ten days' notice in writing to that effect shall have been given by or on behalf of such board, or by the said engineer or officer in charge of said road to the person or party doing or permitted to do the work, the said board of chosen freeholders may do or cause the work necessary to be done to restore said surface to such good condition, and may devote or apply as much of the said deposit as may be necessary to pay for the same, to that object, and upon the completion of said work the whole or the remainder of said deposit, if any, shall be returned to the party who may have made the same as aforesaid.

When foregoing provisions to apply.

Board of freeholders may dispense with or modify requirements

Penalty for violation of rules

6. And be it enacted, That the foregoing provisions shall apply whenever any municipality shall find it necessary in the development of their sewerage or water supply system to cross the public road, also when any person or corporation having or which may hereafter acquire any franchise to supply illuminating gas shall find it necessary in the exercise of said franchise to extend its supply pipes or system across said public road; it also shall apply in cases where it shall be necessary to open the surface of said public road to repair any sewer, water pipes, gas pipes, or connections to the same; nothing in this act contained, however, shall be construed as prohibiting such board of freeholders from dispensing with or modifying any of the requirements of or under the same in any case where the exigencies thereof shall appear to require such dispensation or modification but in all such instances the reasons therefor must be assigned in writing by the party asking therefor, and it shall be requisite to have the approval thereof by resolution of such board of freeholders.

7. And be it enacted, That any person violating any of the foregoing provisions or any rule or regulation prescribed thereunder, shall be subject to a penalty, for each violation, to be imposed upon conviction by the court or magistrate hearing the same, of not exceeding twenty dollars, and in default of payment thereof the offender may be committed to the county jail for any term not exceeding ten days; the penalties herein provided may be enforced by or before any justice of the peace, police justice or judge, or recorder, of any municipality within such county; and process in the nature of a warrant may be issued, or complaint made on oath, for the apprehending of the offender, or such offender may be arrested on view without warrant by any police officer, sheriff or constable in such county. How enforced.

8. And be it enacted, That any act, direction, order or thing whatever authorized or directed to be done, made or executed by any justice of the supreme court particularly mentioned, specified or referred to in the sixth section of the act to which this is a supplement, or in any other section of said act, or in any act supplementary thereto or amendatory thereof, may be and hereby is authorized and directed to be done, made or executed by any other justice of said supreme court. Acts of justices of supreme court

9. And be it enacted, That all acts and parts of acts, general, special, local or otherwise, inconsistent with this act, be and the same are hereby repealed, and this act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER LXIII.

A Supplement to the act entitled "An act to incorporate trustees of religious societies" (Revision), approved April ninth, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five.

WHEREAS, The religious societies or congregations of this state, now or formerly known as True Reformed Dutch churches, or Christian Reformed churches, have heretofore undertaken to incorporate themselves and to exercise corporate powers under the provisions of the act to which this is a supplement and of former acts of the legislature of this state relating to the incorporations of trustees of religious societies, applying to Reformed or Reformed Dutch churches, and doubts have been expressed whether the said provisions extended or applied to the said True Reformed Dutch churches, or Christian Reformed churches; Preamble.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That the provisions of the thirteenth, fourteenth, fifteenth, sixteenth, seventeenth, eighteenth, nineteenth, twentieth, twenty-first, twenty-second, twenty-third and twenty-fourth sections of the act to which this is a supplement, and the provisions of former acts of the legislature of this state relating to the incorporation of trustees of religious societies applying to Reformed or Reformed Dutch churches, be and they are hereby construed to extend and apply to the religious societies or congregations of this state now or formerly known as True Reformed Dutch churches or Christian Reformed churches, and all proceedings heretofore taken by the said True Reformed Dutch churches or Christian Reformed churches, to incorporate themselves and to exercise corporate powers, under and in accordance with the said provisions, are hereby fully and effectually validated and confirmed. Validates certain sections of the act of 1875.

2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Passed March 11, 1892.

CHAPTER LXIV.

An Act providing for the creation of a police department in cities of the second class in this state whose population now exceeds or may hereafter exceed fifty thousand, and vesting in such police department certain powers of management and appointment now vested in other departments or offices in said cities.

Creates a police department in cities of the second class of over 50,000 inhabitants, to consist of four commissioners of police, two only to be of one political party, to be appointed by mayor and police justice.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That there shall be in every city of the second class in this state whose population now exceeds or may hereafter exceed by the United States or state census fifty thousand, a police department, which department shall be governed and managed by a board of four commissioners, to be known as commissioners of police, not more than two of whom shall be of the same political party, and who shall be appointed by the mayor and police justice of such cities, for the term of two years, at an annual salary of five hundred dollars, to be paid monthly, in the same manner as now provided for by law for other city officers; the first appointment of commissioners shall be two for one year and two for two years, and thereafter two shall be appointed every year in place of the two whose term expires in that year, so that the terms of said commissioners after the first appointment shall be for two years; any appointment to fill a vacancy shall be made by the said mayor and police justice and shall be for the unexpired term only, and should the mayor fail or refuse to agree to appoint said commissioners for the space of thirty days after the passage of this act or after the expiration of any term or the occurring of any vacancy, then the said police justice shall appoint the said commissioners or commissioner, and if the said police justice should fail or refuse to agree to appoint said commissioners for the space of thirty days after the passage of this act, or after the expiration of any term or the occurring of any vacancy, then the said mayor shall appoint the said commissioners or commissioner.

2. And be it enacted, That the commissioners of police appointed under this act shall be and they are hereby invested with and shall possess all the powers heretofore given to, and perform all the duties now required of or imposed upon any board of alderman or common council, or other governing body, by whatever name called, in any such city of the second class in this state, concerning and appertaining to the appointment, powers, government and other matters relating to the police of such cities; they shall also adopt such rules and regulations as to the appointment, control, duties and dismissals of the members of the police force as to them shall seem expedient, and may alter the same at pleasure; provided, however, that no member of said police force shall be removed except for cause, and after trial therefor before said commissioners of police; the police force of such city shall not exceed one for each one thousand of population of such city, unless said commissioners by a unanimous vote shall determine that a greater number is required.

4. And be it enacted, That the police justice of any such city of the second class where commissioners of police are appointed under this act shall be a member ex officio of said board and shall have the power, and it shall be his duty, to act as a member of said board and vote in all cases where the said board fails to reach a decision on any question before them, whether such vote be upon a matter of appointment or other matter brought before them for action.

Clerk of police justice

His duties

5. And be it enacted, That the clerk of the police justice shall act and perform the duties of secretary of the said commissioners of police, and shall receive no extra compensation therefor in addition to his salary as clerk of such police justice; he shall also keep a correct and accurate account of all the proceedings of the said commissioners of police in a book or books provided by said commissioners, and shall, at all times, have the minutes of said commissioners open for the inspection of the mayor or any member of the board of alderman or common council of such cities, and shall at all times give such information to the commissioners as they shall desire.

Commissioners to have control of the department of charities and correction

Other powers.

6. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners of police appointed under this act be and they are hereby invested with full power and authority to control and manage the department of charities and correction in any such city of the second class, and they shall possess all the powers and perform all the duties now performed by a board of aldermen or common council or other governing body, by whatever name called, in any such city concerning and appertaining to the management and control of the said department of charities and correction; they shall also have power to buy, sell, construct or repair such things as in their judgment they shall deem expedient and necessary for the proper management of said department of charities and correction; they shall also have the exclusive power to relieve and pay for the relief of the poor in any workhouse or building, and the expense of any such institution; they shall also have the exclusive power to relieve and pay for the relief of the poor not in any such workhouse or other building; they shall also have the exclusive power to appoint the poor-master, the overseer of the poor and all other officers and employees in any way connected with the relief of the poor in any such city; they shall, at two specific times designated by them in each year, solicit proposals for the furnishing of supplies to the department of indoor and outdoor relief of the poor, and shall in every instance award the contract to the lowest bidder; provided, however, that they shall have the right at all times to reject any or all bids if deemed to be for the interest of such cities.

7. And be it enacted, That the commissioners of police appointed under this act shall, after their organization, elect a superintendent of indoor relief and a superintendent of outdoor relief, by whatever name they may be called, in such city, who, after their election by said commissioners of police, shall have and possess the same powers now vested in such superintendents of indoor and outdoor relief in such cities, but at all times the said superintendents of indoor and outdoor relief, appointed by the commissioners of police under this act, shall be subject to the rules and regulations prescribed by said commissioners of police for the more efficient government of the department of indoor and outdoor relief; the term of office of such superintendents shall be for three years, and they shall be removed for cause only and after trial thereon by said commissioners; and such superintendents shall receive the same compensation for their services as officers now existing for like purposes now receive in such cities, and all officers and employees of said commissioners shall be paid in the same manner as now provided by law for the payment of city officers and employees performing like or similar services.

8. And be it enacted, That the police commissioners appointed under this act shall, on or before the first day of April next after the passage of this act, elect a city physician and an assistant city physician, who shall hold their respective offices for the period of three years; they shall perform all the duties that are now required of city physicians in such cities, and at all times during their terms of office they shall be governed by said police commissioners, and be subject to the rules and regulations prescribed by said commissioners, and they shall re-

10. And be it enacted, That the moneys received by any such city for licenses for the sale of liquor or any other purpose whatever shall be and hereby is appropriated exclusively to the support and maintenance of the police department and the department of charities and correction and for the payment for the other purposes or officials provided for by this act or necessary to carry out its provisions, and if there should be an unexpended balance from said source the same shall be placed to the credit of the department of streets and sewers for the permanent improvement of streets only.

Annual report

11. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners of police shall annually, in the month of May, submit a full report of the proceedings of said commission, to the board of aldermen or common council of such cities; they shall set forth in said report the condition at the time, of the police force of such city and the department of charities and corrections, and the other matters within their jurisdiction, which report shall be published in the same manner as the mayor's message, and a copy thereof shall be filed in the office of the city clerk.

Rooms and furniture

12. And be it enacted, That the board of aldermen or common council or other governing body, by whatever name called, of such cities where the said commissioners of police are appointed under this act, shall provide suitable rooms for the transaction of the business of the said commissioners and shall procure suitable furniture therefor.

13. And be it enacted, That all acts and parts of acts, Repealer. general, special or local, and all charters or parts of charters of any city, inconsistent with the provisions of this act, be and the same are hereby repealed, and this act shall be a public act and shall take effect immediately; provided, however, that until said commissioners of police Proviso. have qualified and have been organized, the present city authorities in any such city, to whom have been entrusted the powers and upon whom have heretofore been imposed the duties mentioned in this act, shall continue to exercise such powers and duties, so that there shall not be any interregnum when no authority exists for the government of such city in reference to the matters embraced in this act.

Approved March 11, 1892.

CHAPTER LXV.

An Act providing for and regulating the laying out and opening of certain streets and highways under certain circumstances.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That if it shall be alleged and made to appear to the circuit court in and for any county, Regulating the opening of streets and highways by commissioners. by petition filed on behalf of any railroad corporation operating a steam railroad therein, and upon proof taken thereafter under direction of said court, or upon reference thereby made, that any city or other municipality proposes to lay out and open, or has heretofore laid out any street or highway, in such manner as that the same shall cross the railroad of such corporation upon the same grade with said railroad and at a point where there is a curve in the route of said railroad having a radius of eight degrees or more, that such crossing has, from whatever cause, not yet been actually constructed, and that such crossing upon the same grade at such point will be prejudicial to the interests of said corporation and of the traveling public, it shall be the duty of said court to cause inquiry and report to be made by three commissioners to be appointed by said court, not residents of said city or municipality, or owning property therein, as to the manner and grade upon which such street or highway should cross said railway; and upon report by said commissioners and consideration of evidence before them taken, to determine and decree the grade and manner above or under the said railway at and in which said street or highway shall cross said railway, and no street or highway shall be built so as to cross said railway in any other manner or at any different grade.

Report.

Expense of making crossings

2. And be it enacted, That the expense of making such crossing shall be borne and shall by the proper officers of said city or municipality be assessed upon property benefited thereby in proportion to the benefit received therefrom, as in ordinary cases of opening streets in said city or municipality, and as part of the expense of grading such street.

Oath of commissioners

3. And be it enacted, That such commissioners, before entering upon their duties, shall make and file with said court their affidavit that they will well, faithfully and justly execute the duties devolved upon them by said appointment.

Repealer

4. And be it enacted, That all acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed, and this act shall take effect immediately.

Passed March 11, 1892.

CHAPTER LXVI.

An Act concerning the government of cities of the second class in this state.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That in each city of the second class in this state there shall be elected an officer to be the president of the board of alderman, common council or council of said city, who shall be the president of and act at the meetings of the said board of aldermen, common council or council of said city, and shall have all the powers of an alderman or councilman; but in case of death, disability or absence from any cause, such boards shall have the power to elect one of their number president pro tempore.

Provides for the election of a president of the board of a city, council or governing body of each second class city, who shall have the power as an alderman or councilman.

2. And be it enacted, That the provisions of this act shall be submitted to the lawful voters in any of the cities of the second class at the next municipal election after its approval; provided, that a resolution for that purpose shall first be adopted by the board of aldermen, common council or council of such city; provided, however, that the first president of the board of aldermen, common council or council shall be elected at the municipal election aforesaid, and in case this act shall be accepted in any city at any such election, then the president of the board of aldermen, common council or council so elected shall hold office therein for the term of two years, calculating said term from the time in that year when the term of the members of the board of aldermen, common council or council elected in that year for regular terms in such city shall begin; and in case the voters of such city shall decide at any such election to reject the provisions of this act, then the election of a president of the board of aldermen, common council or council held therein at such election shall be void.

6. And be it enacted, That all acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith be and the same are hereby repealed, in so far as the same are inconsistent herewith.

7. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 17, 1892.

CHAPTER LXXVII.

A Further Supplement to an act entitled an "An act to re-organize the board of chosen freeholders in counties of the first class in this state," approved April third, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That hereafter in any case where a vacancy shall occur in the board of chosen freeholders provided for in the act to which this is a supplement, or in any act supplementary thereto, exclusive of the director or director-at-large, by the resignation of any member thereof or otherwise than by the expiration of the term of such member, and no provision has been made for the filling of such vacancy, such board is hereby authorized to fill the same by electing thereto, by a majority vote of all the existing members of such board, some person who shall be a reputable elector residing in any district which, by reason of such vacancy, shall be without a member in such board to represent the same; the member thus chosen to fill any such vacancy shall hold office until the next general election for members of such board; the resignation of any member of such board, including the director or director-at-large thereof, may be effected by putting the same in writing addressed to the board and filing it in the office of the clerk thereof, whose duty it shall be as soon as practicable thereafter to inform the board thereof and file the resignation in the office of the county clerk, where the same shall remain of record.

Board of freeholders in first class counties authorized to fill vacancies.

Member chosen to serve until next election for freeholders.

Resignation of any member effective upon being filed with the clerk.

2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 17, 1892.

CHAPTER LXXVIII.

An Act concerning cities of the first class in this state, and to facilitate the collection thereby of arrears of taxes assessed on personal property.

Duty of the receiver or collector of taxes in every first class city, within ten days after the expiration of the fiscal year, to make a list of all persons in arrears for taxes.

A list to be made before April 15, 1892, for previous year.

List to be published in a daily newspaper.

Rate and cost of publication.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That it shall be the official duty of the receiver or collector of taxes in all cities of the first class in this state, within ten days after the expiration of each fiscal year of such city, to cause to be made out and delivered to the comptroller of such city, a full and complete list of the names and amounts due such city from all persons residing in the various wards or aldermanic districts of such city, for arrears of taxes assessed on the personal property of such persons, respectively, during such previous fiscal year; and such list of delinquent taxpayers for the fiscal year previous to the passage of this act, shall be made and delivered by such receiver or collector of taxes as aforesaid before the fifteenth day of April next after the passage of this act.

2. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the comptroller of such city aforesaid, immediately after the delivery to him of the list of delinquent taxpayers mentioned in the first section of this act, to cause a true copy of such list to be made and published in a daily newspaper published in such city, once each week for two weeks, allowing two weeks to intervene between the first and second publication of such list, and erasing from such list between the first and second publication thereof as aforesaid, the names of all delinquent taxpayers thereon who shall pay their said arrears of taxes, with cost of publication, before the second publication of said list as aforesaid; that the daily newspaper publishing such list of delinquent taxpayers aforesaid, shall be entitled to charge, and shall be paid by such city, the sum of twenty cents per name of each delinquent taxpayer for each insertion aforesaid, to be paid for by such city in the same manner as advertisements of sale of real estate for arrears of taxes are paid by such city, and the said cost of publication as aforesaid shall be added to the said arrears of taxes due from such delinquent taxpayer to such city and collected by such receiver or collector of taxes, together with the amount then due the city from such person for arrears of taxes assessed on the personal property of such delinquent.

3. And be it enacted, That all acts and parts of acts, ^{Repealer} general, special or local, inconsistent with the provisions of this act, be and the same are hereby repealed, and this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 17, 1892.

CHAPTER LXXIX.

A Further Supplement to an act entitled "An act concerning cities of the first class in this state, and constituting municipal boards of street and water commissioners therein, and defining the powers and duties of such municipal boards, and relating to the municipal affairs and departments of said cities placed under the control and management of such boards, and providing for the maintenance of the same," approved March twenty-eighth, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That so long as the bonded debt of any city mentioned and described in the act to which this act is a further supplement does not exceed fifteen per centum of the assessed value of the real and personal property therein, as shown by the records of said city, it shall be the duty of the common council or other governing body thereof, upon the request of the board of street and water commissioners of such city, to issue temporary loan certificates or bonds for any sum not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars, and to negotiate the same at the best price allowable, and to place the proceeds of such certificates or bonds in the city treasury of such city, as part of a capital fund to be used exclusively, together with all benefit assessments made and collected for such improvements, for the opening of streets in such city, and that so much of such capital fund so to be raised as aforesaid as the board of street and water commissioners of such city shall from time to time determine to use for that purpose may be applied to the opening of streets in such city, and such board shall be fully empowered, by a unanimous vote of its members, to open any street or highway, or part thereof, in such city, without any petition or consent therefor; proceeding in all things as required by law for street openings in such city, except as hereinafter otherwise provided.

Proceedings for street openings.

Assessments,
how made and collected.

Moneys to be expended solely for street openings.

Period of bonds or certificates.

Payment of interest and principal.

Repealer.

2. And be it enacted, That all assessments for benefits from such street opening improvements shall be made, levied, collected and be a first lien upon the lands and real estate specially benefited thereby, in conformity with the provisions of existing law in force in such city with respect thereto; and the moneys collected therefrom shall be paid into said fund and expended solely for street openings, as such board of street and water commissioners of such city shall deem judicious.

3. And be it enacted, That bonds or certificates of indebtedness shall in no case be issued for a longer period than twenty years; and it shall be the duty of the common council of such city to provide, in the annual tax levy, for the interest to become due thereon, and also a sinking fund, of not less than three per centum annually, to pay the principal of such bonds or certificates when due.

4. And be it enacted, That all acts and parts of acts, general, local or specific, inconsistent with the provisions of this act, be and the same are hereby repealed.

Approved March 17, 1892.

CHAPTER LXXX.

A Supplement to an act entitled "An act to provide for the regulation and incorporation of insurance companies," approved April ninth, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That the expense of examining into the affairs of any insurance company under the provisions of the act to which this is a supplement and the supplements thereto, shall be paid to the commissioner of banking and insurance by the company so examined; and if, after such examination, any such company shall, on the application of said commissioner, have been or hereafter be, declared insolvent by the chancellor, the expense of such examination shall be taxed in the costs of the proceedings in the court of chancery and paid out of the assets of said company.

Expense of examination to be paid by company

If company is declared insolvent, expense to be taxed in costs

2. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of every life insurance company incorporated by the laws of this state, to make returns in January of each year to the commissioner of banking and insurance, showing all its policies and annuity bonds in force on the first day of said month, with such particulars of the same as are necessary for the valuation thereof, as is hereinafter directed; the commissioner of banking and insurance shall thereupon cause to be computed the value of such policies and bonds, or what is known as the re-insurance fund therefor, according to the American experience table of mortality and interest at the rate of four and a half per centum, or according to the actuaries' mortality and four per centum interest, or according to any other recognized standard of valuation as he may deem best for the security of the business and the safety of the persons insured; upon such valuation being made and a certificate thereof furnished by said commissioner, each company shall pay to such officer, to defray the expense thereof, the sum of one cent for every thousand dollars of the whole amount insured by its policies so valued, and of the gross amount of its annuity bonds so valued.

Life insurance companies to make return, and commissioner of banking and insurance to value policies.

Repealer.

8. And be it enacted, That all acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith be and the same are hereby repealed, and that this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 17, 1892.

CHAPTER LXXXI.

An Act authorizing municipalities governed by commissioners to pave and improve streets and avenues, and provide for the payment thereof.

Governing body in municipality governed by commissioners may pass resolution providing for an election to decide whether street improvements shall be made.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That whenever the governing body of any municipality, by whatever name the same may be known, and however created, governed by commissioners, shall be desirous of causing any street or streets, avenue or avenues, or portions thereof, lying within the limits of such municipality to be paved, macadamized or otherwise improved, it shall be lawful for such body after the consent of a majority of the owners of real estate on the street or streets to be improved has been obtained in favor of such improvement, by a majority vote of all the members thereof, at any regular meeting thereof, to call an election of such voters of such municipality by a resolution of such body containing the following statements, viz.:

What statement is to be contained in such resolution.

I. The time of holding such election;
II. The object thereof being to obtain the consent of such voters to the paving, macadamizing or improving of a certain street or streets, avenue or avenues (naming them or it) or portion thereof (describing it), and the assessment and collection of one-half of the costs thereof, upon all the property adjoining and abutting on such improvements;

III. The amount of money to be expended for such improvements;

IV. Or if it is proposed to issue the bonds mentioned in section eighteen hereof, said resolution in addition to containing the third statement as above set forth, shall also state that it is proposed to issue bonds of said municipality pledging the faith, credit and property thereof for the payment with interest by the said municipality of the remaining one-half of the cost of said improvement.

2. And be it enacted, That such resolution shall be published at least two weeks before the holding of such election, by setting up a copy thereof in at least ten public places in each ward of said municipality, and publishing said copy for two weeks, at least once a week in a newspaper published in said municipality, or if said municipality be not divided into wards, then by setting up a copy of such resolution in at least ten public places in said municipality, and publishing the same in manner aforesaid in a newspaper, if there be one published in said municipality. Publication of resolution, or posting.

3. And be it enacted, That the election shall be held at the time stated in said resolution, and that the election of officers elected at the last municipal election held in said municipality shall serve at said election; vacancies to be filled as they are in general municipal elections in said municipality; and the polling places shall be the polling places used at the said last election, unless said governing body shall in such resolution designate other polling places; the polls shall be open at the same hours as they do in all municipal elections held in said municipality, and said election shall be conducted in all respects in the same manner as all such municipal elections are conducted in such municipality. When election to be held. Vacancies in election officers, how filled. Polling places. Election hours and manner of conducting election.

4. And be it enacted, That all ballots cast at said election shall have the following words printed or written therein viz.: "For improving ——— street" (insert name of street), or "Against improving ——— street" (inserting name of street); each ballot may be in favor of, as well, as against, improving certain streets or avenues, named Form of ballot.

thereon, and that the same may be printed on and voted with the official ballots cast at the municipal election when held on the same day.

No action if majority of ballots are against improving streets

5. And be it enacted, That if a majority of the ballots cast at such election are against improving the street or avenues named therein the said governing body shall proceed no further, and no other election concerning the streets or avenues named in such ballot shall be held within one year from the holding of said election.

Procedure if ballots are in favor.

6. And be it enacted, That if a majority of said ballots cast at said election are in favor of improving certain streets or avenues named therein, it shall be lawful for said governing body to proceed at once to advertise for at least two weeks, once in each week, in a newspaper published in said municipality, for bids for making such improvement, and that such work shall be done by written contract, by the lowest responsible bidder.

Cost of improvement to be filed.

7. And be it enacted, That an accurate account of the cost of such improvement shall be ascertained by said governing body as soon as possible after the completion thereof, and filed with the clerk of said municipality.

Commissioners to assess benefits

8. And be it enacted, That when the improvement aforesaid shall have been completed, and the statement of the cost thereof filed with the clerk of said municipality as prescribed by the seventh section of this act, said governing body shall give notice of the appointment of said commissioners to estimate and assess the peculiar benefits conferred by such improvements upon the land and real estate fronting or bordering on the street or streets, or section thereof improved, of the time and place of which appointment, notice shall be given by two weeks' publication in two weekly newspapers printed and circulating therein, at which time and place, or at such other time and place as the governing body shall designate, said governing body shall, without unnecessary delay, appoint three commissioners, who shall be freeholders and residents of the municipality, to estimate and assess the benefits aforesaid; the said governing body shall have power to remove any commissioner and appoint another in his place, and also to fill any vacancy that may occur in the office of any commissioner from any cause.

Removal of commissioner.

9. And be it enacted, That said commissioners, before entering upon the duties required of them by this act, shall take and subscribe before some person duly authorized to administer the same, an oath or affirmation that they will make all assessments and estimates required of them, fairly, legally and equitably, according to the best of their skill and understanding, which oath or affirmation shall be attached to the report that they are hereinafter required to make.

Oath of commissioners.

10. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners having thus qualified shall give notice, under direction of said governing body, of the time and place when and where they shall hear any persons in interest or who may present themselves to be heard, and at such time and place, and at such other times and places to which they may adjourn for that purpose, the said commissioners shall attend, and shall give a public hearing to those persons in interest who may desire to be heard; the said commissioners shall have the power to examine witnesses under oath, to be administered by any one of them, and to enter upon and view the lands and real estate fronting or bordering on the street or streets, or section thereof improved, and to adjourn from time to time in their discretion, or as directed by said governing body; they shall use diligent efforts to ascertain the names of the owners of the lands fronting or bordering on the street or streets or section thereof improved, and shall state the same in the report hereinafter mentioned; but the failure to ascertain the name of any owner, or to state the same correctly, or the omission of any such name from such report shall not invalidate said assessment, nor be a bar to the collection of the same.

Hearing before commissioners.

Commissioners to examine witnesses.

Ascertain the names of owners of lands

Failure to ascertain owners not a bar to collection of assessment

11. And be it enacted, That after having giving opportunity as aforesaid for a public hearing of the persons in interest, and having viewed the lands fronting or bordering on the street or streets, or section thereof improved as aforesaid, the said commissioners shall make a report within forty-five days after their appointment, in writing, of their estimates and assessments to the said governing body, accompanied by a survey and maps prepared under their direction, showing the several tracts or parcels of land and real estate fronting or bor-

Commissioners to report with maps.

pointed in said notice, the governing body may, as they shall deem proper, either bring an action on the case in any court of competent jurisdiction, in the corporate name of such municipality, against the owner or owners of such lot or tract of land, for so much money laid out and expended by them for the use of such owner or owners, and declare generally and give special matter in evidence, and either party, from any judgment rendered therein may have the same remedy by appeal or otherwise as if said parties were private individuals, or may proceed to collect the said assessment by sale of lots or tracts of land whereon such assessment has been imposed, or may be a lien in the same manner and to the same extent as lands are now sold for unpaid taxes in said municipality, and the purchaser or purchasers at any such sale or sales, and his legal representative, shall hold and enjoy such lots or tracts of land, with the rents, issues and profits thereof, in the same manner and by the same title and tenure as purchasers at the sales of lots or tracts of land for unpaid taxes can now hold and enjoy the same in said municipality.

Money collected to be applied to payment of notes

17. And be it enacted, That the money so collected shall be applied to the payment of the notes hereinafter mentioned.

License fees to be set apart as a special fund for payment of remainder of cost of improvements.

18. And be it enacted, That the remaining part or portion of the cost of such improvement or improvements shall be paid from the moneys now or that may hereafter be received by or for the use of such municipality, from all license fees (except clerk and court fees), from any and all licenses to sell spirituous, vinous, malt and brewed liquors, granted by the court of common pleas of the different counties of this state, or other licensing board or body, and paid over to the body or person entitled to the legal custody of the funds of any such municipality, which sums of money so received or hereafter received from all such license fees shall be by said governing body set apart as a special fund for such purpose; or the said governing body of said municipality may, if so authorized according to the requirements of section one hereof, to issue the bonds of said municipality, pledging the faith, credit and property thereof, for the payment with interest, at the time to be specified by them in said bonds, of said

remaining part or portion of such improvement; said bonds shall be of the denomination of one thousand dollars each, bearing interest at a rate not exceeding five per centum per annum, which shall be paid semi-annually, and shall not be disposed of or sold by said governing body for less than their par value; all license moneys received by said municipality shall be applied to the payment of the interest to accrue thereon, and if said fees shall be more than sufficient to pay said interest, then the surplus shall be set aside by said governing body as a sinking fund with which to pay the principal of said bonds.

Denomination and interest of bonds.

Interest to be paid by license moneys.

19. And be it enacted, That the governing body of any municipality may issue notes of said municipality in anticipation of the assessment and collection of the part of the costs of such improvement or improvements upon the property adjoining and abutting on such street or streets so to be paved, macadamized or otherwise improved, and in anticipation of the receipt of license fees as provided for by section eighteen of this act, sufficient to pay for such improvement.

Notes to be issued.

20. And be it enacted, That no work on any such proposed improvement or improvements shall be commenced until the governing body of such municipality shall have deposited in such special fund as provided for by section eighteen of this act twenty-five per centum of the estimated cost thereof; provided, however, this section shall not be operative in any case where bonds are issued as mentioned in section eighteen.

Twenty-five per cent. of estimated cost to be deposited in special fund before work shall be commenced.

Proviso.

21. And be it enacted, That the powers herein conferred shall be construed as being an addition to, and not in lieu of, any powers to pave, macadamize or otherwise improve streets or avenues, or to issue bonds contained in the provisions of any charter or act creating any municipality.

Powers conferred to be in addition to other powers.

22. And be it enacted, That all acts and parts of acts, general or special, public or private, inconsistent with or repugnant to the provisions of this act, be and the same are hereby repealed.

Repealer

23. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 11, 1892.

CHAPTER LXXXIV.

A Supplement to an act entitled "An act to provide for a commission to revise and consolidate the general statutes of this state relating to villages, towns and townships," approved March ninth, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one.

WHEREAS, the commissioners appointed under the provisions of the act to which this is a supplement, have been engaged in the prosecution of the work in said act directed since the second day of June last; and whereas, the duties required of them by said act have proved to be much more laborious than at first supposed, and have required much careful examination and research; and whereas, the said commissioners, by reason thereof, find that they are unable to complete the work required of them by said act in time to lay a complete report of the same before the present session of the legislature; therefore,

Preamble.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That the said commission be and is hereby continued, with the same duties and powers imposed and conferred upon the members thereof by the act to which this is a supplement, and that the said commissioners shall lay before the legislature at its next session a complete report of the work of said commission.

Commissioners to revise the statutes relative to villages, towns and townships, continued, and lay before the legislature at its next session a complete report.

CHAPTER LXXXVI.

A Supplement to an act entitled "An act providing for sewerage in and by adjoining cities, towns and townships," approved April twenty-first, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That the eighth section of an act entitled "An act providing for sewerage in and by adjoining cities, towns and townships," approved April twenty-first, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, be amended so as to read as follows: ^{Section to be amended} to take lands for construction of sewer and pay owners for same and damages done.

8. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners shall have power to take any lands that in their judgment may be necessary for the building or construction of such sewer, upon paying to the owner or owners thereof the fair value of the lands taken, and of the improvements thereon, and the damage done to any lot, tract or parcel, tenement or building, by taking part of it for such purpose; and any person whose lands and property was or may be injuriously affected by the location of the outlet of said sewer shall be entitled to have and receive a just compensation for such injury, which damage and compensation shall be ascertained and determined by the said commissioners, and the money necessary to pay the same shall be advanced and paid by the said municipalities on the order of said commissioners in the proportion provided in and by the report of the commissioners.

Proceedings for appointment of commissioners in condemnation.

2. And be it enacted, That in case the said commissioners shall be unable to agree with the owner or owners of any lands required in their judgment to be taken for such sewer, or when, by legal incapacity or absence of such owner or owners, no such agreement can be made, a particular description of the lands so required for the use of such sewer, including therein the lands necessary for the maintenance and operation of the same, shall be given, in writing, under oath or affirmation, of some engineer or proper agent of the commissioners, and also the name or names of the occupant or occupants, if any there be, and of the owner or owners, and their residence, if the same can be ascertained, to one of the justices of the supreme court of this state, who shall cause such commissioners to give notice thereof to the persons interested, if known, and in this state, or if unknown, or out of this state, to make publication thereof as he shall direct for any term not less than ten days, and to assign a particular time and place for the appointment of the commissioners in condemnation herein named, at which time, upon satisfactory evidence to him of the service or publication of such notice aforesaid, he shall appoint, under his hand and seal, three disinterested, impartial and judicious freeholders, residents in the county in which said sewer is to be constructed, commissioners in condemnation to examine and appraise the said lands so required to be taken for the construction and maintenance of said sewer, and to assess the damages, upon such notice to be given to the parties interested as shall be directed by the justice making such appointment, to be expressed therein not less than ten days; and it shall be the duty of said commissioners in condemnation (having first taken and subscribed an oath or affirmation before some person duly authorized to administer oaths, to faithfully and impartially examine the matter in question, and to make a true report according to the best of their skill and understanding, to meet at the time and place appointed, and to proceed to view and examine the said lands, and to make a just and equitable appraisement of the value of the same, and an assessment of damages to be paid by the said commissioners appointed for the construction of said sewer, for such lands and damages aforesaid, which report shall be made in writing under the hands and seals of the said commissioners, or any two of them, and filed within ten days thereafter, together with the aforesaid description of lands so required and taken, and the appointment, and oaths or affirmations aforesaid in the clerk's office of the county in which the lands are situate, to remain on record therein, and thereupon, and on payment, or tender of payment, of the amount awarded, as hereinafter provided, the said commissioners appointed to construct said sewer are hereby empowered to enter upon and take possession of said lands for the purposes aforesaid, and the said report or copy thereof certified by the clerk of said county, and proof of payment or tender of the amount awarded shall at all times be considered as plenary evidence of the right of said commissioners appointed to construct said sewer, and of the various municipalities contributing to the expense thereof, to have, hold, use, occupy, possess and enjoy the said lands, or of the said owner or owners to recover the amount of said valuation with interest and costs, in an action of debt in any court of competent jurisdiction, in a suit to be instituted against the municipalities so to be drained, in case said commissioners shall neglect or refuse to pay the same for twenty days after demand made therefor upon them; and the said justice of the supreme court shall, upon application of either party, upon reasonable notice to the others, allow and tax such costs, fees and expenses to the commissioners in condemnation, clerks and other persons performing any of the duties prescribed in this section, as he shall think equitable and right, and the same shall be paid by said commissioners of construction, and charged as an expense of the building of said sewer; provided, always, that should the said commissioners of construction or the owner or owners of any of the lands so taken feel aggrieved with the decision of the commissioners aforesaid, they may appeal to the next circuit court within the county in which the said lands may be situate.

3. And be it enacted, That every appeal from the decision of the commissioners appointed under the preceding section, shall be made in writing, and in the form of a petition to said circuit court, and filed with the clerk of said circuit court, wherein the lands appraised by the said commissioners in condemnation shall be, and notice in writing of said appeal shall be given to the opposite party within ten days after the filing thereof, which proceeding shall vest in the circuit court full right and power to hear and adjudge the same, and to direct a proper issue for the trial of said controversy to be formed between the said parties, and to order a jury to be struck, and a view of the premises to be had, and the said issue to be tried at the next term of said court to be holden in said county upon the like notice and in the same manner as other issues in the said court are tried; and it shall be the duty of the said jury to assess the value of the said lands so taken and the damages sustained, and if they shall find a greater sum than the said commissioners shall have awarded in favor of the said owner or owners, then judgment thereon with costs shall be entered in favor of said owner or owners, and the amount so fixed and awarded by said jury shall be paid by said commissioners of construction as a part of the expense of the construction of said sewer; but if the said jury shall be applied for by the owner or owners and shall find a less sum than the said commissioners of construction shall have offered, or the said commissioners in condemnation shall have awarded, then costs shall be paid by the said applicant or applicants, and the same shall be deducted out of the said sum found by the said jury, but such application shall not prevent the commissioners of construction from taking the said land upon filing the said report of the commissioners of condemnation aforesaid; provided, that Proviso. in no case whatever shall said commissioners of construction enter upon or take possession of any land of any person or persons whatsoever for the purpose of actually constructing said sewer, or otherwise appropriating said lands to the use of said commissioners, until they have paid to the party or parties entitled to receive the same the amount assessed by the commissioners in condemnation as the value of such land or damages; in case the report of the commissioners is not appealed from, or if the same be appealed from, then the amount which shall be found by the jury by whom the issue shall be tried; but in case the party or parties entitled to receive the amount assessed by the commissioners, in case there shall be no appeal, and in case of appeal the amount found by the jury, shall refuse upon tender thereof being made to receive the same, or shall be out of the state or under any legal disability, then the payment of the amount assessed or found as aforesaid into the circuit court of the county wherein the lands lie shall be deemed a valid and legal payment.

4. And be it enacted, That all acts and parts of acts in- Repealer. consistent with the provisions of this act be and the same are hereby repealed, and that this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 22, 1892.

CHAPTER LXXXVII.

Master for hearing a cause.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That for making every report in pursuance of an order made upon hearing a cause, every master in chancery shall be entitled to receive the sum of four dollars in lieu of the fees now allowed by law.

Fees of master, special master and supreme court commissioner.

2. And be it enacted, That every master in chancery, special master in chancery and supreme court commissioner directed to approve any bond by any court or judge thereof, shall be entitled to receive the following fees, in lieu of the fees now allowed by law, namely, the sum of three dollars when the penalty named in said bond does not exceed the sum of one thousand dollars, and five dollars when such penalty shall exceed the sum of one thousand dollars.

Additional fees for masters, examiners and special masters and supreme court commissioners.

3. And be it enacted, That in addition to the fees now allowed by law to masters in chancery, examiners in chancery, and special masters in chancery and to supreme court commissioners for taking testimony in any matter or cause pending in any of the courts of this state, or in any proceeding based upon or growing out of any decree or judgment of any of the courts of this state, or order of any judge thereof, there shall be allowed an attendance fee of four dollars for every appointment not exceeding two at which testimony shall be taken, to be paid by the moving party and included in the taxable costs.

4. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 22, 1892.

CHAPTER LXXXVIII.

An Act to authorize the increasing of the number of managers or directors of corporations to provide for the support and maintenance of supernumerary or superannuated ministers of the gospel or the widows and orphans of deceased ministers of the gospel, or to provide for both or any of such objects.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That it shall and may be lawful for the body in which the power of election or appointment of the managers or directors of any corporation of this state, the object of which is to provide for the support and maintenance of supernumerary or superannuated ministers of the gospel, or to provide for the support of the widows and orphans of deceased ministers of the gospel, or for both or any of those objects is vested by law, whether it be in the members of the corporation itself or in any annual conference or other ecclesiastical body, to add to the number of such managers or directors as specified in the law now governing the corporation, so that the whole number of managers or directors shall not exceed fifteen, and if such increase be made, to provide that some of such managers or directors, not to exceed two-fifths of the whole number as increased, shall be laymen, residents of this state and members of the church to which the appointing or electing body belongs or is attached; and it shall also be lawful for said appointing or electing body to fix the term of office of the managers or directors so added; no such term, however, to exceed three years.

Authorizes the increasing of directors of corporations for the support of superannuated ministers.

2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 22, 1892.

CHAPTER LXXXIX.

A Further Supplement to an act entitled "An act concerning corporations," approved April seventh, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five.

Manner in which certificates of stock may be issued by corporations to take the place of those that are lost.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That whenever any company incorporated under the laws of this state, or of the United States, if located and existing in this state, shall have refused to issue a new certificate of stock in place of one theretofore issued by it, or by any corporation of which it is the lawful successor, but which is alleged to have been lost or destroyed, the owner of such lost or destroyed certificate, or his legal representatives, may apply to the circuit court of the county in which the principal office of said company is located for an order requiring such corporation to show cause why it should not be required to issue a new certificate of stock in place of the one so lost or destroyed; such application shall be by petition, duly verified by the owner, in which shall be stated the name of the corporation, the number and date of the certificate, if known, or can be ascertained by the petitioner, the number of shares of stock named therein and to whom issued, and as particular a statement of the circumstances attending such loss or destruction as such petitioner shall be able to give; upon the presentation of said petition, said court shall make an order requiring said corporation to show cause, at a time and place therein mentioned, why it should not be required to issue a new certificate of stock in place of the one described in said petition; a copy of said petition and of said order shall be served upon the president or other head of such corporation, or on the cashier, secretary or treasurer thereof, personally, at least ten days before the time designated in said order for showing cause.

Court to order such issue upon inquiry.

2. And be it enacted, That at the time and place specified in said order, and on proof of due service thereof, the said court shall proceed in a summary manner and in such mode as it may deem advisable to inquire into the truth of the facts stated in said petition, and shall hear such proofs and allegations as may be offered by or in behalf of the petitioner, or by or in behalf of said corporation or other party, relative to the subject-matter of said inquiry, and if, upon such inquiry, said court shall be satisfied that such petitioner is the lawful owner of the number of shares of the capital stock, or any part thereof, described in said petition, and that the certificate therefor has been lost or destroyed, and cannot after due diligence be found, and that no sufficient cause has been shown why a new certificate should not be issued in place thereof, it shall make an order requiring said corporation or other party, within such time as shall be therein designated, to issue and deliver to such petitioner a new certificate for the number of shares of the capital stock of said corporation which shall be specified in said order as owned by said petitioner, and the certificate for which shall have been lost or destroyed; in making such order the court shall direct that said petitioner deposit such security, or file such a bond in such form and with such sureties as to the court shall appear sufficient to indemnify any person other than the petitioner who shall thereafter appear to be the lawful owner of such certificate stated to be lost or stolen; and the court may also direct the publication of such notice, either preceding or succeeding the making of such final order, as it shall deem proper; any person or persons who shall thereafter claim any rights under said certificate so alleged to have been lost or destroyed, shall have recourse to said indemnity, and the said corporation shall be discharged of and from all liability to such person or persons by reason of compliance with the order aforesaid; and obedience to said order may be enforced by said court by attachments against the officer or officers of such corporation, on proof of his or their refusal to comply with the same.

CHAPTER CXI.

An Act to amend an act entitled "An act relating to turnpike companies," approved February twenty-fourth, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two.

Section to be amended.

1. BE IT ENACTED By the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That section one of an act entitled "An act relating to turnpike companies," approved February twenty-fourth, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows :

Failure of company to keep road or bridges in repair, judge of court may, on complaint, appoint freeholders to examine.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That if any turnpike company shall not keep its road and bridges in repair, it shall be the duty of any judge of the court of common pleas of the county in which said road or the part thereof complained of, or bridge, is situated, upon complaint being made to him, in writing, signed by ten freeholders, residents on the line of said road, within said county, stating the bridge or part of the road that is out of repair, and specifying the particular defect, and after five days notice in writing to said company, specifying the particular part of the road or bridge, and the particular defect complained of, and after hearing the parties, if the said company shall have continued to take toll on that part of the road so out of repair, after being notified as aforesaid, without having first amended or repaired the bridge or part of the road complained of, to appoint under his hand and seal, three judicious, disinterested freeholders of the county in which said road, or the part thereof complained of, or bridge, is situated, not residing in any township, borough, or ward through which said road passes, who, having been duly qualified according to law, to act impartially in the case, shall proceed to view and examine the said part of the turnpike road or bridge so complained of, and report to the said judge, in writing under their hands and seals, or under the hands and seals of any two of them, whether it be in such state as the law requires it to be kept, and if the report be unfavorable to said road, the said judge shall immediately, in writing under his hand and seal, order the keeper or keepers of the gates or turnpikes to keep open the same until otherwise ordered; and if said keeper or keepers shall, notwithstanding the order of the said judge to open said gates or turnpikes, exact toll of travelers, the said company shall for each offence forfeit and pay ten dollars, to be sued for by any person who shall prosecute for the same, in an action of debt, with costs of suit; and the said judge shall be allowed for his services one dollar, and the persons appointed one dollar each, to be paid by the company; and upon satisfactory proof before the said judge, that said company shall have repaired or amended said road or bridge in the particular complained of, he shall, by license, under his hand and seal, directed to the toll gatherers, permit the gates or turnpikes to be shut, and the toll collected as before, and the said fee shall be allowed and paid as before directed, but if, on the view before mentioned, the report of the persons appointed, or a majority of them, shall be in favor of the company, the same fees shall be allowed as before prescribed, and be paid by the persons making the complaint.

Report of condition to be made, and judge may order gates open when report be unfavorable.

Penalty for exacting toll.

When road and bridges are repaired road may be opened.

2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 23, 1892.

CHAPTER CXII.

An Act to authorize boroughs in this state to purchase sewer works and systems within the borough limits from individuals or corporations and to provide for the payment, operation and maintenance of the same.

Boroughs may purchase sewer works.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That whenever the governing body of any incorporated borough of this state shall deem it to the best interest of said borough to purchase any sewer works or systems of sewers located within the corporate limits of such borough from private individuals or corporations owning the same, they shall have the power and authority so to do, subject to the provisions hereinafter contained.

Resolution for purchase.

To be submitted to legal voters.

Notice of election.

What notice shall state.

2. And be it enacted, That no systems of sewers shall be purchased under this act until the governing body of said borough shall first pass a resolution favoring the purchase of a sewer system located within the limits of said borough, which resolution shall state the name or names of the owners thereof, the streets and avenues through which its mains, pipes and conduits are laid and located, the price to be paid therefor, the terms of payment and the conditions and restrictions under which the same are to be purchased, if any; that said resolution, before it shall be legal or operative, shall first be submitted to the legal voters of said borough at a special election to be held for that purpose; that thirty days' notice shall be given of the time and place of holding said election, signed by the clerk of said borough, in one or more newspapers published and circulating therein, and, in addition thereto, said notice shall be posted in at least ten public places within the corporate limits; that said notice shall state the sewer system to be purchased, the price to be paid therefor and the conditions and restrictions under which the same is to be purchased, if any; that said clerk shall provide for each elector voting at said election, ballots to be printed or written, or partly printed and partly written, on which shall be the words, "For the purchase of the sewer system described in the resolution," or "Against the purchase of the sewer system described in the resolution;" that the polls shall be open at seven o'clock in the morning and shall continue open until six o'clock in the evening, with the exception of from one o'clock to two o'clock in the afternoon, when the same may be closed; that said election shall be conducted by the borough election officers in the same manner as borough elections are conducted, except as herein stated, who shall return a statement of the result of said election to the governing body of said borough as soon as the same can be made, which said statement shall be entered in the regular book of minutes of said borough.

Form of ballots.

Opening and closing polls.

Manner of conducting election and returns.

3. And be it enacted, That should a majority of the legal votes, cast at said election, be in favor of the resolution for the purchase of the sewer system, described therein, it shall be the duty of the governing body of said borough to issue the bonds of said borough for the sum mentioned as the purchase price in said resolution; said bonds to bear a rate of interest not exceeding the legal rate, the principal to be payable in ten years or sooner, at the option of said borough; that it shall be the duty of said governing body to make sale of said bonds at not less than their par value, the proceeds thereof to be appropriated according to the provisions of this act.

Bonds issued.

Interest.

Not to be sold at less than par value.

4. And be it enacted, That the governing body of said borough, for the payment of said bonds and such interest as shall, from time to time, accrue thereon, shall have the authority to make three or more annual assessments upon the lands and real estate in front of, or on the side of which said sewers are laid and located, at a certain sum or amount per lineal foot, which said sum or amount shall be the same per foot in all parts of said borough; that should the sewer main run or be laid along the side and in front of houses or lots located on the corners of two or more streets or avenues, then the land shall be measured and the assessment made for the number of lineal feet on the street or avenue on which the connection to said sewer main is made, and not for lineal feet on other streets or avenues; that should sewer mains be laid in streets or avenues on which vacant corner lots are located, said vacant lots shall be assessed for the lineal feet front, if a sewer main is located in front of the same, if not, then said lot or lots shall be assessed for the lineal feet on the side thereof on which said sewer main is located; that should any property be connected to said sewer mains which is not located on any street or avenue through which a sewer main is laid, said property so connected shall be assessed the same per lineal foot front as properties located on streets and avenues having the sewer mains.

By whom made.

5. And be it enacted, That said assessments shall be made by the borough assessor or other officer having authority to assess taxes therein for borough purposes, at the same time and in the same manner as the taxes for said borough are levied and assessed, and said assessments shall be collected by the borough collector or other officer having authority to collect taxes therein for borough purposes, at the same time and in the same manner as the taxes of said borough are collected, and shall have the same remedies for the enforcement of the payment thereof.

May extend sewer systems.

6. And be it enacted, That said boroughs shall have the authority, by resolution or ordinance, to extend said sewer systems, mains and pipes to such said streets and avenues within said boroughs as the governing bodies shall deem necessary for the protection of the public health, and the improvements of the sanitary conditions of said boroughs.

Assessments for extending.

7. And be it enacted, That the governing bodies of said boroughs shall have the authority to assess the costs and expenses for extending said system of sewers, mains and pipes upon the lands and real estate in front or on the side of the streets or avenues through which said mains are laid or located at a certain equal sum per lineal foot, which said assessment shall be made and collected at the same time and by the same officers as tax assessments or levies are made and collected in said boroughs; and said boroughs shall have, in all respects, the same remedies for the enforcement of said assessments as are provided for the enforcement of taxes.

Special sewer tax.

8. And be it enacted, That for the purpose of maintaining and operating said sewer system, and properly caring for the same, the said boroughs shall have the authority to impose a special sewer tax on all the lands and real estates within the corporate limits of said boroughs, which said tax shall not, however, in any one year exceed the sum of one dollar per thousand dollars on the assessed valuation.

9. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 23, 1892.

CHAPTER CXIII.

An Act relative to the extension of fire houses to the building line of cities of the second class in this state maintaining a paid fire department.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That where any fire house stands or is erected back from the building line of the street in any city of the second class in this state maintaining a paid fire department, and, in the opinion of the board of aldermen, common council, board of fire commissioners or other authority having charge and control of the fire department in said city, such fire house is detrimental and dangerous to the public using such street, it shall be lawful for the said board of aldermen, common council, board of fire commissioners or other authority as aforesaid to carry forward the said fire house or extend the same to the building line of such street, any provision in any contract to the contrary notwithstanding.

Boards of aldermen, common council or governing bodies to carry forward fire houses dangerously situated to the building line of streets.

2. And be it enacted, That all parts of all acts, and all charter provisions inconsistent herewith, be and the same hereby are repealed, and this act shall take effect immediately.

Repealer.

CHAPTER CXIV.

A Further Supplement to an act entitled "An act relative to sales of land under a public statute or by virtue of any judicial proceedings," approved March twenty-seventh, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

Sheriffs' sales, since March 7, 1891, confirmed by the court of chancery valid, although made on Saturday between twelve and five o'clock.

Deeds good in law.

Proviso.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That no sale of land by the sheriff of any of the counties of this state made since the seventh day of March, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, and confirmed by the court of chancery, shall be held to be invalid by reason of the fact that said sale was made between the hours of twelve o'clock at noon and five o'clock in the afternoon on Saturday; and that any deed made by such sheriff for any lands sold by him since said date between said hours on Saturday, where said sale has been confirmed as aforesaid, shall be deemed and taken to be as good and effectual in the law as if said sale had been sold upon the afternoon of any other day not recognized as a holiday by the laws of this state; provided, that all the other provisions of said act shall have been complied with, and that this act shall not be construed to regulate any sales of land to be made after this act goes into effect.

2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 23, 1892.

CHAPTER CXV.

An Act relative to dower.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Asssembly of the State of New Jersey, That whenever it shall appear to the satisfaction of the chancellor that any person having a right of dower in any lands or premises is incapacitated by mental infirmity or disease from executing a valid release or relinquishment of the same, and that the interests of the owner of such lands and premises require and would be promoted by a sale of the same, it shall be lawful for the chancellor to direct such release or relinquishment to be made by any master of the court of chancery, whose deed or deeds executed in behalf of such person shall release and bar all the dower or estate in dower to which such person may be entitled in the lands and premises therein mentioned.

CHAPTER CXVIII.

A Further Supplement to an act entitled "An act to complete the geological survey of the state," approved March thirtieth, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, The board of managers of the geological survey of the state now consists of fifteen members, including the governor, and provision is only made for seven congressional districts, and changes in the districts and deaths have created vacancies.

Board of managers.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That hereafter the governor, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, shall make such appointments to the board of managers as will at all times secure as members of said board two members from each congressional district as now constituted, or as may hereafter be constituted, who shall hold office for three years from the date of their appointment.

Terms of office.

2. And be it enacted, That the terms of office of the present members of the board in any of the congressional districts, where there are not more than two present members living in such district, shall expire three years from the date of this act, unless they shall sooner die, resign or remove from the congressional district in which they now live, in either of which cases their office shall become vacant, and where there are more than two members of the present board, who are living in any one congressional district, that the governor shall designate two of said members who shall hold their office for a period of three years from the date of said designation.

Vacancies, how filled.

3. And be it enacted, That all vacancies in said board shall be filled by the governor by and with the advice and consent of the senate, if the senate is in session, and if not in session the governor shall fill said vacancy by his appointment without confirmation, and their term of office shall be three years from the date of their appointment.

4. And be it enacted, That all other modes of appointment and designation of said members of said board, and all other acts inconsistent herewith, be and the same are hereby repealed, and that this act shall take effect immediately. Repealer.

Approved March 23, 1892.

CHAPTER CXIX.

An Act to provide for the extinguishment of forest fires in the third and fourth class counties of this state, and to provide for the payment of the expense thereof.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That it shall and may be lawful for the township committee of any township in counties of the third and fourth class in this state, to employ any person or persons, as may be necessary, to fight and extinguish forest fires, and to fix and pay to such person a just and reasonable compensation for such services, to be paid out of the funds of such township not otherwise appropriated. Township committees may employ a person or persons to fight and extinguish forest fires.

2. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any such township at the annual town meeting to designate and vote for a certain sum to be raised for the purpose aforesaid, which shall be included in the tax rate and raised as other moneys for township purposes are now raised. Sum to be raised by taxation.

3. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 23, 1892.

CHAPTER CXX.

An Act to provide for the payment of the expenses incurred by the state charities aid association of New Jersey.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, the state charities aid association of New Jersey is rendering important and valuable services to the state and is incurring expenses for the payment of which no provision hath hertofore been made,

Appropriates a sum not exceeding $600 for the state charities aid association.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That a sum of money not exceeding six hundred dollars be and the same is hereby appropriated, annually, to be paid by the treasurer of the state, upon the warrant of the comptroller, and with the approval of the governor, to the treasurer of the state charities aid association of New Jersey, to be expended by said association in the payment of expenses incurred.

2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 23, 1892.

CHAPTER CXXII.

An Act to tax intestates' estates, gifts, legacies and collateral inheritance in certain cases.

Gifts, legacies and collateral inheritance subject to a tax of $5 on every $100.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That after the passage of this act all property which shall pass by will or by the intestate laws of this state from any person who may die seized or possessed of the same while being a resident of the state, and all property which shall be within this state, and any part of such property, and any interest therein or income therefrom, which shall be transferred by inheritance, distribution, bequest, devise, deed, grant, sale or gift as aforesaid, made or intended to take effect in possession or enjoyment after the death of the intestate, testator, grantor or bargainor, to any person or persons, or to a body politic or corporate, in trust or otherwise, or by reason whereof any person or body politic or corporate shall become beneficially entitled, in possession or expectancy, to such property, or to the income thereof, other than to or for the use of father, mother, husband, wife, children, brother or sister, or lineal descendants born in lawful wedlock, or the wife or widow of a son, or the husband of a daughter, shall be subject to a tax of five dollars on every hundred dollars of the clear market value of such property, to be paid to the treasurer of the state of New Jersey for the use of the state, and all administrators, executors and trustees shall be liable for any and all such taxes until the same shall have been paid as hereinafter directed; provided, that an estate Proviso. which may be valued at a less sum than five hundred dollars shall not be subject to said duty or tax.

2. And be it enacted, That when any person shall bequeath or devise, convey, grant, sell or give as aforesaid any property, or interest therein, or income therefrom, to a father, mother, husband, wife, children, brother or sister, the widow of a son, or a lineal descendant, during life or for a term of years, and the remainder to a collateral heir of the decedent, or to a stranger in blood, or to a body politic or corporate, the property so passing shall be appraised immediately after the death of said testator or grantor, as the case may be, at what shall then be the fair market value thereof, in the manner hereinafter provided, and after deducting therefrom the value of said life estate, or term of years, the tax prescribed by this act on the remainder shall be immediately due and payable to the treasurer of the state of New Jersey, and, together with the interest thereon, shall be and remain a lien on said property until the same is paid; provided, that the person or persons, or body politic Property to be appraised and tax due immediately. or corporate beneficially interested in the property Proviso chargeable with tax, may elect not to pay the same until they shall come into the actual possession or enjoyment of such property, or, and in that case, such person or persons, or body politic or corporate, shall give a bond to the state of New Jersey in a penalty three times the amount of the tax arising upon personal estate, with such sureties as the chancellor or a justice of the supreme court may approve, conditioned for the payment of said tax and interest thereon, at such time or period as they or their representatives may come into the actual possession or enjoyment of such property, which bond shall be filed in the office of the clerk in chancery; provided further, that such person shall make a full verified return of such property to the chancellor of the state and file the same in the office of the clerk in chancery within one year from the death of the decedent, and within that period enter into such security and renew the same every five years.

Proviso.

Requests to executors exceeding reasonable compensation excess to be taxed.

3. And be it enacted, That whenever a decedent appoints or names one or more executors or trustees, and makes a bequest or devise of property to them in lieu of their commissions or allowances, which otherwise would be liable to said tax, or appoints them his residuary legatees, and said bequest, devises or residuary legacies exceed what would be a reasonable compensation for their services, such excess shall be liable to said tax, and the chancellor or the orphans' court having jurisdiction in the case shall fix such compensation.

Interest on tax.

4. And be it enacted, That all taxes imposed by this act, unless otherwise herein provided for, shall be due and payable at the death of the testator, grantor or intestate, as the case may be, and if the same are paid within one year, interest at the rate of six per centum per annum shall be charged and collected thereon, but if not so paid, interest at the rate of ten per centum per annum shall be charged and collected from the time said tax accrued; provided, that if said tax is paid within six months from the accruing thereof, interest shall not be charged or collected thereon, but a discount of five per centum shall be allowed and deducted from said tax; and in all cases where the executors, administrators or trustees do not pay such tax within one year from the death of the decedent, they shall be required to give a bond, in the form and to the effect prescribed in section two of this act, for the payment of said tax, together with interest.

5. And be it enacted, That the penalty of ten per centum per annum imposed by section four hereof for the non-payment of said tax shall not be charged, where in cases by reason of claims made upon the estate, necessary litigation or other unavoidable cause of delay, the estate of any decedent, or a part thereof, cannot be settled at the end of a year from the death of the decedent, and in such cases only six per centum per annum shall be charged upon the said tax from the expiration of such year until the cause of such delay is removed.

Part of penalty remitted where necessary litigation occurs.

6. And be it enacted, That any administrator, executor, or trustee having in charge or trust any legacy or property for distribution, subject to the said tax, shall deduct the tax therefrom, or if the legacy or property be not money, he shall collect the tax thereon upon the appraised value thereof from the legatee or person entitled to such property, and he shall not deliver, or be compelled to deliver, any specific legacy or property subject to tax to any person until he shall have collected the tax thereon; and whenever any such legacy shall be charged upon or payable out of real estate, the heir or devisee, before paying the same, shall deduct said tax therefrom, and pay the same to the executor, administrator or trustee, and the same shall remain a charge on such real estate until paid, and the payment thereof shall be enforced by the executor, administrator or trustee in the same manner that the payment of such legacy might be enforced; if, however, such legacy be given in money to any person for a limited period, he shall retain the tax upon the whole amount, but if it be not in money, he shall make application to the court having jurisdiction of his accounts, to make an apportionment, if the case require it, of the sum to be paid into his hands by such legatees, and for such further order relative thereto as the case may require.

Executors, &c., not to deliver legacies until tax is paid or deducted.

7. And be it enacted, That all executors, administrators and trustees shall have full power to sell so much of the property of the decedent as will enable them to pay said tax, in the same manner as they may be enabled by law to do for the payment of debts of their testators and intestates, and the amount of said tax shall be paid as hereinafter directed.

Executors have power to sell property.

Executors to pay tax to the state treasurer, taking his receipt

8. And be it enacted, That any sum of money retained by any executor, administrator or trustee, or paid into his hands for any tax or any property, shall be paid by him, within thirty days thereafter, to the treasurer of the state of New Jersey; and the said treasurer shall give, and every executor, administrator or trustee shall take duplicate receipts from him of such payment, one of which receipts he shall immediately send to the comptroller of the state, whose duty it shall be to charge the treasurer so receiving the tax with the amount thereof, and countersign the same and return it to the executor, administrator or trustee, whereupon it shall be a proper voucher in the settlement of his accounts, but an executor, administrator or trustee shall not be entitled to credit in his accounts, nor be discharged from liability for such tax unless he shall produce a receipt so countersigned by the comptroller, or a copy thereof certified by him.

Executors to give information to state treasurer

9. And be it enacted, That whenever any of the real estate of which any decedent may die seized shall pass to any body, politic or corporate, or to any person or persons other than the father, mother, husband, wife, lawful issue, wife or widow of a son, or husband of a daughter, or in trust for them, or some of them, it shall be the duty of the executors, administrators or trustees of such decedent to give information thereof in writing to the treasurer of the state within six months after they undertake the execution of their respective duties or, if the fact be not known to them within that period, then within one month after the same shall have come to their knowledge.

When proportion of tax may be refunded.

10. And be it enacted, That whenever any debts shall be proven against the estate of a decedent, after the payment of legacies or distribution of property from which the said tax has been deducted, or upon which it has been paid, and a refund is made by the legatee, devisee, heir or next of kin, a proportion of the tax so paid shall be repaid to him by the executor, administrator or trustee, if the said tax has not been paid to the state treasurer, or by them if it has been so paid.

11. And be it enacted, That whenever any foreign executor or administrator shall assign or transfer any stocks or loans in this state, standing in the name of a decedent, or in trust for a decedent which shall be liable to the said tax, such tax shall be paid to the state treasurer on the transfer thereof, otherwise the corporation permitting such transfer shall become liable to pay such tax; provided, that such corporation has knowledge before such transfer that said stocks or loans are liable to said tax. Assignments and transfers of stock

12. And be it enacted, That when any amount of said tax shall have been paid erroneously to the state treasurer, it shall be lawful for him, on satisfactory proof rendered to him of such erroneous payment, to refund and pay to the executor, administrator, person or persons who have paid any such tax in error, the amount of such tax so paid; provided, that all such applications for the repayment of such tax shall be made within two years from the date of such payment. Proviso.

13. And be it enacted, That in order to fix the value of property of persons whose estates shall be subject to the payment of said tax, the surrogate or ordinary, on the application of any interested party, or upon his own motion, shall appoint some competent person as appraiser as often as and whenever occasion may require, whose duty it shall be forthwith to give such notice by mail, and to such persons as the surrogate or ordinary may by order direct, of the time and place he will appraise such property, and at such time and place to appraise the same at its fair market value, and make a report thereof in writing to said surrogate or ordinary, together with such other facts in relation thereto as said surrogate or ordinary may by order require to be filed in the office of said surrogate or ordinary, and from this report the said surrogate or ordinary shall forthwith assess and fix the then cash value of all estates, annuities and life estates, or term of years growing out of said estates, and the tax to which the same is liable, and shall immediately give notice thereof by mail to the state treasurer and to all parties known to be interested therein; any person or persons dissatisfied with said appraisement or assessment may appeal there- Treasurer may refund.

Surrogates or ordinary to appoint appraisers.

Appeal from appraisement.

from to the ordinary or surrogate of the proper county, within sixty days after the making and filing of such assessment, or paying or giving security, approved by the ordinary or surrogate, to pay all costs, together with whatever tax shall be fixed by said court; the said appraiser shall be paid by the state treasurer out of any funds he may have in his hands on account of said tax, on the certificate of the ordinary or surrogate, at the rate of three dollars per day for every day actually and necessarily employed in said appraisement, together with his actual and necessary traveling expenses.

Pay of appraiser

Penalty for taking fee or reward.

14. And be it enacted, That any appraiser appointed by virtue of this act who shall take any fee or reward from any executor, administrator, trustee, legatee, next of kin or heir of any decedent, or from any other person liable to pay said tax or any portion thereof, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction in any court having jurisdiction of misdemeanors he shall be fined not less than two hundred and fifty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, and imprisonment not exceeding ninety days, and in addition thereto the ordinary or surrogate shall dismiss him from such service.

Jurisdiction of ordinary and surrogate.

15. And be it enacted, That the ordinary or the surrogate in the county in which the real property is situate of a decedent who was not a resident of the state, or in the county of which the decedent was a resident at the time of his death, shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine all questions in relation to the tax arising under the provisions of this act.

Proceedings when tax is not paid.

16. And be it enacted, That if it shall appear to the ordinary or surrogate that any tax accruing under this act has not been paid according to law, such officer shall issue a citation citing the persons interested in the property liable to the tax to appear before the ordinary or surrogate on a day certain, not more than three months after the date of such citation, and show cause why said tax should not be paid; the service of such citation and the time, manner and proof thereof and fees therefor, and the hearing and determination thereon, and the enforcement of the determination or decree shall conform to the provisions of the law for the service of citations now issued by the ordinary or surrogate, or issuing out of orphans' courts, and the hearing and determination thereon and its enforcement; and the ordinary or surrogate shall, upon the request of any prosecutor of the pleas or the state treasurer, furnish, without fee, one or more transcripts of such decree, and the same may be by them docketed and filed by the county clerk of any county in the state without fee, and the same shall have the same effect as a lien by judgment.

17. And be it enacted, That whenever the state treasurer shall have reason to believe that any tax is due and unpaid under this act, after the refusal or neglect of the persons interested in the property liable to said tax to pay the same, he shall notify the prosecutor of the pleas of the proper county, in writing, of such failure to pay such tax, and the prosecutor of the pleas so notified, if he have probable cause to believe a tax is due and unpaid, shall prosecute the proceeding before the ordinary or the surrogate in the proper county, as provided in section sixteen of this act, for the enforcement and collection of such tax; all costs awarded by such decree, that may be collected after the collection and payment of the tax to the state treasurer, may be retained by the prosecutor of the pleas for his own use.

State treasurer to notify prosecutors of pleas when tax is not paid.

18. And be it enacted, That the ordinary and the surrogate and county clerk of each county shall every three months make a statement, in writing, to the state treasurer of the property from which or the party from whom he has reason to believe a tax under this act is due and unpaid.

Reports of ordinary, surrogate and county clerk

19. And be it enacted, That whenever the surrogate of any county, or the ordinary, shall certify that there was probable cause for issuing a citation and taking the proceedings specified in section sixteen of this act, the state treasurer shall pay or allow to the proper officials all expenses incurred for services of citation and all other lawful disbursements that have not otherwise been paid.

Expenses paid by state treasurer.

20. And be it enacted, That the comptroller of the state shall furnish to the ordinary and to each surrogate a book in which he shall enter, or cause to be entered, the returns made by appraisers, the cash value of annuities, life estates and term of years, and other property fixed by him, and the tax assessed thereon, and the amounts of any receipts for payments thereon filed with him, which books shall be kept in the office of the ordinary or the surrogate as a public record.

Treasurer to report to comptroller.

21. And be it enacted, That the state treasurer shall collect all taxes that may be due and payable under this act, of which collection and payment he shall make a report, under oath, to the comptroller, on the first Monday in March and September of each year, stating for what estate paid and in such form, and containing such particulars as the comptroller may prescribe.

Persons entitled to a receipt.

22. And be it enacted, That any person or body politic or corporate shall, upon the payment of the sum of fifty cents at any time, be entitled to a receipt from the state treasurer for the payment of any tax paid under this act, which receipt shall designate on what real property, if any, of which any decedent may have died seized, said tax has been paid and by whom paid, and whether or not it is in full of said tax, and said receipt may be recorded in the clerk's office of the county in which said property is situate, in a book to be kept by said clerk for such purpose, which shall be labeled "collateral tax."

Collateral tax-book.

23. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 23, 1892.

CHAPTER CXXIII.

An Act concerning the government of certain cities in this state and constituting a municipal board of public works and other officers therein, and defining the powers and duties of such boards and relating to the municipal affairs and departments of such cities placed under the control and management of such board and providing for the maintenance of said board.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That in all cities in this state now or hereafter having within their territorial limits a population of not less than fifty thousand nor more than one hundred thousand inhabitants, the mayor thereof shall within one month after this act shall take effect, appoint five suitable persons, residents of such city, to be known as the board of public works of such city, not more than three of whom shall be members of the same political party, one for the term of one year, one for the term of two years, one for the term of three years, one for the term of four years, one for the term of five years, all from the date of their appointment hereunder; and that at the expiration of the term of service of each member of said board, others shall be appointed in the place of those whose terms expire, in the same manner for the term of five years each; any vacancy arising in the office of member of such board shall be filled by appointment in the same manner, for the unexpired term only; that each of the members of said board shall devote such time and attention to the faithful performance of the duties of his office as the welfare of the public works or municipal departments, and the affairs under the government, control and management of such board may require; that the members of such board, so appointed as aforesaid, shall constitute and be called "the board of public works of the city of———" (name of the city in and for which

An Act concerning appeals from district courts in this state.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That from any judgment obtained in any district court established by law in any city of this state, whether by general or special statute, where the debt, demand or matter in dispute, exclusive of costs, be for a sum not less than twenty-five dollars, except judgment given by confession, either party may appeal, both as to matter of law and fact, to the court of common pleas of the county to be holden next after the rendering of such judgment; which appeal the judge of said district court is hereby directed to grant in the same manner as appeals are now had and taken in the court for the trial of small causes; provided always, that no appeal shall be granted to remove any judgment entered against the party demanding the appeal, for any amount beyond the costs of suit, where such judgment shall have been rendered on the verdict of a jury, or on the report of referees, unless the party shall, at the time of taking the same, file an affidavit made by the party, or in his absence by his agent, stating that the said appeal is not intended for the purpose of delay, and that the affiant verily believes that the appellant hath a just and legal ground of appeal upon the merits of the case: which affidavit shall be sent up to the court to which the appeal is taken, with the other papers in the cause.

Judgment may be appealed to court of common pleas.

Judge of district court to grant appeal.

Proviso.

2. And be it enacted, That the causes thus appealed to the said courts of common pleas shall be tried de novo in said courts, and that the taxed costs in said courts of common pleas upon said appeals shall be the same as those now allowed by law in the trial of appeals from the courts for the trial of small causes in said courts, except that there shall be allowed as the attorney's fee, to the prevailing party, to be taxed therein, the sum of five dollars, in all causes where the judgment appealed from does not exceed one hundred dollars, and ten dollars in causes where the judgment appealed from exceeds the sum of one hundred dollars.

Time for taking appeal.

3. And be it enacted, That all appeals under this act shall be taken within five days from the rendering of the judgment, and that they shall be put on the list for trial at the first term of the court of common pleas to which the same shall be appealed; provided, however, that if said appeal is taken within the five days prior to the beginning of such term, in that case the said appeal shall be put on the list for trial at the next term thereafter.

Proviso.

Repealer.

4. And be it enacted, That all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act be and the same are hereby repealed, and this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 24, 1892.

CHAPTER CLI.

An Act authorizing towns and townships which are adjacent to a city in the same county to lay out, open and construct a road or street connecting with a road or street in such adjoining city.

Towns or townships adjacent to cities in the same county allowed to lay out, open and construct roads or streets connecting with such city.

Proviso.

Council or town committee to adopt resolution by a two third vote.

Commissioners.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That where any town or township of this state is or may be situated adjacent to a city in the same county, it shall be lawful for, and full power and authority is hereby vested in, the council or town committee of any such town or township in the manner hereinafter provided to lay out, open and construct a road or street and such branches thereof as may be deemed advisable, in and through such town or township, or some portion thereof, to and into the territory of such adjoining city, so as to make a safe and convenient connection of such road or street with a road or street in such adjoining city; provided, however, that it shall not be lawful to change or disturb the grade or alter the lines of any road or street in any such adjoining city without the consent of the proper municipal authorities thereof.

2. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the council or town committee of any such town or township at any time, by the votes of two-thirds of the members thereof, to pass or adopt a resolution setting forth that in their judgment the interests of such town or township require additional or better facilities for reaching such adjoining city and that it is advisable to lay out, open and construct a road or street to connect with a road or street in such adjoining city, and at any time after the passage or adoption of such resolution the said council or town committee may by resolution, passed or adopted in the usual manner, appoint three commissioners who shall be residents and freeholders of such town or township and who shall perform and discharge the duties set forth and mentioned in the next succeeding section of this act; said council or town committee shall also appoint a competent surveyor to assist said commissioners; in case of the death, resignation, neglect or refusal to serve or removal from the town or township of or by any of the commissioners so appointed, the vacancy or vacancies so created may be filled by appointment in like manner by the council or town committee; each of said commissioners, before entering upon the discharge of the duties imposed upon him by this act, shall make and file with the clerk of such town or township an oath or affirmation that he will faithfully and impartially and to the best of his ability and understanding perform the duties imposed upon him by this act.

make an assessment of the total cost of construction, estimated as aforesaid, as follows: they shall assess upon the town or township at large an amount equal to thirty per centum of such estimated total cost, and the residue of such estimated total cost they shall assess, as far as practicable, upon the lots and parcels of land in such town or township which will be specially benefited in proportion to the benefit which each lot or parcel will receive, and no lot or parcel shall be assessed more than it will be so specially benefited, and if the aggregate amount of such probable assessable special benefits shall be less than the said residue of the estimated total cost of construction, the excess of such cost shall be assessed upon the town or township at large; they shall make a schedule which shall accompany their said map, in which they shall set forth the letter or number of each lot or parcel of land assessed, the names of the owners thereof so far as the same can be ascertained by them, and the amount of probable assessment for special benefits thereon; the said commissioners shall make report in writing to the council or township committee of the facts and matters ascertained by them, and of the determinations, estimates, appraisements and assessments made by them, which report shall be accompanied by the surveys, maps, plans and schedules by them made.

4. And be it enacted, That upon receiving such report the town council or committee shall file the same with the clerk of the town or township, and shall, by resolution, appoint the time and place when and where they will meet to consider the same and all objections in writing that may be presented thereto, which time shall not be less than six weeks from the time of the adoption of such resolution; and it shall be the duty of the town clerk to publish in at least two newspapers published in the county in which such town or township is situated, for at least three weeks successively next preceding the time designated in said resolution, at least once in each week, notices setting forth that the report, maps, schedules, assessments, determinations and estimates of the commissioners have been filed with him, and specifying the time when and the place where the town council or committee will meet to consider the same, and all objections thereto that may be presented in writing; such notices shall also designate the limits in such town or township within which the lots or parcels of land assessed are included; said town clerk shall also post printed copies of such notices in at least fifty conspicuous places in such town or township, at least fifteen days prior to the time designated in the resolution aforesaid; the owner of any lands shown on the assessment map and schedule of the said commissioners shall have the right to file with the town clerk objections in writing to the construction of such road or street, and branches thereof, at or before the time appointed in and by the resolution aforesaid; at the time and place appointed by such resolution, the council or town committee shall meet, and the town clerk shall lay before them all objections in writing which shall have been filed with him, and thereupon the council or township committee shall proceed to consider the report of the said commissioners and the objections thereto; and at any time thereafter the council or town committee may, by the votes of a majority of the members thereof, pass or adopt a resolution confirming the report of said commissioners; provided, however, that no resolution confirming such report shall be passed or adopted and no road or street shall be built or constructed if it appear that the owners of lands assessed for more than one-half of the aggregate assessable special benefits (excluding amounts assessed upon the town or township) have objected thereto.

5. And be it enacted, That at any time after the adoption of the resolution confirming the report of said commissioners as aforesaid, the said council or town committee may acquire by purchase and may accept donations and dedications of lands, improvements, right of way and other easements required in the construction of such road or street and branches thereof, whether the same be within such town or township or in such adjoining city, and in case said council or town committee shall not be able to acquire by agreement with or purchase from the owner or owners thereof, the lands, improvements, right of way and other easements necessary for such road or street and branches thereof, or when by reason of absence or legal incapacity of such owner or owners, or any of them such agreement or purchase cannot be made, a particular description of the lands, improvements, right of way and other easements required shall be given in writing by said council or town committee, and also the name or names of the occupants if any, and of the owners if known, and their residences if the same can be ascertained, to one of the justices of the supreme court of this state, who shall cause said council or town committee to give notice thereof to the persons interested if known and in this state, or if unknown and out of this state to make publication thereof, as he shall direct for any term not less than ten days, and to assign a particular time and place for the appointment of the commissioners hereinafter named, at which time, upon satisfactory evidence to him of the service or publication of such notice aforesaid, he shall appoint under his hand and seal three judicious disinterested and impartial freeholders, residents in the county in which such town or township is situated, commissioners to examine and appraise the said lands, improvements, right of way and easements and to assess the damages, upon such notice to be given to the persons interested as shall be directed by the justice making such appointment, to be expressed therein, not less than ten days, and it shall be the duty of said commissioners (having first taken and subscribed an oath faithfully and impartially to examine the matter in question and to make a true report according to the best of their skill and understanding) to meet at the time and place appointed and examine the lands, improvements, right of way and easements required to be taken and to make a just and equitable assessment or appraisal of the value of the same and an assessment of the damages to be paid by the said town or township; they shall make report in writing under their hands and seals, or under the hands and seals of any two of them, and shall file the same together with the aforesaid description of the lands, improvements, right of way and easements and the appointment and oaths or affirmations aforesaid, in the clerk's office of the county in which town or township is situated, to remain of record therein, and thereupon and on payment or tender of payment of the amount awarded as hereinafter provided, the said town or township is hereby empowered to enter upon and take possession of the said lands, improvements, right of way and easements for the purposes aforesaid, and the said report or a copy thereof certified by the clerk of the said county and proof of payment and tender of the amount awarded, shall at all times be considered as plenary evidence of the right of such town or township to have, hold, use, occupy, possess and enjoy the said lands, improvements, right of way and easements, whether the same be situated in such town or township or in such adjoining city, and the said justice of the supreme court shall, on application of either party and on reasonable notice to the other, tax and allow such costs, fees and expenses to the justices of the supreme court, commissioners, clerks and other persons performing any of the duties prescribed in this section as he may think equitable and right, which shall be paid by such town or township; provided that should any such town or town- Proviso. ship, or the owner or owners of any of the lands, improvements, right of way or easements, feel aggrieved by the decision of the commissioners aforesaid, it, he or they may appeal to the next circuit court in the county where such town or township is situate.

6. And be it enacted, That every appeal from the decision of the commissioners appointed under the last preceding section shall be made in writing and in the form of a petition to said court and filed with the clerk of the said circuit court of the county wherein such town or township is situate, and notice in writing of such appeal shall be given to the opposite party within ten days after the filing thereof; which proceeding shall vest in the Appeal to circuit court. circuit court full right and power to hear and adjudge the same and to direct a proper issue for the trial of said controversy to be found between the said parties, and to order a jury to be struck and a view of the premises to be had, and the said issue to be tried at the next term of said court to be holden in the said county, upon the like notice and in the same manner as other issues in the Trial by jury. said court are tried; and it shall be the duty of the said Jury to assess value. jury to assess the value of the said lands, improvements, right of way and easements taken and the damages sustained, and if they shall find a greater sum than the said commissioners shall have awarded in favor of the said owner or owners, then judgment thereon, with costs, shall be entered against said town or township and execution awarded therefor; but if the said jury shall be applied for by the owner or owners and shall find a less sum than the said town or township shall have offered or the said commissioners shall have awarded, then said costs shall be paid by the said applicant or applicants and either deducted out of said sum found by the said jury or execution awarded therefor, as the said court shall direct; but such application shall not prevent the said town or township from taking the said lands, improvements, right of way and easements upon filing the aforesaid report; provided, that in no case shall said town or township enter upon or take possession of any lands, improvements, right of way or easements until they have paid or tendered to the party or parties entitled to receive the same the amount assessed by the commissioners as the value of such lands, improvements, right of way and easements or damages, in case the report of said commissioners is not appealed from, or if the same is appealed from, then the amount which shall be found by the jury by whom the issue shall be tried; but in case the party or parties entitled to receive the amount assessed by the commissioners, in case there be no appeal, and in case of appeal the amount found by the jury, shall refuse upon tender thereof being made to receive the same, or shall be out of the state or under any legal disability, then the payment of the amount assessed or found as aforesaid, into the circuit court of the said county shall be deemed a valid and legal payment; and further, that the party or parties entitled to receive the amount assessed by the commissioners may upon tender thereof being made receive the same without being barred thereby from his or their appeal from the report of the commissioners, and on such tender or payment of the money into court, in case it shall be refused as aforesaid, the said town or township shall be empowered to enter upon and take possession of said lands, improvements, right of way and easements, whether the same be within the limits of such town or township or within the limits of such adjoining city.

12. And be it enacted, That no writ of certiorari or other writ or process shall be allowed or issued out of or by any court of this state to review the proceedings for laying out and constructing said road or street after the contract therefor shall have been awarded, and no such writ or process shall be allowed to review any assessment of the cost of laying out, opening and constructing such road or street, after thirty days shall have elapsed from the time of confirmation of such assessment.

13. And be it enacted, That all moneys received for assessments made under this act shall be held and appropriated for the payment and redemption of bonds and improvement certificates issued under this act, and of such bonds issued to redeem maturing bonds as may be issued under this act, and shall be used for no other purpose whatsoever.

14. And be it enacted, That the council or town committee of said town or township shall have the power to issue bonds of such town or township to raise moneys to pay and redeem any improvement certificate issued under this act, which bonds shall bear interest at not exceeding the rate of six per centum per annum and shall not run exceeding ten years, and shall not be sold for less than their par value.

15. And be it enacted, That it shall not be necessary for the council or town committee of such town or township to obtain the consent of the municipal authorities of any adjoining city to extend the road or street herein authorized to be constructed over the territory of such city and to connect with a road or street therein, except as provided in the first section of this act.

When necessary to obtain consent of adjacent city to extend road or street.

CHAPTER CLXXXV.

An Act to enable the board of chosen freeholders of any of the several counties of this state to construct and reconstruct bridges over and across navigable rivers or streams therein, in certain cases, and providing for the regulation thereof.

Boards of chosen freeholders authorized to reconstruct or construct new bridges over rivers or streams

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That whenever, in any county of this state, any draw or other bridge of such county, under the operation and control of the board of chosen freeholders thereof, extending or stretching over and across any navigable river or stream in such county, shall be in a state of dilapidation or decay, and such board shall deem the reconstruction of the same or the construction of a new bridge to take the place of such bridge in such state of dilapidation or decay a public necessity, and shall so declare at a regular meeting, by resolution, adopted by an affirmative vote of not less than a majority of all the members of such board, then and in that case such board may, by resolution to be adopted in like manner, order and provide for and proceed with the construction and reconstruction of such bridge, with the draw or draws and all the necessary apparatus, appliances and things required therefor; provided, the entire cost and expense thereof shall not exceed the sum of one hundred thousand dollars. Provided.

2. And be it enacted, That to defray and meet such cost and expense such board of chosen freeholders are hereby authorized to issue bonds of such county, in the proper corporate name and under the corporate seal thereof, for such sum or sums of money as may be needed; provided, the total sum, exclusive of interest to be paid on such bonds, shall not exceed said sum of one hundred thousand dollars; said bonds so authorized to be issued shall be signed by the director or director at large of such board of chosen freeholders, and the county collector of the county, and shall state upon the face thereof for what purpose the same are made and issued; they shall be issued in sums of not exceeding one thousand dollars each, and bear interest not exceeding four and one-half per centum per annum; they shall run for and be made due and payable at such time or times, not exceeding thirty years from the date of issue, as the said board shall by resolution determine at the time of ordering the issue thereof, and a provision for meeting or redeeming the same as they become due and payable shall be made at such times; every year so long as said bonds are outstanding provision shall be made by appropriation of money to meet and pay a portion thereof; they shall be payable, principal as well as interest, at the office of such county collector; such bonds shall be sold at not less than par value, upon bids duly advertised for or otherwise; same may be either registered or coupon bonds, or both, and coupon bonds may be exchanged for registered bonds and vice versa, at the request of the holder; provided, such board shall first consent to such exchange. To issue bonds. Provided.

Contracts.

Plans and specifications.

Security on contract.

Board may impose other requirements.

Rules and regulations.

Proviso.

Repealer.

8. And be it enacted, That the work of the construction or reconstruction of such bridge, so as aforesaid provided for, shall be done by contract or contracts to be awarded therefor to the lowest bidder, upon bids or proposals to be invited by advertisements published in not less than two newspapers circulating in such county, for not less than two weeks previous to the time fixed for the receipt of such bids; the plans and specifications for such bridge shall be on exhibition at the office of such board for a like period of time; any bid or part of a bid may be rejected if deemed for the best interest of the county to do so; security by bond or like obligation shall be required for the faithful performance of such contracts in a sum of not less than fifty per centum of the same, and in no instance shall less than two sufficient sureties be required, who shall be freeholders owning lands and real estate in such county, and affidavit thereof shall be attached to such bonds; said board may impose such other requirements by exaction from the bidders for the work of a deposit of money or a certified check, or otherwise, to secure faithful performance of such contracts and proper protection of the interests of the county in matters relating thereto as may be deemed prudent.

4. And be it enacted, That such board may adopt such rules and regulations for the operation or working of such bridge and the persons employed thereat, as shall be reasonable and proper; provided, the same shall not abridge the right to navigate such rivers or streams as the same now exists, but it is hereby expressly provided that in the reconstruction and construction aforesaid, whenever it shall be necessary to close the bridge and stop travel over the same, that may be done, and the county shall not be liable for any damages, injury, loss or expense which may be claimed therefor or by reason thereof.

5. And be it enacted, That all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act be and the same are hereby repealed, and this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 28, 1892.

CHAPTER CLXXXVI.

A Further Supplement to an act entitled "An act concerning roads" (Revision), approved March twenty-seventh, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

Supervising committee of erection.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That whenever any monument association incorporated under and by virtue of the act to which this is a supplement shall have raised the sum of five thousand dollars, by voluntary contributions or otherwise, towards the erection of a county monument to commemorate the victories of the armies of the United States or of New Jersey soldiers and sailors (from said county particularly) during our late war, the board of chosen freeholders of the county in which said monument is to be erected, or the common council of the city or town in which the same is to be located, or both, may appropriate a sum not exceeding together twice said amount so raised for the erection of such monument; provided, that no part of such appropriation or appropriations shall be paid over or expended until said association shall have cash in the hands of its treasurer equal to at least fifty per centum of such appropriation or appropriations, and he shall have given bond in at least double the amount of both said contributions and appropriations.

2. And be it enacted, That any part of the money so raised or appropriated may be expended in the purchase of land for a site for such county monument, but the title of such land shall be vested in said county.

3. And be it enacted, That any monument erected by moneys raised and appropriated as aforesaid shall be located and erected under the supervision of a joint committee of ten members, of whom five shall be members of such board of chosen freeholders and five members of such monument association, and approved by said board.

4. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 29, 1892.

CHAPTER CCVIII.

An Act to legalize sales in certain cases.

WHEREAS, Custom and usage serves to draw the people of the agricultural districts to the chief towns in their respective counties on Saturday afternoons; and whereas, the rule established by custom in agricultural localities of holding public sales of real and personal property on Saturday has benefited both buyers and sellers, and conserved the public interest; therefore, Preamble.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That hereafter each and every sale of real and personal property made by any public officer, or by any citizen of this state on any Saturday, shall in all respects be as valid and legal as though such sale was made on any day on which it is now lawful to sell and transfer real estate, and that no such sale shall be void or illegal on account of it having been made on a Saturday. Legalizes sales of lands made on Saturday.

2. And be it enacted, That all acts or parts of acts, inconsistent or repugnant to the provision of this act, be and they are hereby repealed and abrogated in so far as they disagree or conflict with the provisions of this act. Repealer.

3. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER CCXV.

A Supplement to an act entitled "An act to provide for the more permanent improvement of the public roads of this state," approved April fourteenth, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one.

Section to be amended

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That the first section of the act to which this is a supplement be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows.

Freeholders may make macadamized roads

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That whenever the board of chosen freeholders of any county in this state shall, by resolution, have declared their intention to cause any particular road or section thereof within such county to be improved under the provisions of this act such board shall cause all necessary surveys to be made and specifications to be prepared; the specifications shall require the construction of a macadamized road, or a telford or other stone road, that will, at all seasons of the year, be firm, smooth and convenient for travel; shall be so prepared as to call for bids from which an approximate estimate of the cost can be ascertained, and shall state the amount of security that will be required of the bidder; after said specifications shall have been prepared they shall be submitted to the board of chosen freeholders, and if such board shall approve them they shall then be submitted to the president of the state board of agriculture, and if he shall approve them it shall then be the duty of the director of the board of chosen freeholders to advertise in at least two daily newspapers, printed and circulated in the county for the period of two weeks, or if there be not two daily newspapers printed and circulating in such county, then in at least two weekly newspapers printed and circulating therein, for at least four weeks, for bids to do the work according to the specifications prepared; such advertisements shall state where bidders may find the specifications and shall name a time and place where the board of chosen freeholders, or a committee of five members thereof, of whom the director shall be one, will meet to receive bids; every such bid shall be accompanied with the bidders' bond in a sum of one thousand dollars, with security satisfactory to the board, conditioned that if the contract shall be awarded to him he will, when required by the board, execute an agreement in writing to perform the work according to the specifications; no bids shall be received by the board or any member thereof, or by said committee or any member thereof, except at such meeting, and all bids then received shall be immediately publicly read; if the bids shall be received by a committee of the board, they shall be reported to the board at the next meeting thereof with the recommendation of the committee; the board may reject all bids if in their opinion good cause exist therefor, but otherwise they shall award the contract to the lowest bidder, who shall give satisfactory evidence of his ability to perform the contract; provided, Bids to do the work. however, that the estimated amount of contracts awarded in any one year by any board of chosen freeholders shall not exceed one-half of one per centum of the ratables of the county as reported to the state comptroller for the last preceding year; the bidder to whom the contract may be awarded shall, in addition to executing the agreement to perform the work according to the specifications, also Proviso.

execute to the board of chosen freeholders a bond, conditioned for the faithful performance of the contract, in the sum specified in the advertisement for bids, and with such sureties as the board may approve; the contract shall, on behalf of the board of chosen freeholders, be executed by the director thereof, and when executed by the bidder and said director, a copy of the contract, with the estimated cost of the work, shall be forthwith filed with the president of the state board of agriculture.

Section to be amended.

2. And be it enacted, That the second section of said act be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

Governor to appoint supervisor of the construction of the work.

2. And be it enacted, That after a copy of the contract shall be filed with the president of the state board of agriculture as aforesaid, the governor shall, as soon as practicable, appoint a supervisor of the construction of the work under such contract, who shall receive for his services under this act five dollars per day, to be paid out of the county treasury; he shall supervise all work done under the contract, shall give his whole time thereto, shall require the provisions of the contract to be strictly adhered to by the contractor, and when the contract provides for partial payments during the progress of the work shall, as each payment becomes due and before payment shall be made, present to the board his certificate, and also the certificate of the surveyor or engineer, if any there be, stating as near as may be the total amount of work done, and that such work has been done in all respects as required by the contract; the board shall thereupon direct payment to be made by the county collector; provided, that, no partial payment made during the progress of the work shall exceed eighty per centum of the estimated value of the work done; the board shall have power to borrow on temporary loans on the credit of the county such sums of money for the purpose of carrying on such work as may from time to time become necessary; and when the work shall be fully completed and such fact certified to the board, and to their satisfaction, by the supervisor and surveyor or engineer, if any there be, payment in full shall be made.

Section to be amended.

3. And be it enacted, That the third section of said act be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

3. And be it enacted, That when the work under any contract shall be fully completed it shall be the duty of the supervisor to prepare a detailed and itemized statement, in duplicate, of the cost of the improvement, one copy whereof shall be filed with the board of chosen freeholders and one with the president of the state board of agriculture. Itemized statement of cost.

4. And be it enacted, That the fourth section of said act be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows: Section to be amended.

4. And be it enacted, That one-third of the cost of all roads constructed in this state under this act shall be paid for out of the state treasury; provided, that the amount so paid shall not in any one year exceed the sum of seventy-five thousand dollars; if one-third of said cost shall exceed said sum, the said seventy-five thousand dollars shall be apportioned by the governor and the president of the state board of agriculture amongst the counties of the state in proportion to the cost of roads constructed therein for such year, as shown by the statements of costs filed in the office of the president of the state board of agriculture; the governor and said president of the state board of agriculture shall, between December fifteenth and thirty-first in each year, certify to the state comptroller the amount to be paid to each county for such year, and the state comptroller shall thereupon draw his warrants in favor of the respective county collectors for the sums certified as aforesaid, upon the state treasurer, who shall pay the same out of any moneys in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated. One-third of the cost to be paid by the state, provided that not more than $75,000 per year is paid by the state.

Apportion amount to each county.

5. And be it enacted, That the seventh section of said act be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows: Section to be amended.

7. And be it enacted, That whenever there shall be presented to the board of chosen freeholders of any county a petition signed by the owners of at least two-thirds of the lands and real estate fronting or bordering on any public road or section of road in such county, not being less than one mile in length, praying the board to cause such road or section to be improved under this act, and setting forth that they are willing that the peculiar benefits conferred on the lands fronting or bordering on said road or section shall be assessed thereon, in propor- Duty of board when petition is presented for improving road.

Proviso.

tion to the benefits conferred, to an amount not exceeding ten per centum of the entire cost of the improvement, it shall be the duty of the board to cause such improvement to be made; provided, that the estimated cost of all improvements made under this act in any county in any one year shall not exceed one-half of one per centum of the ratables of such county for the last preceding year; it shall not be necessary for the board in such case to declare by resolution their intention to cause such improvement to be made, but they shall first cause all necessary surveys of such road or section to be made, and specifications for a macadam, telford or other equally good stone road to be prepared, and shall then proceed in the same manner as is hereinbefore required in cases where such intention has been declared; if the specifications shall not be approved by the board, or by the president of the state board of agriculture, or if all the bids for the work shall be rejected, it shall be the duty of the board to cause other specifications to be prepared, or re-advertisements for bids to be made, as often as may be necessary, and until a contract shall be awarded, to the end that the improvement prayed for may be completed with reasonable speed; provided, however, that no re-advertisement need be made where the lowest bid submitted shows that the improvement prayed for cannot be made within the limit of expenditure hereinafter mentioned; in every case where a contract shall be awarded after the presentation of such petition as aforesaid the board of chosen freeholders, instead of certifying to the county board of assessors two-thirds of the estimated cost of the work, as prescribed by the fifth section of this act, shall certify two-thirds of said estimated cost, less one-tenth of said estimated cost, which sum the county board of assessors shall include in their assessment of county taxes.

Proviso.

Duties of commissioner of agriculture if appointed.

6. And be it enacted, That if at any time hereafter the office of commissioner of agriculture shall be established in this state, then the duties imposed upon and powers vested in the president of the state board of agriculture by this supplement shall thereafter be imposed upon and vested in the commissioner of agriculture instead of the president of the state board of agriculture.

7. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 29, 1892.

3. And be it enacted, That the financial officer of said city, town, township or other municipality shall enter the claims in a book kept for that purpose by him, called the "lien book;" such entry shall contain the name and residence of the claimant, the name of the contractor, the amount and date of the filing, and a brief designation of the contract upon which the claim is made.

4. And be it enacted, That no lien provided for in this act shall be binding upon the property therein described, unless an action be commenced within ninety days from the filing of the same, and a notice of pendency of said action be filed with the financial officer of said city, town, township or other municipality.

5. And be it enacted, That the lien shall attach from the time of filing thereof to the extent of the liability of the contractor for the claim preferred upon any funds which may be due or to grow due to said contractor from said city, town, township or other municipality under the contract against which the lien is filed. Lien to attach from time of filing.

6. And be it enacted, That any claimant who has filed the notice mentioned in the second section of this act, may enforce his claim against the said fund therein designated and against the person or persons liable to the debt by a civil action; actions to determine or terminate said liens may be commenced by the contractor or said city, town, township or other municipality in any court of competent jurisdiction. Actions to enforce claims.

7. And be it enacted, That the plaintiff must make all parties who have filed claims, the contractor and the said city, town, township or other municipality, parties defendant, and as to all parties against whom no personal claim is made, the plaintiff may, with the summons, serve a notice stating briefly the object of the action, and that no personal claim is made; but all parties who have filed claims under this act may, by answer in such action, set forth the same, and the court in which the action is brought may decide as to the extent, justice and priority of the claims of all parties to the action. Who are defendants. Court to decide upon priority of claims.

8. And be it enacted, That the court in which the action is brought shall determine the validity of the lien, the amount due from the debtor to the contractor under his contract, and from the contractor to the respective claimants, and shall render judgment, directing that the said city, town, township or other municipality shall pay over to the claimants for the work done and the materials furnished in the execution of said contract or contracts, whose claims or liens it shall hold to be valid and just, in the order of their priority as determined by said court to the extent of the sum found due to said claimants from the contractor, so much of said funds or money which may be due from the said city, town, township or To render judgment.

To be enforced by execution.

How rights and priorities to be determined.

9. And be it enacted, That in case of a number of liens in favor of different persons, their rights and priorities shall be determined as follows: persons standing in equal degrees as co-laborers or persons furnishing materials shall have priority according to the date of the filing of their liens; but laborers shall have a lien prior to other liens, upon filing their notices any time before payments are due and made, when several lien notices are filed for the same demand, the judgment shall provide for the proper payments according to priority, so that under liens filed, double payments shall not be required.

Separate actions may be consolidated.

10. And be it enacted, That when separate actions are commenced, the court in which the first action was brought may upon the application of said city, town, township or other municipality consolidate them.

Costs in action.

11. And be it enacted, That costs in all actions shall rest in the discretion of the court and shall be awarded to or against the plaintiff or defendants, or any or either of them, as may be just.

Personal action may be maintained.

12. And be it enacted, That nothing contained in this act shall be constructed to impair or affect the right of any person to whom any debt may be due for work done or materials furnished, to maintain a personal action to recover such debt against the person liable therefor.

How lien may be discharged.

13. And be it enacted, That the lien may be discharged as follows: first, by filing a certificate of the claimant or his successor in interest, duly acknowledged and proved, stating that the lien is discharged; second, by lapse of time, when ninety days have elapsed since the filing of the claim and no action shall have been commenced to enforce the claim; third, by satisfaction of any judgment that may be rendered in actions to foreclose said liens or claims.

14. And be it enacted, That the term "contractor" as used in this act, shall be construed as meaning the person with whom the contract with the said city, town, township or other municipality is made, his assigns or legal representatives. Construction of term "contractor."

15. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately; but nothing herein contained shall affect the validity of any claims or liens upon moneys due or to grow due under contracts made by cities, towns, townships or other municipalities in this state prior to its passage; all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the terms of this act are hereby repealed. CHAPTER CCXLIX.

An Act concerning the docketing of judgments recovered in the courts for the trial of small causes in the state of New Jersey.

Docketing of judgments.

Statement, what to contain.

Proviso.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That final judgments of courts for the trial of small causes in any county in this state, if not less than ten dollars, including costs, remain due on such judgments, may be docketed in the court of common pleas in that county, and that in docketing any judgments from the courts for the trial of small causes in any county in this state, it shall only be necessary to file with the clerk of the court of common pleas a statement signed by the justice of the peace before whom the said judgment was recovered in the court for the trial of small causes, under his hand and seal, which statement shall only be required to contain the names of the justice before whom such judgment was obtained, and the names of the parties, the amount and date of judgment, and the date of issue and return of the execution, if any, and it shall not be necessary before obtaining such statement for docketing from the justice of the peace, that execution on the judgment shall issue out of and be returned unsatisfied unto the court where judgment was rendered, and that said statement may be made and taken at any time after judgment in the court for the trial of small causes, and be of the same force and effect as if execution had been issued and returned as now required by law; provided, however, that an affidavit of the plaintiff, or his attorney, shall be filed with the clerk of the court of common pleas with said statement setting forth that the said judgment about to be docketed is bona fide, and is still due and unpaid, in whole or in part; and that the fee of the clerk of the court of common pleas for filing said statement and docketing said judgment will be one dollar, and the fee of the justice of the peace for issuing said statement shall be fifty cents, and that any judgment docketed as aforesaid shall operate as a judgment in a suit originally commenced in said court of common pleas to the same extent as now provided by law.

2 And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved April 4, 1892.

CHAPTER CCL.

A Supplement to an act entitled "An act to create county boards of license commissioners and to define their powers and duties," approved March twentieth, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That it shall be lawful for the county board of license commissioners to grant transfers of licenses which shall have been granted by said board, and to grant licenses for the fractional parts of a year at the same rate of license fee per annum fixed by the said board, upon the same terms and conditions as are now, or which may be hereafter, required by any ordinance or ordinances passed by any board of excise commissioners created by ordinance of the city council or other governing body of any city, under and by virtue of an act of the legislature of this state entitled "An act to establish an excise department in cities of this state," approved April eighth, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, as amended June first, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, or where there are no city excise boards, and the city council thereof have power to grant licenses, then, under such terms and conditions as said city council thereof grants transfers of licenses.

Fee of secretary. 2. And be it enacted, That the secretary be entitled to receive the sum of five dollars for each license to be paid by the applicant when petition is filed.

Repealer. 3. And be it enacted, That all acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith be and the same are hereby repealed, and that this act take effect immediately.

Approved April 4th, 1892.

CHAPTER CCLI

A Supplement to an act entitled "An act for the formation and government of boroughs," approved April second, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one.

*Duties of
boroughs.*

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That in all boroughs which are or hereafter may be incorporated under the act to which this act is a supplement, the assessors shall, within said boroughs, possess the like powers and perform the like duties as assessors of the several townships of this state, and they shall, on or before the third Tuesday of August in each year, deliver the duplicate of such assessment to the mayor and council for revision, addition and correction, as provided by law, and said assessor shall be a member of the county board of assessors of the county within which said borough is situated.

Duties of collectors.

2. And be it enacted, That the collector, within the limits of said borough, shall possess and perform the like powers and duties as the collectors of the several townships in this state, and in addition thereto he shall collect, have, hold and receive all moneys assessed or raised by taxation or assessment for any and all purposes within the borough, and also all fees for licenses, fines, penalties and other moneys in any way belonging to the borough, and which said taxes, assessments and moneys of every kind and nature, except only school moneys, shall be held by said collector and be paid out by him only upon the warrant of the mayor and council, signed by the mayor, attested by the borough clerk with the corporate seal affixed, which said warrant shall, among other things, state the fund against which drawn, and be dated the day upon which the same was ordered issued by the mayor and council; provided, however, that it shall not be lawful for the mayor and council to order warrants drawn on the collector, except at a regular meeting or an adjourned regular meeting, and that all meetings of the mayor and council shall be held within the borough. Proviso.

3. And be it enacted, That there shall be apportioned to the borough by the proper officers, of which the borough assessor shall be one, in the manner provided by the act entitled "An act concerning taxes," approved April fourteenth, one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, and the various supplements thereto, the just proportion of the state and county taxes to be raised within the borough, which tax shall be assessed and collected by the borough assessor and collector, respectively, and shall be paid to the county collector by the borough collector under the warrant of the mayor and council. Taxes to be assessed and collected by assessor and collector.

4. And be it enacted, That the school taxes to be levied, assessed, and collected, within said borough, shall be levied, assessed and collected by the borough assessor and collector, respectively, and said collector shall receive and hold the school moneys so collected, within said borough, in trust, to be paid out on the order of the district clerk or treasurer of the school district, or school borough, in the manner provided by the act entitled "An act to establish a system of public instruction," approved March twenty-seventh, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four. Assessment and collection of school tax.

5. And be it enacted, That all taxes shall be and become due and payable on the day, in each year, fixed by law in the county wherein such borough is situated, and that in case any taxes so assessed or levied upon or on account of any real estate, shall be and remain due, unpaid and in arrear, for the space of six months after such day, then and in that case it shall be the duty of the mayor and council to cause the same to be collected by issuing When taxes are due.

their warrant to the borough collector for the sale of the lands or real estate on account of which such taxes were so levied and assessed, in the same manner and to the same effect, in all things, as provided in and by an act entitled "A further act concerning taxes, making the same a first lien on real estate, and to authorize sales for the payment of the same," approved March fourteenth, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, and the several supplements thereto.

Repealer.

6. And be it enacted, That all acts and parts of acts, both general and special, inconsistent with the provisions of this act, be and the same are hereby repealed, and that this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved April 4, 1892.

CHAPTER CCLII.

An Act for the protection of travelers on the public roads in this state.

When any public road has become unsafe town committee shall notify the board of chosen freeholders, who shall repair the same.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That when any public road of this state shall be unsafe to travelers by reason of unprotected embankments or unguarded bridge approaches or exposure to overflow for a greater distance than one hundred feet in time of freshet or heavy rains, it shall be the duty of the town committee of the township within whose limits such unsafe road may be to notify in writing the board of chosen freeholders of the county, of the unsafe condition of said road for any of the reasons aforesaid, and it shall be the duty of the said board to provide protection to travelers on such road by erecting or repairing railings and guards along said embankments, bridge approaches or roads exposed to overflow, at the expense of the said county, in the same manner that bridges are built and maintained by said board within said county.

2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved April 4, 1892.

CHAPTER CCLIII.

An Act authorizing bridge companies authorized under the laws of this state or of any other state or of any other lawful authority to build and maintain a bridge or bridges over, in, upon or across any part of any of the navigable waters separating this state from any other state, to enter into a union or joint contract or agreement for the purpose of building, maintaining and operating such bridge or bridges, together with the necessary or proper connections and appurtenances and approaches thereto and stations, as one single consolidated work, whenever the whole or a portion of the respective lines of said bridge or bridges may or do embrace the same location or their locations may or can connect or become tributary to each other.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That whenever two or more bridge companies authorized by the laws of this state, or of any other state, or of this and any other state, or of any other lawful authority, to build and maintain a bridge or bridges over, in upon or across any part of any of the navigable waters separating this state from any other state, for the whole or a portion of the respective lines of said bridge or bridges, may or can or do embrace the same location or line, or whenever their locations or lines may or can or do connect or become tributary to each other, it shall and may be lawful for any such companies to heretofore or hereafter enter into a union or joint contract or agreement for the purpose of jointly or severally building, maintaining and operating any such bridge or bridges, together with all necessary or proper connections and appurtenances and approaches thereto and stations, as one single consolidated work, and providing for the joint or several building, maintaining or operating of the whole or any parts of said bridge or bridges common to both, together with all necessary or proper connections and appurtenances and approaches thereto and stations, and one consolidated whole.

Powers under such union.

2. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for such union or joint contract or agreement for the joint or several building, maintaining or operating of the said bridge, together with all necessary or proper connections and appurtenances and approaches thereto and stations, to be heretofore or hereafter made under the authority, conditions and provisions and with the powers hereinafter mentioned and contained, that is to say:

Directors of companies to agree upon terms

I. The directors of the companies proposing to enter into such union contract for the purpose of building, maintaining and operating such bridge may heretofore agree or may hereafter agree upon the terms of such joint agreement, and in that behalf it shall and may be lawful in such union or joint contract or agreement for the joint or several building, maintaining and operating of the said bridge, to heretofore or hereafter prescribe the terms and conditions thereof and the mode of carrying the same into effect, and it shall and may be lawful for the parties to such union agreement to heretofore or hereafter contract and pledge to and with each other for the due performance of the same all the present and future acquired property and franchises of said corporations, and to heretofore or hereafter prescribe such provisions as to the issue of obligations by either or both companies, and the securing of the same by guarantee or mortgage of either or both companies covering the franchises and property of either or both companies present or future acquired, and such other provisions and details as to the ownership, possession, control, maintenance and operation of the whole or any part of said bridge, together with its connections and appurtenances and approaches thereto and stations, by the respective companies or by the respective stockholders, directors, committees, officers, or agents of said companies or by any board of managers or arbitrators created or appointed under such agreement as may heretofore or hereafter be proper or necessary to carry into effect the objects of such union or joint contract or agreement for the joint or several building, maintenance and operation of the said bridge.

II. Said agreement shall have been heretofore submitted or may hereafter be submitted to the stockholders of each of the said companies or corporations at a meeting thereof heretofore or hereafter called specially for the purpose of taking the same into consideration, and in that behalf the following proceedings shall have been heretofore or may hereafter be had: due notice of the time and place of holding said meeting shall have been heretofore or may hereafter be given by each company to its stockholders by written or printed notices heretofore or hereafter addressed to each of the persons in whose name the capital stock of such company stands on the books thereof, and heretofore or hereafter delivered to such persons respectively or heretofore or hereafter sent to them by mail, when their post office address is known to the company, at least thirty days before the time of holding such meeting, and also by a general notice heretofore or hereafter published daily for at least four weeks in some newspaper printed in the city, town or county where such company has its principal office or place of business, and at the said meeting of stockholders, the agreement of the said directors shall have been heretofore or may hereafter be considered and a vote by ballot heretofore or hereafter taken for the adoption or rejection of the same, each share entitling the holder thereof to one vote, and said ballot shall be cast in person or by proxy, and if two-thirds of all the votes of all the stockholders of said respective companies shall have heretofore been or may hereafter be for the adoption of said agreement then that fact may be certified thereon by the secretaries of the respective companies under the seal thereof or after this act takes effect, and the agreement so heretofore or hereafter adopted or a certified copy thereof may be filed in the office of the secretary of state upon the payment to the secretary of the state, for the use of the state, of the sum of twenty dollars, and shall from thence be deemed and taken to be the agreement and union contract of the said companies for the joint or several building, maintaining and operating of said bridge, together with its connections and appurtenances and approaches thereto and stations, and a copy of the said union or joint contract or agreement, duly certified by the secretary of state under his official seal, shall be evidence in all courts and places of the existence of the said union or joint contract or agreement and that the foregoing provisions of this act have been fully observed and complied with.

Repealer.

3. And be it enacted, That all acts and parts of acts, whether general, special, local or otherwise, in any manner inconsistent with or repugnant to the provisions of this act be and the same hereby are repealed.

4. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved April 5, 1892.

CHAPTER CCLIV.

A Further Supplement to an act entitled "An act concerning the settlement and collection of arrearages of unpaid taxes, assessments and water rates or water rents, in the cities of this state, and imposing and levying a tax, assessment or lien in lieu and instead of such arrearages, and to enforce the payment thereof, and to provide for the sale of lands subject to future taxation and assessment," passed March thirtieth, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six.

1. BE IT ENACTED, by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That whenever any person shall desire to redeem any lands and real estate sold under and by virtue of the provisions of the act to which this is a supplement, and the acts supplementary thereto and amendatory thereof, every such person shall in addition to the sum or sums of money required to be paid as now provided by law, pay to the purchaser of such lands and premises, or to his assignee in case of assignment, or to the city for the use of the said purchaser, or his assignee, all the cost and expenses necessarily incurred in proceedings taken for the purpose of perfecting title thereto, including fees for searching, at the rates allowed by law, to the county clerks or registers of deeds for like services, but not including counsel fees; provided, however, that Persons desiring to redeem real estate to pay all expenses necessary to perfect the title thereto. said purchaser, or his assignee in case of assignment, shall on request made by the person redeeming, make and file with the city clerk of the city within which the said lands and premises are situate, duly verified by oath, a statement of such cost and expense. Proviso.

2. And be it enacted, That when such redemption is made by any person as mortgagee, such mortgagee shall have a lien upon the lands and premises redeemed, for the amount so paid, with interest, from the date of payment, and a like lien for all taxes and assessments levied Mortgages to have lien.

and assessed upon the said lands and premises subsequent to the levy and assessment of the taxes and assessments for which the sale was made, from the date of the payment thereof.

Costs and expenses to be paid on redemption.

3. And be it enacted, That on the redemption of any lands and premises purchased by the city at any such sale, the person or persons redeeming the same shall in addition to the amount paid by the city therefor, with interest, as now provided, pay to the said city the cost and expenses incurred by it in proceedings taken by it for the purpose of perfecting title to the said property, and also all taxes and assessments levied and imposed by said city upon said lands and premises subsequent to the levy and assessment of the taxes and assessments for which such sale was made.

Taxes and assessments not paid within two years lands to be sold.

4. And be it enacted, That sales for taxes and assessments levied and assessed on lands and real estate in any city of this state after the date of the passage of the act to which this is a supplement, which shall remain unpaid for the space of two years from and after the time when due and payable, may in the discretion and upon the direction of the board or body having charge or control of the finances of the city, be collected, and the lands and real estate subject thereto sold in the manner, and according to the directions of the act to which this is a supplement, it being the intention of this section to limit the time within which such sale may be made to two years instead of three as provided in the said act.

No amounts to be paid unless mayor approves.

5. And be it enacted, That no amount shall be paid to the purchaser of lands and premises under this act. or the act to which this is a supplement, or to his assignee, in case of assignment, or to the city for the use of said purchaser, or his assignee, for costs and expenses necessarily incurred in proceedings taken for the purpose of perfecting title thereto, unless the mayor of the city, where such costs and expenses are incurred, shall approve of the amount in each case to be paid to said purchaser, assignee or city for the use of such purchaser.

Repealer.

6. And be it enacted, That this act shall be deemed a public act, and shall take effect immediately, and that all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act be and the same are hereby repealed.

Approved April 5, 1892.

CHAPTER CCLV.

A Supplement to an act entitled "An act respecting police departments of cities, and regulating the tenure and terms of office of officers and men employed in said departments," approved March twenty-fifth, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That the provisions of an act entitled "An act respecting police departments of cities, and terms of office of officers and men employed in said departments," approved March twenty-fifth, eighteen hundred and eighty-five, be and the same are hereby extended and made applicable to all townships of this state having a population of four thousand inhabitants or over, and to all incorporated villages wherein there now is or hereafter may be established a police department.

Extends provisions of act to townships having 4,000 inhabitants.

2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved April 7, 1892.

CHAPTER CCLVI.

An Act authorizing the construction of sewers and drains in incorporated boroughs.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That it shall be lawful for the council or other governing body of incorporated boroughs of this state having authority by their charters by ordinance to make and adopt a general plan of sewerage and drainage for said boroughs, and having a public water supply, whenever they shall have adopted a plan of sewerage or drainage, to enter into agreements with persons or corporations to pay said borough any portion or the cost of erection and maintenance of said proposed system of sewerage or drainage or to donate lands therefor in view of the benefits to be received therefrom, which agreements when duly reduced to writing and properly subscribed shall be valid and binding upon the parties thereto; the council may thereupon cause said proposed sewers or drains to be constructed in said borough, or any part thereof, establish and maintain one or more outlets or places of deposit for the sewage within or without said borough, cleanse and repair said sewers or drains and do all such other matters as may be needed for the perfect construction and maintenance of said system of sewerage or drainage at public expense; provided, that this act shall not authorize the construction of sewers or drains in any borough, unless one-half of the estimated cost thereof shall first be subscribed and the payment thereof to the borough be secured from private sources aforesaid.

Incorporated boroughs may construct and maintain sewers and drains.

Proviso.

Former contracts validated.

2. And be it enacted, That all proceedings, contracts or agreements preparatory to the construction of a system of sewers and drains heretofore taken in any borough under its charter, or any law of the state authorizing the construction of sewers or drains in incorporated towns or boroughs of the state, are hereby validated and made effectual as preliminary steps toward the construction of sewers or drains under this act.

Borough may acquire land.

3. And be it enacted, That whenever it shall be advantageous or necessary to build or extend any part of said system of sewers, or any of the outlets thereto, over, through or upon private lands or property in order to reach the outlet fields or places of deposit, or for the better sewerage or drainage of the property in said borough, it shall be lawful for said borough to acquire land therefor in fee simple or any lesser right and estate therein; they may negotiate with the owners thereof and agree upon a compensation for said fee simple or lesser estate in said land; and make such compensation therefor as shall be reasonable, and thereupon shall receive from such owner or owners a conveyance of such land or estate therein to the borough.

4. And be it enacted, That in case no agreement can be made with the owner or owners of any such lands as aforesaid as to the amount of compensation to be paid for such lands or for such estate therein as aforesaid, by reason of the unwillingness of said owners, or any of them, to accept such compensation as council may deem reasonable, or by reason of the absence from this state or legal incapacity of said owners, or any of them, or by reason of any owner being unknown, it shall be the duty of the circuit court of the county in which the borough wherein it is proposed to construct such sewer or drain is situate, or one of the judges of the supreme court at his chambers upon application to said court or judge by said council, after ten days' previous notice in writing of such application to the persons interested, if known and in this state, served in person or by leaving at the dwelling house or usual place of abode of such owner or owners, or if unknown or absent from this state, or under age or other legal disability, after publication thereof for any term not less than two weeks in a newspaper published in such borough, which notice shall set forth in general terms a description of the lands required or in which such estate as aforesaid is required, to appoint three disinterested appraisers from the county wherein such borough is situate to determine the compensation to be paid for such lands or for such estate therein; and it shall be the duty of said appraisers to meet at such time and place as the court by its order shall appoint, of which meeting ten day's notice shall be given in a newspaper published in said borough, and after having taken an oath or affirmation faithfully and impartially to discharge the duties herein reposed in them, and after having carefully viewed the premises and given a hearing to all interested parties who shall appear before them and desire to be heard, within ten days after such meeting, to deliver to the borough clerk a written appraisement, under the hands and seals of them, or a majority of them, of the award they have made, containing a full description of the lands in which such estate in fee simple or such less estate as aforesaid shall be required; the borough clerk shall deliver such appraisement to said council at its next regular or special meeting after the same shall be delivered to him, and the said council shall thereupon cause the same to be recorded in the clerk's office of the county, and may thereupon order the borough treasurer, or other proper officer, to make or tender payment of the sums awarded in such appraisement to the respective owners of lands therein mentioned, and after such payment or tender of payment the said council, their agents and workmen, shall have power to enter upon and take possession of said lands for its purpose aforesaid; and in case any owner or owners of lands shall refuse to accept such payment upon tender made, or be under age or other legal disability, or be unknown or absent from the state, then and in such case it shall be sufficient for said borough treasurer or other officer to pay the amount of the award to any such owner into the circuit court of the county in which such borough is situate, subject to the order of said court, for the use of the party or parties entitled to the same; the costs of all proceedings in said circuit court shall be paid out of the borough treasury; in estimating the damages any owner of real estate will sustain by the construction of such sewer or drain across or upon his property, the commissioners in making their award shall have due regard as well to the benefits to be received by the property as to the damages sustained by the owner thereof by the construction of such sewer or drain.

Court may set award aside.

5. And be it enacted, That in case the council, or the owner or owners of said land or any of them, shall be dissatisfied with the award of the appraisers made as aforesaid, and shall apply to the circuit court at the next term after the said award shall be delivered to the said council, the court shall have power, upon good cause shown, to set the same aside and thereupon to direct a proper issue for the trial of the said controversy to be formed between the said parties, and to order a jury to be struck, a view of the premises to be had, and the said issue to be tried at the same or at any subsequent term of said circuit court, upon the like notice and in the same manner as other issues in the said court are tried; and it shall be the duty of the said jury to assess the value of the said land or estate therein required and the damages sustained, and if they shall find a greater sum than the said appraisers shall have awarded in favor of the said owner or owners, then judgment therefor, with costs, shall be entered against the borough and execution awarded therefor; but if the said jury shall be applied for by the said owner or owners, and shall find the same or a less sum than the appraisers shall have awarded, then the said costs shall be paid by the said applicants, and either deducted out of the said sum found by the said jury, or execution awarded therefor, as the court shall direct; but such application shall not prevent the workmen and agents of the borough from entering upon any such lands and constructing a sewer or drain thereon upon the award of the appraisers; provided, the amount of the award shall first be paid, or, in case the said award will not be received by said owner or owners upon a tender thereof, or the owner or owners are under a legal disability or absent from the state, or unknown; then provided, such award be first paid into the circuit court of the county for the use of such owner or owners; provided, further, that if the council shall be dissatisfied, and make application as above to have the award of the appraisers set aside, it shall be a sufficient tender to the owner or owners of land, to pay the amount of the said award into the said circuit court, subject to the final determination of said appeal.

6. And be it enacted, That in order to meet the expenses of the construction of such sewers or drains the council may borrow the money necessary therefor, temporarily, upon the promissory notes of such borough, or may issue temporary improvement certificates therefor, from time to time, as the work progresses, or may temporarily use the money in the treasury of said borough, as council may direct; said notes or certificates to bear interest at a rate not exceeding six per centum per annum, and to be payable within two years from date of issue.

7. And be it enacted, That in order to provide for the payment of the cost of said sewers, when the same shall be completed and the cost thereof ascertained, it shall and may be lawful for said borough to issue bonds to run for a period not exceeding twenty years from date of issue, to bear interest not exceeding five per centum per annum, which bonds shall be styled sewer bonds and be executed under the corporate seal of said borough, and bear the signature of the mayor and clerk of said borough; coupons signed by the mayor, for each half year's interest, shall be attached to each bond and numbered to correspond thereto, or said bonds may be registered, at option of the council; they shall be sold for not less than par; shall be exempt from tax in the hands of residents of said borough; and the council in order to meet the interest on said bonds and one-twentieth of the amount of the principal sum thereof, annually, from and after one year after their issue, shall order the needed money to be raised in the tax levy of said borough, on the taxable property therein, each and every year until the bonds are paid.

8. And be it enacted, That the total amount of promissory notes, certificates or bonds to be issued under authority of this act in any borough, shall not exceed in value two per centum of the taxables of said borough, and this act shall not be construed to authorize the council to waive or alter any existing limitation on the sum to be raised by tax in said borough in any one year.

9. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved April 7, 1892.

CHAPTER CCLVII.

An Act relating to the consolidation of corporations, organized as gas light companies, electric light companies, and electric light, heat and power companies in cities of the second class in this state, which heretofore have been incorporated under general or special laws of this state.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That it shall and may be lawful for any corporation or corporations of this state, incorporated under general or special laws, whose object is to make and sell gas, for the purpose of lighting the streets, buildings and other places in cities of the second class in this state where such companies are now established, and any corporation or corporations of this state, in said cities, whose objects are the manufacturing, generating, storing, dealing in, furnishing and supplying of electricity for light, heat and power, and also carrying on of any and all business in connection therewith, and concerning the sale and supply of the said light, heat and power to persons desiring to purchase the same, and of selling and dealing in appliances necessarily used in connection with the same and pertaining thereto, to consolidate and merge such companies, in said cities, and their corporate rights, franchises, powers and privileges, into a single corporation in the manner following, so that by virtue of this act such corporations, in said cities, will be consolidated and merged into one company, and so that all the property, rights, franchises and privileges by law vested in or enjoyed by such corporations so merged shall be transferred to and vested in the new corporation into which said consolidation and merger shall be made.

Gas and electric light companies in cities of the second class may consolidate.

2. And be it enacted, That such consolidation and merger of said corporations shall be made in the same manner as provided for the consolidation and merger of

3. And be it enacted, That such consolidated company and all its real estate, franchises and other property shall be subject to taxation and shall be assessed in the manner provided by law from time to time for the taxation and the assessment of the real estate, franchises and other property of such corporations, and shall pay such tax as is or may be imposed upon its property and franchises; and shall pay an annual tax for the use of the state by way of a license for its corporate franchises, the same as if such consolidation had not been made, the intent being that the revenue to be paid to the state shall not be diminished in any way, but shall be at least as great as if paid by said companies separately before consolidation.

Proviso.

Preamble.

4. And be it enacted, That all acts or parts of acts, general or special, inconsistent with the provisions of this act, be and the same are hereby repealed, and that this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved April 7, 1892.

CHAPTER CCLVIII.

A Supplement to an act entitled "An act to establish a weather service in New Jersey, and to provide for the appointment of a board of directors and president thereof, and appropriating money to pay the actual expenses of the same," approved June nineteenth, anno domini one thousand eight hundred and ninety.

WHEREAS, the senate and general assembly of the state Preamble.
of New Jersey did, by an act of the legislature, entitled "An act to establish a weather service in New Jersey, and to provide for the appointment of a board of directors and president thereof, and appropriating money to pay the actual expenses of the same," approved June nineteenth, anno domini one thousand eight hundred and ninety; whereas, a state weather service was duly established under the provisions of said act, with a central station at the agricultural experiment station at New Brunswick, for the purpose of securing trustworthy material for the study of the climate of New Jersey, to acquaint the people of the state with the physical condition of every locality based upon reliable climatic data, and to furnish during the growing season reliable information by weekly and monthly reports as to the actual condition of the staple crops; whereas, forty-eight meteorological and seventy-five crop weather stations have been established, the observations and reports of which have greatly benefited the agricultural, commercial and municipal interests of the state of New Jersey; whereas, the said weekly and monthly reports have been distributed throughout the state, and are considered of great practical value to the agricultural industry and other pursuits; and whereas, the state weather service is unable to meet the pressing and constantly increasing demand for said reports by reason of the exhaustion of the state appropriation;

Appropriations for reports and expenses.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That the sum of one thousand dollars is hereby appropriated annually for the continuance of said weather stations, and the preparation, printing and distribution of said reports under the supervision of the board of directors, to be expended as follows:

For printing five hundred copies of each monthly meteorological report, the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars:

For printing fifteen hundred copies of the weekly crop reports from May first to September tenth, three hundred dollars;

For clerical labor preparing said weekly reports from May first to September tenth, two hundred and fifty dollars;

And for actual expenses incurred for renewing unserviceable instruments and visiting local stations, the sum of two hundred dollars.

2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved April 7, 1892.

CHAPTER CCLIX.

A Supplement to an act entitled "An act to enable boards of chosen freeholders to acquire, improve and maintain public roads," approved March nineteenth, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine.

Bonds may be issued in any township for improving roads to an amount not less than five per cent. of assessed valuation.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That if the inhabitants of any township shall vote in accordance with the provisions of any general public law of this state, to issue the bonds of such township to an amount not less than five per centum of the assessed valuation of such township, for the purpose of improving the public roads of such township, by grading and paving with telford or macadamizing the same, or otherwise paving the same by means of stone or gravel, and building culverts and drains, and the township committee of said township shall proceed in good faith to issue such bonds and make such improvements, then and in such case the said township shall not thereafter be liable to pay any part of the cost of any pavement or improvement made by the board of chosen freeholders under the provisions of the act to which this is a supplement, upon roads thereafter acquired by the said board of chosen freeholders under the said act, or the cost of keeping the same in repair; provided, however, that if any pavement or improvement shall be thereafter made by any such board of chosen freeholders, through the limits of the said township on roads acquired before or subsequently, then the said township shall be liable to pay its share of the cost of such pavement or improvement through the limits of the said township, and keeping the same in repair as provided in the said act. Proviso.

2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved April 7, 1892.

CHAPTER CCLX.

An Act providing for the vacating, in cities of this state, of public parks which have been laid out by an act of the legislature, the land for which has not been actually appropriated and taken possession of for the purposes of such park, but has, from the time of the passage of any such act, remained in the possession and enjoyment and under the control of the owner or owners thereof.

Vacating public park where land has not been taken possession of.

Proviso.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That in any city of this state any public park which has heretofore been laid out as such by an act of the legislature, designating or describing the plot or tract of land so laid out, which land has not been actually appropriated and taken possession of for the purposes of such park by the municipal authorities of any such city, but has remained in the possession and enjoyment or under the control of the owner or owners thereof from the time of the passage of any such act to the time of the passage of this act, shall be and the same is hereby vacated; provided, however, that no award of damages to the owner or owners of any such land has been made for or on account of the taking of the same for the purposes aforesaid.

2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved April 7, 1892.

CHAPTER CCLXI.

An Act to authorize the correction of errors and mistakes in the tax and assessment records of any public road board, or other public body, or municipality, in this state, and in the payment of any tax or assessment, made by error or mistake by any person upon the property of another.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That whenever any tax or assessment shall have been levied, made or imposed upon any lot, tract or parcel of land, by authority of any public road board, or other public body or municipality in this state, and it shall thereafter appear to the satisfaction of the said board, or other public body or municipality, that by or through any error or mistake such lot, tract or parcel of land was or has been wrongly, incorrectly or improperly described, numbered or designated, whereby any such tax or assessment would appear by any map or record of the same to have been levied, made or imposed upon a lot, tract or parcel of land, not intended to have been so taxed or assessed, and in fact not so assessed, it shall be lawful for such board, or other public body or municipality, under authority of which any such tax or assessment was levied, made, or imposed, to cause any and all such mistakes and errors to be corrected, and any and all such lots, tracts or parcels of land to be rightly, correctly and properly described, numbered and designated in such manner that no lot, tract or parcel of land and property shall appear to be wrongly, incorrectly or improperly described, numbered or designated, or shall escape proper taxation or assessment by reason of any such error or mistake, and any such board, or other public body or municipality, may adjust and apportion any such tax or assessment in such manner as in its judgment and assessment records of public road boards or municipality may be corrected

may be necessary and proper for the correction of any such error or mistake.

Tax and assessment to be properly charged.

2. And be it enacted, That whenever in any case any person by reason of any such error or mistake as aforesaid has paid any tax or assessment upon any lot, tract or parcel of land and property of any other person, intending at the time to have paid such tax or assessment upon any lot, tract or parcel of land and property of which he was the owner, or in which he had any interest justifying the same, at the time of making such payment, in every such case it shall be lawful for any such board, or other public body or municipality, to cause any such tax or assessment so paid by error or mistake upon the property of another, to be reinstated, and charged and properly entered upon the records and maps of such board, or other public body or municipality, against the property upon which any such payment was made by error or mistake, and the said tax or assessment shall thereupon be and remain a lien upon the land upon which it was intended to be and was levied, made or imposed, and shall thereupon be collectible by any such board, or other public body or municipality, by authority of which any such tax or assessment was levied, made or imposed, and thereupon the said board, or other public body or municipality, shall have power to discharge the property intended to have been discharged by any such payment, from the lien of any such tax or assessment thereon which it was the intention of the parties making and receiving such payment to have discharged from any such lien at the time of making any such payment by error or mistake.

3. And be it enacted, That this act shall be taken and deemed to be a public act and shall take effect immediately.

Approved April 7, 1892.

CHAPTER CCLXII.

A Further supplement to an act entitled "An act relative to sales of lands under a public statute or by virtue of any judicial proceeding" (Revision), approved March twenty-seventh, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

WHEREAS, The provisions in force relative to the sales of lands and the advertisement and adjournment of the same, have not been in all respects known or complied with, whereby the titles to certain lands are alleged to be defective and uncertain;

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That no sale of lands heretofore made by any sheriff, executors or administrators shall be invalidated by reason of such sale having been made on any legal holiday or half holiday or having been adjourned for a time or times exceeding two months in the whole, or by reason of the omission to advertise adjournments, or by reason of any one or more of said adjournments having been made on any legal holiday or half-holiday, but that the purchaser or purchasers of any lands at such sale, who shall have paid the price thereof and received a deed or deeds therefor, such sale having been duly reported to and confirmed by the proper court, shall have as good and complete a title thereto as if said sale had not been made on a legal holiday, or half-holiday or had been adjourned from time to time, not exceeding two months in the whole, and the adjournments thereof duly published, or as if the said adjournments had not been made on any day or days now known and regarded as legal holidays or half-holidays.

2. And be it enacted, That this act shall be deemed and taken to be a public act, and shall take effect immediately.

Approved April 8, 1892.

CHAPTER CCLXIII.

A Supplement to an act entitled "An act respecting the court of chancery (Revision,) approved March twenty-seventh, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five.

Payment to judgment credit ors may be made from surplus money from sales in chancery.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That whenever any lands shall have heretofore been or shall hereafter be sold by virtue of any order or decree of the court of chancery, and there shall be a surplus arising from such sale which shall be deposited in said court, and any person or persons or corporation shall, theretofore or thereafter, obtain judgment in any of the courts of this state against the owner or owners of said lands so ordered to be sold, or any other person or persons who shall be entitled to such surplus money, or any part thereof, it shall and may be lawful for, and the chancellor is hereby authorized, empowered and directed, upon petition filed by or in behalf of such judgment creditor or creditors, and upon due proof made to the satisfaction of the chancellor that the residence of the person entitled to such surplus moneys is unknown, and cannot be ascertained, to order and direct such surplus moneys so deposited, or so much thereof as may be necessary, be paid to such judgment creditor or creditors, in satisfaction of their said judgment, notwithstanding such creditor or creditors were not made parties defendant in said cause; that in such cases it shall not be necessary for the judgment creditor or creditors to apply to be admitted as parties defendant in said cause, but said petition shall be entitled in the cause out of which such surplus was realized; and that such proof as is by this act required, may be by affidavit, or otherwise, as the chancellor shall direct.

Repealer.

2. And be it enacted, That all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act, be and the same are hereby repealed, and that this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved April 8, 1892.

CHAPTER CCLXIV.

An Act to empower any manufacturing company incorporated by special act of incorporation of this state to exchange any portion of its paid up stock for assessable shares and for preferred shares and common shares in lieu thereof.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That it shall and may be lawful for any manufacturing company duly incorporated by special act of incorporation of this state, to exchange any portion of its full paid capital stock, by and with the consent of the holders thereof, for assessable shares, which shall acknowledge the payment in the aggregate of the same amount of money as may be represented by the full paid shares so surrendered; and the directors of the said company may call from time to time for installments on the said assessable shares until the same shall be fully paid, and the directors of any such company may, with the consent of all the stockholders thereof first had and obtained in writing, issue any portion of its capital stock in preferred shares bearing a fixed rate of dividend not exceeding eight per centum per annum, which shares shall be subjected to redemption and retirement upon such conditions as may be expressed in the certificates of said stock; and the said directors may use the said preferred shares at par, or the proceeds thereof, to provide additional capital or to pay the debts of the said corporation; it shall be lawful for the said directors in their discretion to make an issue of shares of common stock equal in number to the preferred shares so issued, which common stock shall be subject to assessment from time to time by the directors of the said company for the redemption and retirement of the said preferred stock in accordance with the provisions thereof or for the general uses of the said company; provided always, that any stock of any company which may at any time have been retired or surrendered may be re-issued at par for money or in payment of debts; and provided further, that at no time shall the total amount of the capital stock outstanding at any one time exceed the amount authorized by law.

Certificate to be filed in office of secretary of state.

2. And be it enacted, That whenever any additional stock shall be issued, or any stock shall be retired or re-issued, a certificate thereof shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state, showing the total amount of stock outstanding at the date of the filing of such certificate.

3. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved April 8, 1892.

CHAPTER CCLXV.

An Act in relation to city printing and official advertisements in cities of the second class in this state.

Governing boards of cities of the second class may designate official newspapers by resolution, with the consent of the mayor.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That it shall be lawful for the common council, board of alderman or other governing body, with the consent of the mayor, of any city of the second class in this state, to designate by resolution the official newspaper or newspapers published in any such city, in which shall be solely published all official notices, ordinances, advertisements, minutes and official proceedings relating to the municipal affairs of such city, and to fix a compensation to be paid by the city for the service rendered by such official newspaper or newspapers.

Repealer

2. And be it enacted, That all acts and parts of acts, general, special, local and private, inconsistent herewith, be and the same are hereby repealed, and that this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved April 8, 1892.

CHAPTER CCLXVI.

An Act for extending the time for completing certain railroads.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That whenever the time limited ^{Extending time for completion of certain railroad.} for the completion of any railroad authorized to be constructed within this state under any special or general act has expired or shall expire before the thirty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, such time shall be and the same is hereby extended for the further period of two years from the passage of this act provided, however, that this act shall not apply ^{Proviso.} unless money has actually been expended in surveys or location of route or in acquisition of right of way or in construction since January first, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six; provided, further, that this act shall ^{Proviso.} not apply to any corporation unless such corporation shall first, and as the condition precedent to the exercise of any power granted by this act, file in the office of the secretary of state an agreement, to be approved by the governor and attorney-general, waiving all right of exemption from taxation, and from privileges and advantages arising from any law or contract, if any there be, establishing any special mode of taxation of any such corporation, and the further agreement to be bound by any general law of this state now in existence or that may be hereafter passed, taxing such corporations as are now authorized to be taxed by the legislature of the state under any general law, and further agreeing that the exercise of any power granted by this act, shall not in any way affect the rights of this state, if any there exist, to take the property of such corporations under any existing law of this state, and agreeing, further, that all laws affecting such corporation shall be subject to alteration or repeal by the legislature.

2. And be it enacted, That this act shall be deemed a public act and shall take effect immediately.

Approved April 8, 1892.

CHAPTER CCLXVII.

An Act to amend an act entitled "An act for the formation and government of villages," approved February twenty-third, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one.

Section to be amended.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That section two of the act to which this is amendatory be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Villages to be organized must petition to the judge of the circuit court in the county where it is located for an election, which petition must be signed by at least one-fifth of the taxable real estate in the limits of the village.

2. And be it enacted, That the proceedings for the formation of such village shall be commenced by petition for an election to be held under this act, addressed to the law judge of the court of common pleas in and for the county wherein said proposed village is situated, and if such county have no law judge then to the judge of the circuit court in and for said county, which petition shall set forth the name and boundaries of the proposed village and be signed by persons owning at least one-fifth in value of the taxable real estate in the limits of the proposed village as the same appears upon the assessor's duplicate for the preceding annual tax levy; said petition shall be filed with the clerk of said county and be open to the inspection of all persons interested.

Sections repealed.

2. And be it enacted, That the third, fifth, seventh, fifty-sixth and sixty-seventh sections of said act be and the same are hereby repealed.

Section to be amended.

3. And be it enacted, That section four of said act be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

4. And be it enacted, That upon the presentation and filing of said petition, it shall be the duty of said judge to appoint a time for the consideration of said petition, notice of which shall be in writing under his hand, set up at least ten days previous to said time, in five of the most public places within said proposed village limits, and published at least twice in a newspaper published therein, if any, and if none so published, then in a newspaper published in said county; such notice shall contain the name and boundaries of the proposed village and shall state that on the day so appointed the said judge will sit to hear and consider what may be said thereon by any person interested.

which such village was originally incorporated; provided, that the question of adopting this act shall be submitted to the legal voters of said village by the trustees or other governing board of said village at a general or special election held for the purpose and be approved by a majority of the votes cast at such election, and the result of such election shall be thereupon submitted to the law judge of the court of common pleas of the county wherein said village is situated, who shall examine the proceedings and the result of said election and shall have the same powers and duties in respect thereto as are herein provided in respect to the result of the election authorized in the previous sections of this act, and shall file his determination thereof as herein provided.

10. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved April 8, 1892.

CHAPTER CCLXVIII.

A Further Supplement to an act entitled "An act concerning the settlement and collection of arrearages of unpaid taxes and assessments and water rates or water rents in cities of this state, and imposing and levying a tax, assessment and lien in lieu and instead of such arrearages, and to enforce the payment thereof, and to provide for the sale of lands subjected to future taxation and assessment," passed March thirtieth, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six.

Proceedings for sales of lands for unpaid taxes and assessments.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That in proceedings for the sale of lands for unpaid taxes and assessments under the act to which this is a further supplement, in cities not divided into wards, or that have no block maps, or have not two newspapers printed in the city, it shall be sufficient to describe the property by lot numbers on the assessment maps and publish the advertisement of sale in two newspapers circulating in the city, said advertisement to be published once in each week for four weeks prior to said sale.

2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved April 8, 1892.

CHAPTER CCLXIX.

An Act relative to the payment of arrears of assessments for the improvement of roads and streets and the interest thereon in incorporated cities of the third class.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That at any time within four months after the passage of this act any person or persons may pay to the collector of taxes, or other person authorized to receive the same, in any incorporated city of the third class in this state, the principal amount of any assessment for the improvement of any road or street in such city upon any real property belonging to any such person or persons and now remaining unpaid, without interest or costs that have heretofore or that may hereafter accrue upon the same; and the collector of taxes, or other person authorized to receive the same, shall make and deliver to the person or persons making such payment a receipt therefor, and shall forthwith cancel the record of such assessment; upon such payment such assessment shall cease to be a lien upon the real estate or property, and shall be deemed and taken to be fully satisfied and discharged, and there shall be no right to any interest or penalty by reason of such assessment not having been paid within the time heretofore required by law, or by reason of any statute passed requiring the payment heretofore of any penalty or interest upon any unpaid assessment; provided, however, that nothing in this act shall authorize the receipt, under the provisions of this act, of any such assessment in cases where lands and real estate have been sold for assessments and bought in by any other person than the city in which such assessments are paid, or some officer for the use of such city; nor shall any lien upon real estate for such assessments be released or affected, nor shall any sale of real estate for assessments or the delivery of any certificate or declaration of sale or deed therefor be stayed by anything in this act contained; provided, further, that the provisions of this act shall apply only to assessments made in the year eighteen hundred and eighty-nine.

Proviso.

2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved April 8, 1892.

CHAPTER CCLXX.

A Supplement to an act entitled "An act concerning evidence," (Revision), approved March twenty-seventh, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

Notice required for the testimony of witnesses residing in foreign states or kingdoms.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That it shall not be lawful for any party in a civil cause to take the testimony of any witness de bene esse residing in any foreign state or kingdom upon less than forty days' notice in writing of the time and place of such examination, and of the names of the witnesses to be examined to the adverse party, his attorney or solicitor, that he may be present and put interrogatories, if he shall see fit.

2. And be it enacted, That no party to any civil cause shall be examined in his own behalf de bene esse under the provisions of the act to which this is a supplement, except upon the written consent of the attorneys of all the parties thereto, unless the court in which the action shall be pending or any judge thereof at chambers, shall upon the petition of the party applying therefor, upon notice to the other side, order in his discretion the examination of such party, nor shall any testimony of such party taken or to be taken de bene esse be used or read at the trial of said cause, unless taken upon such order.

3. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved April 8, 1892.

CHAPTER CCLXXI.

A Further Supplement to an act entitled "A supplement to an act entitled "An act for the relief of citizens on the line of any railroad that has or may hereafter fail or neglect to operate, approved February twelfth, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four,"" which supplement was approved March third, one thousand eight hundred and eighty.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That the first section of an act entitled "An act for the relief of citizens on the line of any railroad that has or may hereafter fail or neglect to operate," approved February twelfth, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, which section was amended by the supplement to which this act is a supplement, be further amended so that the same shall read as follows:

books, papers or documents as required; or in case any person shall refuse to obey any order made by said justice as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for such committee upon affidavits proving the facts to apply to such justice of the supreme court for an attachment against such person as for a contempt; and it shall be duty for such justice to hear such application, and if satisfactory proof is made of such refusal, to issue an attachment, directed to any constable or police officer of such city, for the arrest of such person, and upon his being brought before him, to proceed to a hearing of the case; and the said ^{Penalty.} justice shall have power to enforce, by imprisonment in the county jail, obedience to such subpoena, and the answering of any question that may be proper, or the production of any book, paper or document that the witness would be compelled to produce in a court of law, and also to compel such witness to pay the cost of said proceeding, to be taxed by the said justice; and any person who shall willfully and corruptly testify falsely to any material matter upon oath or affirmation administered by any member of such committee, upon such investigation or inquiry, shall upon conviction thereof, be subject to the penalties of perjury.

2. And be it enacted, That all acts and parts of acts in- ^{Repealer.} consistent with the provisions of this act, be and the same are hereby repealed, and that this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved April 8, 1892.

CHAPTER CCLXXV.

A Supplement to an act entitled "An act concerning the settlement and collection of arrearages of unpaid taxes, assessments and water rates or water rents in cities of this state, and imposing and levying a tax, assessment and lien in lieu and instead of such arrearages, and to enforce the payment thereof, and to provide for the sale of lands subjected to future taxation and assessment," passed March thirtieth, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six.

Conveyances to convey land freed of estate of dower.

Proviso.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That the conveyance or conveyances of land given pursuant to the provisions of the act of which this is a supplement and all supplements thereto, shall convey the land freed and discharged of and from all estate dower, or by the curtesy or inchoate right of dower and estate by the curtesy therein; provided, that notice shall be or shall have heretofore been given to the person having such estates of dower, by the curtesy or inchoate right of dower or estate by the curtesy in said lands in the manner provided in said act and supplements, including this supplement, and in case the first or christian name of such person, wife or widow or husband, when the title is in the wife, as the case may be, is unknown to the purchaser or his agent, notice may be given to such person, using in case of the wife or widow the first or christian name of the husband with the prefix "Mrs." thereto, and where the title is in the wife the prefix "Mr." before the surname, and then "husband of," using the name of the wife; and an affidavit of the fact that such first or christian name is unknown to the purchaser or his agent shall be filed with the officer with whom the proof of service and mailing is required to be filed.

2. And be it enacted, That no writ of certiorari shall be allowed, and no action shall be brought, to contest or set aside any deed hereafter given pursuant to the provisions of the act of which this is a supplement, or any supplements thereof, or to recover possession of the lands conveyed by such deed, after the expiration of two years from the date of the execution of such deed. Certiorari not allowed after two years from the execution of the deed.

3. And be it enacted, That the assignee of the certificate or certificates of sale given pursuant to the provisions of said act and supplements, shall give notice, in his or their names, of such sale to the owners, mortgagees and other persons interested as required by said act and supplements, and to acquire title to the lands and receive the deed or deeds thereof, in the same manner and to the same effect and extent as if such assignee or assignees were the original purchaser or purchasers at the tax sale, and any such notice or notices heretofore given by such assignee or assignees are declared to be valid and effectual and are to have the same force and effect as is given pursuant to this act. Notice of sale.

4. And be it enacted, That the officer whose duty it is to make and execute the deeds under the said act and supplements, in describing the land in the deed given pursuant thereto may, in addition to the lot and block numbers, describe the same by metes and bounds, if the same can be ascertained from the assessment map; and every such deed shall be recorded in the office of the clerk or register of the county within which the lands and premises conveyed thereby are situated; that the corporation counsel shall make or have made the necessary searches and serve or have served the necessary notices for all the lands purchased by the city under said act and supplements, and the fees for such searches and notices shall be paid to him by the city treasurer from time to time upon his filing a statement under oath of such fees and notices, and provided the amount for such fees shall be approved by the mayor. Description of lands in deeds.

5. And be it enacted, That where notice is given by publication pursuant to the provisions of said act and supplements, or has heretofore been so given, to the person who by records in said county where the land sold lies, is or appears to be the owner or mortgagee of said lands Deed to be recorded.

Notices where persons are unknown and address cannot be ascertained.

or to have an interest therein, and the time for redemption has not yet elapsed and the purchaser or his agent, or his assignee or his agent, does not know of his own knowledge and cannot ascertain by inquiry made on the said lands whether such person is alive or deceased, and cannot ascertain his address by inquiry made on said lands, such person shall be conclusively presumed to be alive, and a notice published as required by said act and supplements, and mailed to the address, if given by the deed, mortgage or other recorded instrument, to him shall, after the time limited for the redemption of said lands, bar, bind, divest and foreclose of and from all equity of redemption, the right, title and interest in said lands of not only such person, if he shall have been alive at the time of the publication of such notice, together with all persons claiming through or under him, but shall also be conclusive against and bar, bind, divest and foreclose of and from all equity of redemption, all right, title and interest in said lands, of the heirs, devisees and personal representatives of such person or persons if at the time of such publication of said notice such person shall, in fact, have been dead: provided, the said purchaser or his agent, or his assignee or his agent make affidavit to the fact that he does not know and cannot ascertain by inquiry made in said lands whether such person is alive or dead at the time of the first publication of said notice, and could not then ascertain his address by inquiry made upon said lands, and does not know such address at the time of making said affidavit, and that the only address he can learn of such person is that disclosed by said record, if any is disclosed, and where no address is given publication alone shall be sufficient: and he shall also make proof of such mailing, if notice is mailed, which affidavits and proof shall be filed with the officer with whom the proofs are required to be filed, before the execution and delivery of the deed for said lands.

SECTION 11
OF THE ACT
OF 1871, CHAPTER 10
AS AMENDED

6. And be it enacted, That all the affidavits or service of publication and other proof required to be made by the act of which this is supplement, and all supplements, shall be filed with the city clerk, and all the affidavits and proofs now or hereafter filed shall, after the expiration of two years from the time of the execution of the deeds of the land relating to which they are filed, be deemed and taken as conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated.

7. And be it enacted, That where the land heretofore sold or hereafter sold under this act and supplements, the title of which shall be vested in a trustee, service of the notice required under the said act of which this is a supplement, and all supplements heretofore or hereafter made on the trustee or person holding the title of said lands in trust, either by deed or descent, as provided in said act and supplements, shall after the time for redemption has passed, bar, bind, divest and foreclose all right, title and interest of every kind, not only of such trustee in said lands, but also all the right, title and interest of all persons in any manner interested in said lands either in law or equity, whose names are not disclosed by the deed creating the trust.

Land sold, if not redeemed in time, bars right of title of trustees.

8. And be it enacted, That the owner, mortgagee or other person interested may redeem as in said act and supplements provided the lands sold pursuant to the said act and supplements at any time before notice is given or before the expiration of six months after notice shall have been given to him of such sale by the purchaser, his heirs or assigns, in the manner in said act and supplements provided, or before a deed of said premises shall have been delivered.

Notice for redemption of land and when it may be redeemed.

9. And be it enacted, That all acts or parts of acts, so far as they are inconsistent herewith, be and the same are hereby repealed, and that this act shall take effect immediately.

Repealer.

3. And be it enacted, That no bonds shall be issued or authorized under the provisions of this act, by the board having charge and control of the finances of such city, nor shall any contract be made for the construction of a new city hall or any part thereof, or resolution for the expenditure of any moneys be authorized by such city hall commissioners unless the same shall have been approved by the mayor of such city, to whom the same shall be submitted for approval in the same manner as the acts and resolutions of other municipal boards are by law required to be submitted.

Approved April 9, 1892.

CHAPTER CCXCII.

An Act to amend an act entitled "An act to provide for the formation and government of towns," approved April twenty-fourth, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That section sixty-one of an act entitled "An act to provide for the formation and government of towns," approved April twenty-fourth, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section to be amended.

61. And be it enacted, That streets or sections of streets shall be laid out, opened, straightened, extended, widened or otherwise changed as to their boundaries, in the following manner and not otherwise: a petition, in writing, signed by the owners of one-sixth of the property fronting on the improvement desired, shall be presented to the council, setting forth accurately the improvement desired; if the council shall favor the petition the same shall be referred to the commissioners of assessment and a town surveyor not interested in such improvement, who shall thereupon make a map of such improvement, showing the real estate to be taken therefor, and all the property, which in the judgment of said commissioners, will be specially benefited thereby, designating each lot and parcel on said map by a letter or number; said commissioners shall also ascertain, so far as practicable, the name of the owners of said real estate to be taken and property to be benefited, and the interest of each of the owners of real estate to be taken, and when such names or estates are not known they shall so report; they shall also appraise the value of the interest of each known owner of real estate to be taken, and the damage to be done to such owner by taking the same; and where the estates in any plot of land are unknown, they shall How streets to be laid out or boundaries changed.

appraise the value of or the damage done to the fee simple; said commissioners shall also estimate all other expenses likely, in their judgment, to attend the completion of the improvement; said commissioners shall also estimate the amount likely to be realized from the sale of any buildings, or parts of buildings, required to be taken on account of said improvement, and shall so determine the probable net cost of making the improvement; this probable net cost they shall then assess upon the land to be specially benefited, in proportion to the benefit to be received; thereupon they shall, under their hands, make a report of the facts ascertained and of the appraisements, estimates, determinations and assessments made by them concerning said improvement, and shall file such report and their map with the clerk of the town; thereupon the said clerk shall cause a notice of the filing of said map and report to be printed in the official newspaper of the town, or, if there be none, in a newspaper published in the county and circulating in the town, for the period of two weeks, which notice shall contain a general description of the improvement intended of the land to be taken, and of the land to be assessed therefor, and shall state the time and place when and where the council will meet to hear and consider any objections to said report or to the improvement, which may be presented in writing; said clerk shall also, within said period, cause notices to the same effect to be posted at points not over three hundred feet apart along the whole line of said improvement; the time appointed for hearing such objections being not less than ten days after the expiration of said period of two weeks, and shall also, within the said period, serve a copy of such notice upon resident owners of real estate affected thereby; but the omission of the clerk to serve such notice shall not invalidate any of said proceedings; and all objections at such time and place, presented in writing, the council shall consider and adjudicate upon, and the awards or assessments made in said report may be corrected accordingly, a copy of which corrections, signed by the chairman of the council, shall be filed with the said clerk within twenty days after the expiration of said period of two weeks; if the said council shall then determine to make said improvement, notwithstanding any objections to the same, the said council shall confirm said awards, with the corrections, if any, and pass an ordinance ordering said improvement to be made and completed in such manner as said council may direct, under the supervision of said commissioners of assessments; provided, Proviso. the said council shall not proceed to make any such improvement if the owners of the property subject to more than one-half of the assessment for the improvement shall remonstrate against the same being made; the said council shall also pass a resolution directing the several sums awarded to be paid to the persons to whom the awards are made for real estate taken and damages sustained in making said improvement, and upon the passage of such resolution the fee simple of said real estate to be taken shall be vested in the town; provided, Proviso. that where the commissioners shall have reported the name or estates of the owners of any plot as unknown, the said resolution shall direct the sum of the award on account of such plot to be paid to the owners thereof, when and as their interest may appear, and any such owner or person interested in said land may, by bill in chancery, according to the practice of that court, have the said sum distributed or in whole or in part paid over to him, as law and justice may require; after the completion of said improvement the said commissioners shall ascertain and determine the actual net cost thereof, and shall assess, as hereinafter provided, such actual net cost upon the lands specially benefitted in proportion to the benefit received.

2. And be it enacted, That section sixty-four of the said Section to be amended. act be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

64. And be it enacted, That any street or section of a How streets graded, macadamized, &c. street may be graded, flagged, macadamized, paved, curbed, guttered or otherwise improved, as hereinbefore provided, in the following manner, viz.: on the petition in writing to the council by the owners of one-sixth of the lands fronting on the street proposed to be improved, the council shall, by resolution, direct the town clerk to advertise such application or petition and the notice hereinafter provided for, for at least two weeks, one in each week successively, in the official paper of the town, or if there be none, in one or more newspapers published in the county and circulating in the town, and to post copies of the said petition and notice in five public places in the town, designated by the council, at least ten days prior to the time fixed for the hearing of objections to such improvement; the clerk shall also publish and post as aforesaid, with the petition, a notice signed by him stating that objections in writing to said proposed improvement shall be filed with him, and designating the time and place when and where the town council will meet to consider such objections, which time shall not be less than ten days after the date of the first publication of such petition and notice as aforesaid; and the said clerk shall also serve like notice on the owners of property residing along the street or section of street so proposed to be improved, at least five days before the time designated in said notice; provided, however, that no assessment shall be set aside or affected by reason of the failure of said clerk to serve such notice; and at or before the time named in such notice the said clerk shall file in his office affidavits showing that such petition and notice have been published and posted as herein required; at the time named in such notice the council shall proceed to consider such objections as shall have been presented, and if it appear that the owners of a majority of the land fronting on such proposed improvement have objected thereto, such improvement shall not be made, and all costs and expenses incurred in such proceedings shall be paid by the petitioners, to secure which the council shall in all cases require a deposit of twenty dollars before receiving any petition; and in case the owners of a majority of the lands fronting on the proposed improvements have not objected thereto, the council may, in its discretion, determine not to make such improvement, in which case the deposit made by the petitioner or petitioners shall be returned to him or them; and the defeat of any ordinance for such improvements, introduced before the council, shall be conclusive as to the determination of the council not to make such improvement; at any time after the time named in said notice for objections, the council may proceed to pass an ordinance for such improvement, and such ordinance shall be valid if it describes in general language the improvement required to be made and done, and it shall not be necessary to state therein any other matter or thing connected with said improvement; the town clerk shall publish and post such ordinance in the same manner and for the same time he is required to publish and post the petition for the improvement described therein; and he shall file in his office an affidavit showing that such ordinance has been duly published and posted; at any time after the passage of such ordinance the council may require the clerk to advertise for proposals for doing the work of and furnishing the materials necessary for such improvement, in the official paper of the town and in such other newspapers as shall be designated by the council, which proposals shall be presented in such form and manner and under such regulations as the council shall prescribe; upon the coming in of such proposals the council may enter into contract with the lowest responsible bidders on the terms of their proposals; provided, however, that Proviso. the council may reject all bills if they deem it for the interest of the town so to do, in which case they shall again advertise for proposals and shall proceed in all things as if no proposals had been offered; and the council shall require the person or persons so entering into contract with the town to give bonds with ample freehold security for the due performance thereof.

3. And be it enacted, That section sixty-five of the said act be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section to be amended.

65. And be it enacted, That sewers may be built and constructed in any of the streets of the town under the control of the town authorities on the petition of owners of one-sixth of the lands adjoining the proposed route of the sewer; and the proceedings, after receiving such petition, shall be in all respects the same as are hereinbefore set forth for flagging and grading of streets; and all the provisions of this act relating to flagging and grading of streets shall be applicable to proceedings for the construction of sewers, except as modified in and by this section. When sewers constructed. Proceedings.

Section to be amended.

4. And be it enacted, That section seventy of the said act be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Council may issue improvement certificates.

70. And be it enacted, That the council shall have power to issue improvement certificates, payable within one year or less with interest, to the amount of eighty per centum of the work done on any street, sewer or other public improvement when certified as correct by the engineer in charge of the work; and when the contract is fully completed and the work is accepted, the town council may issue a certificate for an additional fifteen per centum of said work done, and in not less than three nor more than six months after the date of the acceptance of the work may issue a final certificate for the balance due, unless some errors or defects in the work shall have appeared, in which case the certificate shall be withheld until the defect or errors are rectified to the satisfaction of the council.

5. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved April 9, 1892.

PROCLAMATIONS.

PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR.

In accordance with law, and the established custom of this state, it is the duty of the Executive to designate annually a day of thanksgiving and prayer; upon which day the people may rest from their work and labor, and assemble in places of worship, to acknowledge and return thanks to Almighty God for his goodness and mercy, and pray that he will continue to bless us with abundance and prosperity.

Therefore, I, Leon Abbett, governor of the state of New Jersey, do hereby designate and appoint Thursday, the twenty-sixth day of November, as a day for public thanksgiving and prayer, and recommend that all the people of this state abstain from work on that day, and assemble in their respective places of worship, and give thanks to God for his kindness and mercy in the past, and invoke his blessing upon the nation, the state, and upon all our people.

[L. s.] Given under my hand and privy seal at the executive chamber, in the city of Trenton, on the eleventh day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one.

LEON ABBETT.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That section four of said act, approved March ninth, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, be and the same is hereby amended so that the same shall henceforth be and read as follows and not otherwise, to wit:

Contracts to be made.

4. And be it enacted, That after the expiration of ten days and within twenty days next succeeding such determination and decision, the said managers, or a majority of them, shall by contract, or in such other manner as to them shall seem best, take and provide the necessary and proper measures and means for opening on or before the first day of October then next ensuing, said brook and tributaries and ditches as required by said decision and determination; but said managers, or any of them, shall not be personally bound by or liable under any contract that may be made or measures or means that may be adopted for the purposes aforesaid, unless such personal liability be expressly assumed and stated.

Section to be amended.

2. And be it enacted, That section five of said act approved March ninth, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, be and the same is hereby amended so that henceforth said section five shall be and read as follows and not otherwise, to wit:

5. And be it enacted, That the said managers, or a majority of them, shall within five days after the said contract shall have been made or measures and means taken and provided as aforesaid, appoint an assessor, annually, by writing under their hands, whose duty it shall be forthwith to proceed and assess upon the owners of said lands so to be benefited by the clearing out of said brook and its tributaries and said ditches within the limits aforesaid, the expenses thereof as ascertained and determined by said managers, or a majority of them, upon the making of such contracts or the taking and providing the measures and means aforesaid, in proportion to the benefits each owner will receive, in the opinion of said assessor, from the clearing out of said obstructions; and said assessor shall, within ten days after his appointment, make return of his assessment to the said managers, who, or a majority of whom, shall thereupon within five days thereafter cause the said clerk to give notice thereof to said owners of lands so assessed, and if any owner of lands shall feel aggrieved by said assessment he may within ten days after receiving notice thereof as aforesaid, appeal therefrom to said managers, who shall appoint a time and place for the hearing of all appeals to them made, and their decision, or the decision of a majority of them, in the premises shall be final and conclusive.

assessor.

3. And be it enacted, That section six of said act approved March ninth, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, be and the same is hereby amended so that henceforth said section six shall be and read as follows and not otherwise, to wit:

Section to be amended.

6. And be it enacted, That the said assessment shall be due and payable to said managers on or before the fifteenth day of October in each year, and if any person assessed shall neglect or refuse to pay his assessment as herein required, fifty per centum shall be added thereto, and the amount of said assessment and added per centum shall be a lien upon the said lands of such person, and said managers or a majority of them may,

Assessments,
when payable

after five days' notice in five public places in the township or townships where said lands may be situate, make sale at public auction of the crops growing on said lands of the person or persons so making default as aforesaid, in order to raise and pay the amount of his, her or their assessment and added per centum with costs and expenses of collecting the same; or if said managers, or a majority of them, choose so to do, they may bring an action of debt against any person or persons in default as aforesaid, in any court having jurisdiction of the amount to be recovered; which action may be brought in the individual names of the said managers or any two of them, and it shall be sufficient to declare that the suit is brought to recover of the defendant an assessment made against him under and by virtue of the said act approved March ninth, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, and the supplements thereto; and any judgment recovered in any such action may be collected by execution issued generally against the goods and chattels, lands and tenements of the defendant, in the same manner as other judgments in said courts are or may be collected.

4. And be it enacted, That this supplemental act shall take effect immediately.

Approved April 4, 1892.

CHAPTER CCLXXVIII.

Supplement to an act entitled "An act to set off from the township of Dover, in the county of Ocean, a new township, to be called the township of Berkley," approved March thirty-first, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five.

WHEREAS, at the time of setting off from Dover township the portion thereof described in said act, constituting the township of Berkley, there belonged to Dover township an interest in the poor-house and property located at Shark river, in the county of Monmouth, state of New Jersey; and whereas, through inadvertence, the portion in said poor-house and property belonging to that portion of Dover township set off was not conveyed to the township of Berkley at the time the settlement was made, as provided in said act; and whereas, the interest belonging to Berkley township in said property still exists in Dover township, and Berkley township has derived no benefit therefrom; therefore,

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That the township committee of Dover township are hereby authorized, directed and required to convey to the township of Berkley, as soon as they conveniently can after the passage of this act, its proportion of the said poor-house real estate, located at Shark river, in the county of Monmouth, and state of New Jersey, by a deed of bargain and sale, and the other property belonging to the same, by proper conveyance, as agreed upon between the township committees of the respective townships, said to be one-fifth of four-thirty-thirds part of said property; and that the committee of Dover township that are in office when said conveyance or conveyances are executed shall sign and execute said conveyance or conveyances.

Preamble.

Township committee of Dover to convey to township of Berkley its proportion of poor-house real estate

2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved April 8, 1892.

CHAPTER CCXCVI.

A Further Supplement to the act entitled "An act to empower the owners of the Pigeon swamp, marshes and ponds adjoining in the South ward of New Brunswick in the county of Middlesex, to open and keep clear of obstructions a certain water course and ditch for draining the said swamp, marshes and ponds," passed at Trenton, March the twentieth, one thousand seven hundred and eighty.

Acts revived.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That the said act to which this is a supplement, and the several supplements thereto, are hereby revived, renewed and declared to be in full force and effect, notwithstanding any failure or neglect on the part of the owners and possessors of the said swamp, marshes and ponds to meet yearly or in any year to choose three men as managers as provided in said act.

Managers.

2. And be it enacted, That John D. Selover, Alexander G. Van Aken and Isaac S. Bennett, of the township of South Brunswick, be and hereby are appointed to manage and execute the several duties in said act and its several supplements and herein directed, with all the powers thereby conferred, who shall hold their said office until their successors shall be appointed as herein provided.

Meeting of owners.

3. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the owners and possessors of the lands upon which the said swamp, marshes and ponds are situate, or a majority of them, to meet on the first Monday in April, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, at such place in the township of South Brunswick wherein the said lands do lie, as they may designate, and on that day yearly thereafter in like manner to meet, and thereupon to choose by plurality of voices three men as managers, to succeed and discharge the duties of the managers that may then be in office, ten days' notice in writing being first given by any one or more of said owners or possessors, to the several other owners or possessors of the time and place of such meeting.

4. And be it enacted, The the managers hereby appointed and hereafter to be appointed as herein directed may hold their said office, and that they or a majority of them may discharge all the duties thereof, until their successors shall be appointed as herein provided. Term of managers.

5. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said managers to straighten and deepen the ditch mentioned in the second section of the said act in such manner as they shall judge necessary effectually to carry off the water from the said swamp, marshes and ponds, and to apportion and assess upon the owners of said swamp, marshes and ponds the expense thereof, and collect the same from them in the manner in said act and herein provided. To straighten and deepen ditch.

6. And be it enacted, That in addition to the method specified in said act of collecting from said owners the expenses of improvements made by virtue thereof, it shall be lawful for the said managers to collect the same, and the expenses and costs that may be incurred by virtue of this supplement, by sale of so much of the timber, wood, herbage and other vendible property of such owners and possessors respectively, on the premises improved by said managers, as will be sufficient to pay their several shares of said expenses, with the necessary costs, and it shall be the duty of the justice issuing his warrant to any constable of said county of Middlesex, as provided in the third section of said act, in addition to the direction to the said constable therein specified, to include and require said constable to make said expenses and costs by sale of said timber, wood, herbage or other vendible property of such delinquent owners or possessors of said improved lands. Method of collecting expenses.

PRIVATE ACTS

PASSED BY THE

One Hundred and Sixteenth Legislature

CHAPTER XXXV.

A Supplement to an act entitled "An act to incorporate the Hoboken fire department fund for the benefit of all indigent and infirm firemen of the city of Hoboken, and also their widows and orphans," approved March, eleventh, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven.

WHEREAS, public notice has been given and published as Preamble. required by the constitution and laws of this state, of an application to this session of the legislature, for an amendment to the act in the above title recited, and no cause appearing to the contrary thereof,

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of Trustees. the State of New Jersey, That the trustees of the Hoboken fire department fund shall hereafter consist of eleven members, to be composed of the president, ex-officio, of the association of exempt firemen of the city of Hoboken and one member at large of said association, and one member or representative in good standing in said association of each volunteer engine, hose and hook and ladder company recently disbanded in said city.

2. And be it enacted, That the representatives or mem- How elected. bers of the said engine, hose and hook and ladder companies in said association shall, after the passage of this act, elect from their number one member of their recently disbanded companies as a trustee of the said "the trustees of the fire department fund," who, when confirmed by a vote of the said association of exempt firemen, shall be considered the representative of the particular fire company electing him in said board of trustees and shall hold his office for two years from the time of his election, except in the first election under this act, in which case the trustees elected shall draw lots for one and two year terms, and shall hold office accordingly; provided, however, that in all cases the trustees so elected by companies shall be confirmed by a majority vote of the members of said exempt firemen's association.

Proviso.

When lawful for association to elect trustees.

8. And be it enacted, That when there shall exist no more than one member of any disbanded engine, hose or hook and ladder company in said association of exempt firemen, and it shall, therefore, be impossible to hold an election for such trustee, it shall be lawful for the said association of exempt firemen to elect a trustee to represent such company from the general membership of said association.

Duties and obligations.

4. And be it enacted, That the trustees so elected shall so perform all the duties and assume all the obligations heretofore performed and assumed by the trustees of the Hoboken fire department fund, and shall be vested with all the power and authority heretofore vested in the said trustees.

Trustees authorized to appropriate a sum not to exceed $500 annually for the support of the widows and orphans of deceased members of the volunteer fire department of the city.

5. And be it enacted, That the said trustees shall have power, in addition to the powers already vested in them, whenever in their judgment the requirements and the general objects of their organization render it necessary, to appropriate a sum not to exceed five hundred dollars annually of the principal fund of the said organization for the support of the widows and orphans of deceased members of the volunteer fire department of said city, in addition to the sum appropriated from the income of the principal invested or from other sources.

Part of former acts repealed.

6. And be it enacted, That all the acts and parts of acts and special charter provisions inconsistent with the provisions of this act be and they hereby are repealed, and that this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 7, 1892.

CHAPTER CXXXIV.

An Act to change the name of the Princeton Charitable Institution to The Students' Aid Association.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That the name of the Princeton Charitable Institution, a body politic and corporate, in fact and in law, by the name of "The Trustees of the Princeton Charitable Institution," be changed to The Trustees of the Students' Aid Association. Name of Princeton Charitable Institution changed to Students' Aid Association.

2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 24, 1892.

CHAPTER CLXXXIII.

An Act for the relief of John Kelly.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That John Kelly, of the city of Trenton, in the county of Mercer, be and he is hereby restored to all his rights and privileges as a citizen of New Jersey. Restoration to citizenship.

2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 28, 1892.

CHAPTER CCXLIV.

An Act to release and convey to Brooks Sayre, William J. Faitoute, Charles W. Faitoute and Joshua F. Faitoute, children and heirs of Elizabeth Faitoute, deceased, Mary Cain and Hannah Osborne, said Elizabeth, Mary and Hannah being with said Brooks Sayre heirs at law of Brooks Sayre, deceased, and to their assigns, any estate to the state of New Jersey belonging, in certain lands and premises.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, Brooks Sayre, deceased, late of the county of Union, being in lifetime seized of certain lands and premises situate in said county, made a will dated October fifteenth, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, in which he bequeathed to one Daniel Purcell (otherwise called Pearsall) two hundred dollars, and after certain other bequests and devises, and giving his executors power to sell his lands not otherwise disposed of, devised all the residue and remainder of his estate in equal shares and proportions to and amongst the children of one John J. Conklin, and to Joseph Kain, the said person called Daniel Pearsall, John Morgan, and Margaret daughter of said Joseph Kain, so that said children and said persons should equally share the same; and whereas, the validity of said will was disputed by the said heirs at law of said Brooks Sayre, deceased, and its devises were by the verdict of a jury rejected; and whereas, nevertheless, claim is made that the said person, called Daniel Pearsall, acquired title to a share of said lands, or an interest therein for the payment of said legacy, by the terms of the said will, notwithstanding a deed of the said lands duly made by said executors to said heirs at law; and it is alleged that said Daniel Pearsall, who died before said executors made said deed, was born out of wedlock, and that his estate in said lands, he having died before the passage of the act entitled "A supplement to an act directing the descent of real estate," approved April sixteenth, one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, which supplement was approved March ninth, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, vested by escheat in the state of New Jersey; and whereas, also, the mother of said Daniel Pearsall, after his death, but before said act, supposing herself to be his heir at law, he having died intestate and without leaving lawful issue, conveyed said lands to said heirs at law, and it is desirable and just that the cloud upon the title to said lands existing or supposed to exist through the premises should be done away; now, therefore,

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of Title of the state of New Jersey released. the State of New Jersey, That all and any right, title, interest, property, claim or demand, of the state of New Jersey, in and to any of the lands and premises with the appurtenances of which said Brooks Sayre died seized, situate in the county of Union or elsewhere, is hereby granted, remised, released, conveyed and confirmed unto the said Brooks Sayre, William J. Faitoute, Charles W. Faitoute and Joshua F. Faitoute, children and heirs at law of Elizbeth Faitoute, deceased, Mary Cain and Hannah Osborne, said Elizabeth, Mary and Hannah being heirs at law of said Brooks Sayre, deceased, and to their heirs and assigns by any deed now or hereafter made forever.

2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved April 4, 1892.

CHAPTER CCXLV.

An Act to repeal an act entitled "An act to incorporate the Red Bank and Woodbury turnpike or macadamized road company," approved March eighth, one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, and the supplement thereto entitled "An act to authorize the Red Bank and Woodbury turnpike or macadamized road company to extend their turnpike road through the main street of Woodbury," approved March tenth, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, and a further supplement to said act entitled "An act relative to the Red Bank and Woodbury turnpike or macadamized road company," approved March twenty-eighth, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two.

Repealer of charter and supplements.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That the act entitled "An act to incorporate the Red Bank and Woodbury turnpike or macadamized road company," approved March eighth, one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, and the supplement thereto entitled "An act to authorize the Red Bank and Woodbury turnpike or macadamized road company to extend their turnpike road through the main street of Woodbury," approved March tenth, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, and a further supplement thereto entitled "An act relative to the Red Bank and Woodbury turnpike or macadamized road company," approved March twenty-eighth, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, be and the same are hereby repealed.

2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect April fifteenth, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.

Approved April 4, 1892.

CHAPTER CCLXXXIV.

An Act to repeal an act entitled "An act for facilitating the communication from Morris town, in the county of Morris, through Dover, Mount Pleasant, and from thence to Sparta, in the county of Sussex," passed at Trenton, February twenty-third, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, and the several acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto.

1. BE IT ENACTED, by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That an act entitled "An act for facilitating the communication from Morris town, in the county of Morris, through Dover, Mount Pleasant, and from thence to Sparta, in the county of Sussex," passed at Trenton, February twenty-third, one thousand eight hundred and four; and also an act entitled "An act authorizing a turnpike road from Dover to Succasunny Plain, in the county of Morris," passed at Trenton, January sixteenth, one thousand eight hundred and twelve; and also an act entitled "An act to authorize the Union turnpike company to raise money by lottery for the purposes therein mentioned," passed at Trenton, February fourth, one thousand eight hundred and fifteen; and also an act entitled "Supplement to the act entitled 'An act for facilitating the communication from Morris town, in the county of Morris, through Dover, Mount Pleasant, and from thence to Sparta, in the county of Sussex,'" approved March twenty-fourth, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, be and the same are hereby repealed. Acts repealed recited.

2. And be it enacted, That this act shall be deemed a public act and take effect immediately.
